Louie Simpsons North Bend:

Louie Simpson's North Bend Dick Wagner, 1986 North Bend Dick Wagner, Judy Wagner, 2010 Early settlers driven by greed and a sense of entitlement and sanctioned by their government took Coos Indian lands without compensation Asa Simpson purchased land at the north bend of Coos Bay from settlers He wanted his company town including a sawmill and shipyard to remain small but his son Louis had other ideas Louis Simpson created a bustling frontier town filled with civic minded citizens as well as drinkers gamblers and prostitutes North Bend never became Simpson s dream of another San Francisco but it was a thriving shipbuilding center until the end of World War I and a busy port for timber and lumber exports into the 1980s The people of this beautifully situated city now focus on different economic realities embracing tourism welcoming retirees and appreciating their history A Gathering of Finches Jane Kirkpatrick, 2011-05-04 Based on historical characters and events A Gathering of Finches tells the story of a turn of the century Oregon coastal couple and the consequences of their choices as seen through the eyes of the wife her sister and her Indian maid Along the way the reader will discover reasons to trust that money and possessions can t buy happiness or forgiveness nor permit us to escape the consequences of our choices The story emphasizes the message that real meaning is found in the relationships we nurture and in living our lives in obedience to God Good Time Girls of the Pacific Northwest Jan MacKell Collins, 2020-02-24 Throughout the development of the American West prostitution grew and flourished within the mining camps small towns and cities of the nineteenth century Pacific Northwest Whether escaping a bad home life lured by false advertising or seeking to subsidize their income thousands of women chose or were forced to enter an industry where they faced segregation and persecution fines and jailing and battled the hazards of disease drug addiction physical abuse and pregnancy They dreamed of escape through marriage or retirement but more often found relief only in death An integral part of western history the stories of these women continue to fascinate readers and captivate the minds of historians today The Timberman , 1927

Northwest Forest Plan, the First 10 Years (1994-2003) , 2006 This case study examines the socioeconomic changes that took place between 1990 and 2000 in and around lands managed by the Bureau of Land Management BLM Coos Bay District in southwestern Oregon for purposes of assessing the effects of the Northwest Forest Plan the Plan on rural economies and communities in the Coos Bay region The case study included an analysis of changes in the districts programs as well as socioeconomic changes that occurred within the communities of Coos Bay Myrtle Point and Reedsport Data were gathered during 2003 and 2004 from multiple sources including U S census databases county and state criminal justice and economic development databases and BLM annual reports Interviews with BLM employees and community residents provided additional insights on how the Plan affected local socioeconomic conditions and the districts interactions with local communities Northwest Forest Plan, the First 10 Years (1994-2003): Rural communities and economies , 2006 The socioeconomic monitoring report addresses two evaluation questions posed in the Northwest Forest Plan the Plan

Record of Decision and assesses progress in meeting five Plan socioeconomic goals Volume I of the report contains key findings Volume II addresses the question Are predictable levels of timber and nontimber resources available and being produced It also evaluates progress in meeting the goal of producing a predictable level of timber sales special forest products livestock grazing minerals and recreation opportunities The focus of volume III is the evaluation question Are local communities and economies experiencing positive or negative changes that may be associated with federal forest management Two Plan goals are also assessed in volume III 1 to maintain the stability of local and regional economies on a predictable long term basis and 2 to assist with long term economic development and diversification to minimize adverse impacts associated with the loss of timber jobs Progress in meeting another Plan goal to promote agency citizen collaboration in forest management is evaluated in volume IV Volume V reports on trends in public values regarding forest management in the Pacific Northwest over the past decade community views of how well the forest values and environmental qualities associated with late successional old growth and aquatic ecosystems have been protected under the Plan a fifth Plan goal and issues and concerns relating to forest management under the Plan expressed by community members Volume VI provides a history of the Northwest Forest Plan socioeconomic monitoring program and a discussion of potential directions for the program
