Love Conquers Nothing Emily Hahn, 2015-04-21 If you look at history through Emily Hahn's jaundiced eyes you'll realize that romance just ain't what romantics crack it up to be Using such notorious affairs as those of Caesar and Cleopatra or Henry VIII and Anne Boleyn Hahn reminds us that love is far less of a factor in the fates of nations than greed wrath and some of humanity's other less attractive character traits Love doesn't conquer all it just screws a lot of things up Beyond have no memory what would you choose to do with today We're never allowed to pick and choose what memories we get to keep Every single memory that has been graphed in your brain can be taken in a single instant An injury or a surgery gone right or wrong can take away aspects of your life even your personality You'd never know it The only choice for countering your memory loss would be relying on the people around you You'd hear second hand about the person you were and what you loved most Relying only on others' memories of you how would you want to be remembered Kiyomi Holland is a young mother and wife who after being diagnosed with a brain tumor has taken up the pen to share her experience and fleeting thoughts This heartfelt and at times humorous journey is her attempt to capture who she is in this moment as she comes to face her diagnosis treatment and beyond Join her as she shares intimate revelations about life love and family HeARTwork reminds us of the fragility of life and how very precious our memories are and encourages everyone to see their happiness find the beauty in life and remember the wealth that surrounds them Pieced together in a combination of interviews as well as writings before and after surgery this story allows you to walk hand in hand with Kiyomi's thoughts and emotions This revealing experience may inspire you to take a moment and self reflect on your own life love and family if today all your yesterdays were forgotten Dangerous Men and Adventurous Women Jayne Ann Krentz, 1992-09 Essays by Sandra and desire How do women develop their ideas about sex love and domination Why do they express feminist views condemning male violence in the abstract but often adamantly refuse to name their own violent and exploitive encounters as abuse rape or victimization Based on in depth individual and collective interviews with a racially and culturally diverse sample of college aged women Flirting with Danger sheds valuable light on the cultural lenses through which young women interpret their sexual encounters and their experiences of male aggression in heterosexual relationships Phillips makes an important contribution to the fields of female and adolescent sexuality feminist theory and feminist method The volume will also be of particular use to advocates seeking to design prevention and intervention programs which speak to the complex needs of women grappling with questions of sexuality and violence

Runic Amulets and Magic Objects Mindy MacLeod, Bernard Mees, 2006 A fresh examination of one of the most contentious issues in runic scholarship magical or not The runic alphabet in use for well over a thousand years was employed by various Germanic groups in a variety of ways including inevitably for superstitious and magical rites Formulaic runic words were inscribed onto small items that could be carried for good luck runic charms were carved on metal or wooden amulets to ensure peace or prosperity There are invocations and allusions to pagan and Christian gods and heroes to spirits of disease and even to potential lovers Few such texts are completely unique to Germanic society and in fact most of the runic amulets considered in this book show wide ranging parallels from a variety of European cultures The question of whether runes were magical or not has divided scholarship in the area Early criticism embraced fantastic notions of runic magic leading not just to a healthy scepticism but in some cases to a complete denial of any magical element whatsoever in the runic inscriptions This book seeks to re evaluate the whole question of runic sorcery attested to not only in the medieval Norse literature dealing with runes but primarily in the fascinating magical texts of the runic inscriptions themselves Dr MINDY MCLEOD teaches in the Department of Linguistics Deakin University Melbourne Dr BERNARD MEES teaches in the Department of History at the University of Melbourne

DEMOCRACY NEEDS TLC Craig L. Parker LPC LMFT, 2025-02-12 Democracy Needs TLC is interactive literature in the nonfiction genre What makes this book interactive literature is how the author uses his forty years of experience as a mental health counselor and marriage and family therapist in its design to use various approaches and learning style tools to capture the reader's attention, curiosity, imagination, and understanding. The book is designed to provide information in ways that minimize defensiveness, maximizing the reader's ability to see, hear, do, and feel something better. The objective is to assist the reader by using the printed word, storytelling, graphic arts, personal surveys, handouts, worksheets, games, references to movie and literary works, music, and the like to experience the contents of this book. This book primarily addresses democracy from a Christian perspective to examine consideration of various poignant topics impacting democracy, the threat of autocracy, and the Church's role to advocate for democratic principles, values that align with Christian doctrine. It is formatted to be read individually yet also could be used within small or large group settings, e.g., as a Bible study tool, book club's discussion material, or workshop for personal and/or Christian growth and development instrument. The book encourages honest discussion of the intersection of politics and religion, leading to better, deeper understanding of God and how to apply His word, will, and way in one's life individually and collectively via TLC. TLC goes beyond the normally used acronym for tender love and care to be expanded to such concepts as the love of Christ, truth, love, and Christ, trust, love, and commitment, the local church, and the living church, and truly loving Christians. Such concepts are presented in such a way to encourage non-Christian readers to attempt to understand and adapt the concepts to their worldview and/or spiritual belief system. The

Complete Lyrics of Alan Jay Lerner Dominic McHugh, Amy Asch, 2018-02-01 Alan Jay Lerner wrote the lyrics for some of the most beloved musicals in Broadway and Hollywood history. Most notably, with composer Frederick Loewe, he created enduring hits such as My Fair Lady, Gigi, Camelot, and Brigadoon. In The Complete Lyrics of Alan Jay Lerner, editors and annotators Dominic McHugh and Amy Asch bring all of Lerner's lyrics together for the first time, including numerous draft or alternate versions and songs cut from the shows. Compiled from dozens of archival collections, this invaluable resource and authoritative reference includes both Lerner's classic works and numerous discoveries, including his unproduced MGM movie Huckleberry Finn, selections from his college musicals, and lyrics from three different versions of Paint Your Wagon. This collection also includes extensive material from Lerner's two most ambitious musicals, Love Life to music by Kurt Weill and 1600 Pennsylvania Avenue, which Lerner wrote with Leonard Bernstein. Love Conquers All Patricia Chiappa, 2017-05-13
