Lost Paradise:

The Lost Paradise Janice F. Keilholtz, 2014-09-29 Way back when in 1963 and then again in 1969 two baby girls were born to Janice Keilholtz Landis and Wesley Landis While raising the two of us they attempted to teach us many life lessons One of the more important ones being trust The others being love and respect and so on Janice and Wes truly loved respected and trusted each other My sister and I witnessed this on a daily basis while growing up Anyone who knew or met them could see it right away However I didnt know that the true lessons of love respect and most of all trust were taught to us more not in life but in death The death of our mother Janice Keilholtz Landis Now when Mom was alive she had a box It was her box My sister and I had no knowledge of this box Dad knew of the box but not of the contents Mom had told him This is my box and you dont look in it And you know he ever did That is until she passed away Then when he was cleaning out a closet he came across the box When he opened it he discovered scrapbooks she had put together In one of them he found several poems she had written one of which was all the way back when she was in sixth grade She kept all of these a secret We had no idea she had written any of them She loved respected but most of all trusted our dad to not look in the box and he never did until her death As we read through them we found they were too beautiful to be kept a secret anymore and wanted to share them with everyone We hope you will enjoy them as much as we do Wesley Landis Leann Landis Weaver and Jennifer Landis Wootten
