Lotus Flower Of The Heart Thirty Years Of Tzu Chi Photographs:

Lotus Flower of the Heart Douglas Shaw, 1997 Buddhist Missionaries in the Era of Globalization Linda Learman, 2004-11-30 This insightful volume dispels the common notion that Buddhism is not a missionary religion by revealing Asian Buddhists as active agents in the propagation of their faith. It presents at the same time a new framework with which to study missionary activity in both Buddhist and other religious traditions. Included are case studies of Theravada Chinese and Tibetan Buddhist teachers and congregations as well as the Pure Land Shingon Zen and Soka Gakkai traditions of Japan. Contributors examine both foreign and domestic missions and the activities of emigrant communities showing the resources and strategies garnered by late nineteenth and twentieth century Buddhists who worked to uphold and further their respective traditions often under difficult circumstances. Based on anthropological fieldwork and historical research the essays break new ground and provide better analytical tools for studying mission activity than previously available. They provide instructive comparisons with Anglo American Protestant missionary thinking and offer insights into the internal dynamics of Sri Lankan and Japanese missions as they make their way in Protestant and Catholic societies. Also included are nuanced studies of two major missionary figures in late twentieth century Chinese Buddhism and a fascinating look at the present Dalai Lama's relationships with his devotees and the American government viewed through an exposition of the abiding tradition within Tibetan Buddhism that combines mission activity with the political goals of exiled lamas. Contributors: Stuart Chandler, Peter B. Clarke, C. Julia Huang, Steven Kemper, Linda Learman, Sarah LeVine, Richard K. Payne, Cristina Rocha, George J. Tanabe Jr., Gray Tuttle. Taiwan's Buddhist Nuns Elise Anne DeVido, 2012-02-01 Taiwan's Buddhist nuns are as unique as they are noteworthy. Boasting the greatest number of Buddhist nuns of any country, Taiwan has a much greater number of nuns than monks. These women are well known and well regarded as dharma teachers and for the social service work that has made them a central part of Taiwan's civil society. In this the first English language book on Taiwanese women and Buddhism, author Elise Ann DeVido introduces readers to Taiwan's Buddhist nuns but also looks at the larger question of how Taiwan's Buddhism shapes and is shaped by women, mainly nuns but also laywomen who like their clerical sisters flourish in that country. Providing an historical overview of Buddhist women in China and Taiwan, DeVido discusses various reasons for the vibrancy of Taiwan's nuns' orders. She introduces us to the nuns of the best known of order, the Buddhist Compassion Relief Foundation (Ciji), as well as those of the Luminary Buddhist Institute. Discussing Buddhism for the Human Realm, DeVido asks whether this popular philosophy has encouraged and supported the singular strength of Taiwan's Buddhism women. Buddhism, International Relief Work, and Civil Society H. Kawanami, G. Samuel, 2013-12-17 Natural disasters in Asian countries have brought global attention to the work of local Buddhist communities and groups. Here the contributors examine local Buddhist communities and international Buddhist organizations engaged in a variety of relief work in countries including India, Thailand, Sri Lanka, China, and Japan.
