Lost And Found Catholics Voices Of Vatican II:

Lost & Found Catholics Christopher M. Bellitto, 1999 Hear the stories of a generation coming to terms with their own experience of Church Christopher Bellitto himself a member of this generation has listened to these prodigal sons and daughters These voices offer poignant and articulate perceptions of the confusion that followed the wake of Vatican II In Lost and Found Catholics those reaching back to the Church or trying to find a comfortable spot to call home will hear echoes of their own stories and perhaps find the catalyst for coming to terms with their own experience of Church Those who minister to returning Catholics will understand more deeply the concerns of these lost and found Catholics Views from the Pew, Pulpit and Women Religious Ed Koncel, 2010-07 In his very personal account Ed Koncel a well read and thoughtful Catholic shares his recollections of the church past his frustrations with the church present and his hopes for Catholicism's more vibrant future Robert McClory author of As It Was in the Beginning Ed Koncel writes from the perspective of a faithful son of the Church faithful over the course of his long life He writes with both passion and compassion in regard to the people and the proceedings of the Second Vatican Council and the developments since the Council Obviously well read and actively involved in various groups working to make real the words and spirit of the documents of the Vatican II he speaks with the authority of knowledge and personal experience and integrity I believe he also speaks as one whose love of the Church motivates him to keep working for its coming to accept the full participation of all in the liturgical and governmental life of its people Mr Koncel strikes me as a man of hope an extraordinary virtue in our time Denise Wilkinson SP General Superior of the Sisters of Providence Faith Formation 4.0 Julie Anne Lytle, 2013-02-01 Using an ecological approach to study how emerging technologies impact individual and communal formation Faith Formation 4.0 looks at how our efforts to be story keepers story sharers and story makers have evolved over four eras of human communication Framed by the Great Commission imperative to make disciples this book offers a road map to help leaders develop goals to form inform and transform new members as well as long time believers within a faith community The author successfully illustrates that church success depends not only on knowing the Christian message of God's enduring love but also how to use today's tools appropriately for evangelization and faith formation American Catholic Studies, 2005 Seeds of Hope Tim Muldoon, 2008 Seeds of Hope asks what kind of Church we are inviting young people to join and then analyzes the contemporary social and spiritual landscapes in search of signs of hope for the future of the Church BOOK JACKET A Progressive Voice in the Catholic Church in the United States Arthur J. McDonald, 2019-10-29 In the summer of 1966 one year after the conclusion of the Second Vatican Council a group of nineteen Roman Catholic priests met clandestinely in a church hall in a suburb of Pittsburgh to discuss forming an independent group of ordained clergy Fearful that meeting publicly might be viewed as a threat to the authority of the local bishop thus potentially risking sanctioning from him they used numbers not names when circulating the minutes of the first two meetings Once the word spread among the local clergy that such a group was meeting and they realized there was widespread interest they went public and invited all of Pittsburgh's Catholic clergy including the bishop to their third meeting. They chose a name the Association of Pittsburgh Priests APP and the group was launched. Shortly after forming and with interest from among over two hundred clergy APP began advocating for major church renewal and involvement in any number of social justice issues. Regarding church renewal they grounded themselves in the documents of Vatican II most especially Gaudium et Spes. Church in the Modern World and soon lobbied for optional celibacy and married priesthood women's ordination lay empowerment including the promotion of the early church notion of the priesthood and prophethood of all believers. To this day APP remains a force for change in the church and in society ever true to its initial intuition to fully implement the renewal of church and society called for by the bishops at Vatican II.

New Generations of Catholic Sisters Mary Johnson S.N.D. de N., Patricia Wittberg S.C., Mary L. Gautier, 2014-04-01 This book offers a comprehensive examination of the generations of women who entered religious life in the United States after 1965. It provides up to date demographics for women's religious institutes a summary of canon law locating religious life within the various forms of life in the Church an analysis of Church documents on religious life and data on the views of post Vatican II entrants regarding ministry identity prayer spirituality the vows and community. Beginning each chapter with an engaging narrative the authors explore how different generations of Catholic women first became attracted to vowed religious life and what kinds of religious institutes they were seeking. By analyzing the results of extensive national surveys the authors systematically examine how the new generations of Sisters differ from previous ones and what those changes suggest about the future. The book concludes with recommendations for further understanding of generations within religious life and within the Church and society. Because of its breadth and depth this book will be regarded by scholars the media and practitioners as an essential resource for the sociological study of religious life for women in the United States.

A Church Without Borders Jeffrey Thomas VanderWilt, 1998 What kind of Church arises from the Lord's table? Doctrine customs culture and history divide the Churches. Christians do not share a common table. Can a divided and injured Church celebrate the Eucharist the sacrament of Christian communion? These are a few of the questions addressed in this study of the ecclesiology of communion. The borderless Church of the infinite love of Christ exists today. The divided Churches need only receive the communion of God as their innermost nature at the borderless table of God's kingdom.

Catholic Social Thought Jonathan Boswell, Francis P. McHugh, Johan Verstraeten, 2000 These essays are an attempt to recover something of the form style and force of Catholic non official social thinking in the face of contemporary social thought and contemporary injustice in advanced societies. After an opening essay by the doyen of Catholic writers in this field Jean Yves Calvez SJ the book is divided into three sections. The first and largest group of essays discuss patterns and predicaments of Catholic social thought in general terms and from different points of view. The context here is partly the debate on modernity high modernity and post modernity partly the issue of how far and in what ways Catholic Social Thought can claim to be distinctive relative to contemporary secular thought The second section of the book focusses on relationships between Catholic social thought and its restatement and a number of contemporary debates on public issues Particular attention is given in successive essays to issues of anti poverty human rights economic theory and international finance A third and shorter section describes a number of institutional projects which attempt to carry Catholic social values forward into concrete action focussing on work in health and welfare grass roots economic co operation anti poverty and international peace and justice Final contributions by the reputed international scholar in this field John Coleman SJ and the book editors respectively evaluate the collection as a whole and discuss further steps
