

Letter From God to Woman

If you ever look at yourself & feel that you don't measure up, read this & your outlook will change before you finish reading it!

This is good to keep, not just to read from time to time,
but to also keep stored in your heart!

Enjoy, & remember who you are!!!

When I created the heavens and the earth,
I spoke them into being.

When I created man, I formed him and breathed life into his nostrils.

But you, I fashioned
after I breathed the breath of life into man
because your nostrils are too delicate.
I allowed a deep sleep to come over him so
I could patiently and perfectly fashion you.

Man was put to sleep so that he could not interfere with the creativity.

From one bone, I fashioned you.

I chose the bone that protects man's life.

I chose the rib,
which protects his heart and lungs and supports him,
as you are meant to do.

Around this one bone, I shaped you
I modelled you.

I created you perfectly and beautifully.

Your characteristics are as the rib,
strong yet delicate and fragile.

You provide protection for the most delicate organ in man, his heart.

His heart is the centre of his being;
his lungs hold the breath of life.

now a certified addictions counselor Evangelist Billie currently resides in Maryland She is married and is a proud mother of two daughters and five grandsugars She also enjoys working out and weight training She did an exclusive interview courtesy of the 700 Club for 460 million viewers and 138 countries around the world internationally sharing her story The Mystery and the World Maria Clara Bingemer, 2017-02-23 In The Mystery and the World Maria Clara Bingemer explores how the place of religion in society has dramatically shifted since the Enlightenment The modern era is characterised by a major change in humanity's fundamental desires that means that reason has taken the place of faith Human beings in their ongoing search for a scientific understanding of the world have drifted away from seeking any essence of transcendence in their lives Bingemer examines this transition and how especially in the postmodern era it has led to technology and superficial happiness becoming all important as opposed to the more sacred sense of contentment that governed us for centuries prior to the Enlightenment In her discussion however Bingemer demonstrates that we as humans have not lost our innate desire to believe in a higher power and that even in our world of instant satisfaction we still need to fill the void left by religion Through well researched analysis of the modern era and discussion of some of the mystics of more recent times she reveals to readers how our religious belief whilst changed is not dead and is still an important aspect of our existence Love Letters from Jesus RosAnne C. Tetz, 2000 Not Etched in Stone Marie A. Conn, Therese Benedict McGuire, 2007 The essays presented by Professors Marie A Conn and Therese McGuire examine stone and water as vehicles of ritual memory through the lenses of various disciplines In seven concise yet revealing chapters the authors examine instances throughout history and unbound by geography of stone and water as real or abstract objects that shape our lives possibly without our notice Chapters topics include Water as a vehicle for ritual memory from the earliest days of human history to the present day An investigation of the aesthetic principles of the Middle Ages up to the Gothic styles of cathedrals in North America Julian of Norwich the famous cloistress walled in by stone in comparison to Etty Hillesum a WWII era mystic whose small desk used to write her revealing diaries became her stone cloister cell The Irish water and stone in Finnegans Wake Warming the stone heart of a child pummeled by the foster care system The lack of clean water that contributes to wide spread disease Group behavior and the eventualities of war through stone like uncooperative and hardened psychological states Urban God Talk Andre E. Johnson, 2013-08-28 Urban God Talk Constructing a Hip Hop Spirituality edited by Andre Johnson is a collection of essays that examine the religious and spiritual in hip hop The contributors argue that the prevailing narrative that hip hop offers nothing in the way of religion and spirituality is false From its beginning hip hop has had a profound spirituality and advocates religious views and while not orthodox or systemic nevertheless many in traditional orthodox religions would find the theological and spiritual underpinnings in hip hop comforting empowering and liberating In addition this volume demonstrates how scholars in different disciplines approach the study of hip hop religion and spirituality Whether it is a close reading of a hip hop text ethnography a critical studies approach or even a mixed method approach this study is a pedagogical tool for students and scholars in various disciplines to use and appropriate for their own research and understanding Urban God Talk will inspire not only scholars to further their research but will also encourage publishers to print more in this field The contributors to this in depth study show how this subject is an underrepresented area within hip hop studies and that the field is broad enough for numerous monographs edited works and journal publications in the future
