Rottenberg

Louis Le Bavard:

Louis-René Des Forêts John T. Naughton, 1993 The work of Louis Ren des For ts exemplary in its global austerity its obsessive but lucid preoccupations its aesthetically attuned yet unpretentious manner had received only intermittent if at times privileged attention until Yves Bonnefoy s subtle and penetrating analyses appeared recently in the Nouvelle Revue Fran aise Des For ts poetics emerges today as at once existentially and aesthetically challenging contestatory bleak some would argue and yet recuperative resilient intuitively alert to states of being our century and even his own work can find difficult to embrace The tensions of role playing and authenticity are ever manifest and simple transitive depiction vies thus with the intransitivity of fiction Identity easily dislodges itself and the meaning of our doing is thrown into doubt and disarray Beyond but also through such dramas of man and writer Des For ts struggles however to stabilise the claims of the kingdoms of love of other of otherness the excarnate tussles with the incarnate futility stares in amazement upon simplicity childhood mystery John Naughton s study eloquent patient discreet yet deftly perceptive helps further to restore to Louis Ren des For ts work a place of honour from which it has delightfully honestly tended to shrink The Delirium of Praise Eleanor Kaufman, 2003-05-01 The laudatory essay in which one author praises the work of another is frequently characterized as an unimportant even uncritical mode of writing But as Eleanor Kaufman argues in The Delirium of Praise this mode of exchange is serious and substantial enough to merit scholarly attention By not conforming to standard practices of critical discourse laudatory essays give new status to supposedly inferior forms of communication and states of being including chatter silence sickness imbalance and absence of work and emphasize affective states or emotions such as joy friendship and longing The Delirium of Praise examines a group of five twentieth century French intellectuals Georges Bataille Maurice Blanchot Michel Foucault Gilles Deleuze and Pierre Klossowski and their laudatory essays about each other Structured as a circular series of exchanges the book examines pairings of two thinkers with respect to a given theme The exchange between Bataille and Blanchot takes up the themes of chatter and silence with regard to the novelist Louis Ren des For ts the Blanchot Foucault exchange explores friendship and impersonality through the lens of Jacques Derrida the Foucault Deleuze exchange considers absence of work d soeuvrement and the obscure French philosopher Jacques Martin the Deleuze Klossowski exchange revolves around the question of the sick body and the person of Nietzsche and the final exchange between Klossowski and Bataille focuses on imbalanced economies and the writings of the Marquis de Sade Where the praise is most excessive approaching delirium Kaufman locates a powerful thought energy that pushes the laudatory essay to its limits In her conclusion she presents this unique mode of thought exchange as a form of intellectual hospitality Kaufman uncovers a suspension of subjectivity of personality even of place and time that is both articulated in the laudatory essays and enacted by them Her examination of this neglected mode as practiced by five important French thinkers offers a unique perspective on twentieth century intellectual history A Systemic Functional Grammar of French Alice Caffarel-Cayron, 2006-06-27 The consistent interplay between theoretical and applied pursuits has always been a defining feature of systemic functional theory This kind of mutual enrichment is clearly demonstrated in Alice Caffarel s work The result is a description which penetrates to the heart of the language revealing it at one and the same time as a specimen of the human semiotic and a unique resource for the continuous creation of meaning Professor M A K Halliday from the Preface

Of Words and the World David R. Ellison,1993-03-22 Here David Ellison explores the problems encountered by France s best experimental authors writing between 1956 and 1984 when faced with the question What should my writing be about These years are characterized by the rise of the new novelists who questioned the representational function of writing as they created works of imagination that turned in upon themselves and away from exterior reality It became fashionable at one point to affirm that literature was no longer about the world but uniquely about the words on a page the signifying surface of the text Ellison tests this assumption showing that even in the most seemingly self referential fictions the words point to the world from which they can never completely separate themselves Through close readings Ellison examines the novels and theoretical writings of authors whose works are fundamental to our perception of contemporary French writing and thought Camus Robbe Grillet Simon Duras Sarraute Blanchot and Beckett The result is a new understanding of the link between the referential function of literary language and the problematic of the ethics of fiction

Postwar Figures of L'ephemere James Petterson, 2000-09 The question of the relationship between aesthetics and history is reconsidered in this study of these postwar poets Petterson argues that postwar French poetry is a critical poetry encompassing a vast poetic tradition from poets such as Baudelaire and Rimbaud to Francis Ponge and Paul Celan The author also shows how the critical writings of Hegel Heidegger and Ricoeur among others suggest that what he calls postwar poetry's will to meaning and its attempt to develop a post Romantic poetics necessarily questions poetry's ties to philosophical historical and political narratives

Narrative as Communication Didier Coste, 1989 Contemporary Debates in Negative Theology and Philosophy
Nahum Brown, J. Aaron Simmons, 2017-11-24 In this volume scholars draw deeply on negative theology in order to consider some of the oldest questions in the philosophy of religion that stand as persistent challenges to inquiry, comprehension, and expression. The chapters engage different philosophical methodologies, cross disciplinary boundaries, and draw on varied cultural traditions in the effort to demonstrate that apophaticism can be a positive resource for contemporary philosophy of religion. Sonic Encounters with Blanchot Adam Potts, 2020-06-05 Sonic Encounters with Blanchot is the first book to explore the relationship of sound and music with the work of Maurice Blanchot. The volume brings together scholars from a range of disciplines who listen closely to the sounds and resonances emanating from within Blanchot s work and who consider their significance both within his work and beyond. The latent and explicit sonic content of Blanchot s writing is explored, as is his treatment of music and the possibilities of thinking about contemporary music and sound art through his work. Although Blanchot is best known for his engagement with literature, an engagement that often relies on visual references and experiences, this collection takes a sonic route into one of the most exciting and demanding thinkers of the twentieth century. As an interdisciplinary exploration of sound and Blanchot s work, this book will be of interest to those studying sound in literature and music as well as students of Blanchot s work in general. This book was originally published as a special issue of Angelaki. Yale French Studies, 1948
