The Panda Poems O. Panda,2013-03-13 This is the original collection of my feelings about everything that I have lived to experience My name is Osman Panda a Sierra leonean by birth I was born on September 24th 1952 in Wilberforce Freetown and married with 5 children Attending the Wilberforce Primary school saw me going to the Prince of Wales secondary school in 1965 Dropping out of school in the 3rd form which is the equivalent of the 10th grade in 1968 I had another opportunity to go back to school working for a judge In 1969 not able to satisfy his wives draconian rules I had to step down again until 1976 when a philanthropist came to my aid Mr Sahr Martin Ngombu Gbolie of blessed memory founder and proprietor of Kono Model Academy may his soul rest in peace He offered me board and lodging and free tuition for two years thereby helping me to graduate from high school in 1978 After graduating he offered me a teaching job As a sports teacher and assistant teacher in government and religious knowledge I served the school for two years and eventually went to the Milton Margais Teachers college in 1980 I majored in Physical Education graduating as the student of the year with a Higher Teachers Certificate in 1983 I taught for two more years in my former school K M A Through the grace of the almighty God I received a letter from the principal of the Bo Teachers College inviting me to join the Physical Education Department in 1985 That journey lasted until 1991 when I received another letter from the principal of the only boarding school in The Gambia at that time the Armitage High School The most exciting and fruitful moments of my work experience was realized in that country Through the efforts of my dear wife Comfort I eventually had the privilege to come to the US where the idea of the PANDA POEMS WAS BORN

International Handbook of Love Claude-Hélène Mayer, Elisabeth Vanderheiden, 2021-05-04 This handbook is the winner of the William B Gudykunst Award for Outstanding Book in 2023 given by the International Academy of Intercultural Research This handbook includes state of the art research on love in classical modern and postmodern perspectives It expands on previous literature and explores topics around love from new cultural intercultural and transcultural approaches and across disciplines It provides insights into various love concepts like romantic love agape and eros in their cultural embeddedness and their changes and developments in specific cultural contexts It also includes discussions on postmodern aspects with regard to love and love relationships such as digitalisation globalisation and the fourth industrial revolution The handbook covers a vast range of topics in relation to love ageing health special needs sexual preferences spiritual practice subcultures family and other relationships and so on The chapters look at love not only in terms of the universal concept and in private intimate relationships but apply a broad concept of love which can also for example be referred to in postmodern workplaces This volume is of interest to a wide readership including researchers practitioners and students of the social sciences humanities and behavioural sciences In the 1970s through the 90s I was told that globalization was homogenizing cultures into a worldwide monoculture This volume as risky and profound as the many adventures of love across our multiplying cultures are proves otherwise The authors revolutionary and courageous work will challenge our sensibilities and expand the boundaries of what we understand what love is But that s what love does It communicates what is offers what can be and pleads for what must be I know you ll enjoy this wonderful book as much as I do Jeffrey Ady Associate Professor retired Public Administration Program University of Hawaii at Manoa Founding Fellow International Academy for Intercultural Research The International Handbook of Love is far more than a traditional compendium It is a breath taking attempt to synthesize our anthropological and sociological knowledge on love It illuminates topics as diverse as Chinese love one night stands teen romance or love of leaders and many more This is a definitive reference in the field of love studies Eva Illouz author of The End of Love A sociology of Negative relationships Oxford University Press This is not a volume to be read in a single sitting though I almost did due to a protracted hospital stay nor is it romantic or inspirational reading though in some cases I had hoped for more narrative examples and case studies Rather it is a highly diverse scholarly effort a massive resource collection of research papers on love in a variety of contexts personal and professional settings and cultures The work is well referenced providing a large number of resources for deeper exploration We owe our thanks to the authors and editors of this handbook for work well done though that word in the title should not lead readers to suspect that enlightening as it is this book is a vade mecum or practical tour guide that provides ready solutions to the vicissitudes and challenges of our love lives Reviewed by Dr George F Simons on amazon com Please see Claude H l ne Mayer s interview related to the handbook in LeanHealth Talks published by Bernadette Bruckner <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=YNXA9sWuWo> Please see Claude H l ne Mayer s interview related to the handbook published In Iran News Daily <https://newspaper.irandaily.ir/nid/6941/pid/6/type/0>

Women Film

Directors Gwendolyn A. Foster,1995-11-14 Until now there hasn t been one single volume authoritative reference work on the history of women in film highlighting nearly every woman filmmaker from the dawn of cinema including Alice Guy France 1896 Chantal Akerman Belgium Penny Marshall U S and Sally Potter U K Every effort has been made to include every kind of woman filmmaker commercial and mainstream avant garde and minority and to give a complete cross section of the work of these remarkable women Scholars and students of film popular culture Women s Studies and International Studies as well as film buffs will learn much from this work The Dictionary covers the careers of nearly 200 women filmmakers giving vital statistics where available listings of films directed by these women and selected bibliographies for further reading This is a one volume one stop resource a comprehensive up to date guide that is absolutely essential for any course offering an overview or survey of women s cinema It offers not only all available statistics but critical evaluations of the filmmakers work as well In order to keep the length manageable this volume focuses on women who direct fictional narrative films with occasional forays into the area of the documentary and is limited to film production rather than video production New York Magazine ,1992-02-03 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea

Framing Female Lawyers Cynthia A. Barto Lucia,2021 No detailed description available for Framing Female Lawyers

Feminist Hollywood Christina Lane,2000 Feminist Hollywood examines the differences between commercial cinema and counter cinema by focusing on the work of contemporary women directors who have entered Hollywood from the realm of independent filmmaking Christina Lane compares their early documentaries or avant garde films with their more mainstream endeavors as she explores the possibilities and limits of feminist expression within the male dominated industry of commercial filmmaking Feminist Hollywood incorporates interviews with directors Susan Seidelman Martha Coolidge Kathryn Bigelow Lizzie Borden Darnell Martin and Tamra Davis in an attempt to bridge the theory gap that often excludes women s professional experiences and makes false assumptions about how the industry operates Lane balances these firsthand accounts with cultural theory and an understanding of the current film industry in which the line between commercial and independent filmmaking has become blurred The timely and comprehensive nature of this volume will make it a welcome addition to the bookshelves of film scholars and amateur movie buffs alike

Reel Photos Wendy Sterba,2015-02-26 Even in an age when the photograph has changed from a physical object into a data file that can be easily manipulated we tend to believe what we see But photographs can and do lie As an object in a film a photograph s meaning and function can be even more malleable and deceiving as new developments in technology are altering how we perceive reality In Reel Photos Balancing Art and Truth in Contemporary Film Wendy Sterba examines the use of photographs in cinema to explore issues of objectivity subjectivity fabrication and fact This study first looks at the traditional use of the photograph in films such as Blow Up and then considers similar issues as they relate to the search for truth in detective films like Along Came a Spider The Bone Collector and Forgotten Subsequent chapters explore ambivalence and photographic objectification in films about art photography including The Governess Fur and Closer Other movies discussed include Inception Paparazzi Under Fire and Somebody Has to Shoot the Picture By examining the function of the photograph in movies rather than the role of film photography as art Sterba provides an innovative approach to cinema studies Utilizing theory in an intelligent but easily understandable way this book allows readers to re examine the role of authorship and the value of authentic art Reel Photos will appeal to students and scholars of cinema as well as anyone interested in the aesthetics of art and truth in film
