this burning and describes stages of the path of love on the soul's journey home. Love Is a Fire includes descriptions of the friends of God, early Sufi saints who burned with the fire of divine love, including Rumi, Ibn Arabi, and Rabi'a. It also introduces elements of the path and important tools that purify the wayfarer: tauba, the moment of the turning of the heart when the soul remembers its divine origin; dhikr, the central Sufi practice of remembrance of God through repetition of the name of God or a sacred phrase; meditation; a way of drowning thoughts in the fire of love; and dreamwork, a way of listening and attuning to the mystery of what is hidden within us, the stories of our deeper selves. This book is also available as an audio recording. Love is a Fire and I am Wood, published by Sounds True, forged in the fire of the heart, this is a book for all those who are looking for the direct way to connection with the Eternal Now. Simply to read this fine expression of a lifetime's longing is to feel aligned with the Divine Ground. Anne Baring, coauthor The Divine Feminine, a gift to all seekers whatever path they are on. Andrew Harvey, author Light Upon Light: A Celebration of Rumi. If Love is the Answer, what was the Question? Laura Kuckes, 19?? Love is the Meaning, Ann Lewin, 2013-01-07. Love is the meaning is the phrase chosen by the mystic 14th century writer Julian of Norwich to encapsulate all that had been revealed to her in the series of visions that led her to write one of the world's greatest spiritual books, her Revelations of Divine Love, which continues to inspire countless readers today. Its everyday imagery and warm intimacy set it apart from other great spiritual classics. Ann Lewin uses its homely qualities to provide the basis for an exploration of our own experiences of the spiritual life and as we search for answers to life's big questions. How can we hold fast to the truth of God's love in the face of suffering and disaster? Does prayer change anything? How can Julian help us to speak freshly about God to our world? What do we do when God seems far away and silent? Can we actually believe that all will be well as Julian did? These and other questions are explored here. Love, I. Dilman, 2016-01-13. The book is concerned with questions about love, questions about its many forms, strands, and aspects, and the relation in which they stand to each other. It is concerned with the way different aspects of sexual love conflict with each other, with the way self-regard and self-interest can corrupt love, and with spiritual love and its difficulties. It seeks the views of some writers who have suggested some distinctive solutions to the existential problems that love poses in the face of its obstacles: Plato, Proust, Sartre, Freud, D. H. Lawrence, Erich Fromm, C. S. Lewis, Kierkegaard, Simone Weil, and Kahlil Gibran. Thinking with Kierkegaard, Arne Grøn, 2022-12-31. Arne Grøn's reading of Søren Kierkegaard's authorship revolves around existential challenges of human identity. The 35 essays that constitute this book are written over three decades and are characterized by combining careful attention to the augmentative detail of Kierkegaard's text with a constant focus on issues in contemporary philosophy. Contrary to many approaches to Kierkegaard's authorship, Grøn does not read Kierkegaard in opposition to Hegel. The work of the Danish thinker is read as a critical development of Hegelian phenomenology, with particular attention to existential aspects of human experience. Anxiety and despair are the primary existential phenomena that Kierkegaard examines throughout his authorship, and Grøn uses these negative phenomena to argue for the basically ethical aim of

Kierkegaard's work In Gr n s reading Kierkegaard conceives human selfhood not merely as relational but also a process of becoming the self that one is through the otherness of self experience that is the body the world other people and God This book should be of interest to philosophers theologians literary studies scholars and anyone with an interest not only in Kierkegaard but also in human identity

Marion, Love, and Nihilism Matthew C. Kruger, 2024-11-19 The foundation of this book is the work of Jean Luc Marion who writes at length about the problems of vanity and nihilism and offers an answer in love specifically Christian love A complication that arises however is that Marion argues that love is absent in the respective responses to nihilism of Friedrich Nietzsche and Martin Heidegger two figures who play a key role in the development of his thought and who also have their own notions of love In Marion Love and Nihilism Matthew C Kruger explores this series of questions by providing first an overview of the responses to nihilism found in these figures then a close reading of Marion s thoughts on the matter before moving to accounts of the concept of love in Nietzsche and Heidegger The book then finishes with a further critique of Marion s work relying on the thought of Nishitani Keiji Kruger argues that while Marion correctly identifies an answer in love as did Heidegger Nietzsche and Nishitani in their own ways Marion s thought ends in world denial and thus fails find a complete answer to nihilism
