Love Devotion:

Becoming Two in Love Roland J. De Vries, 2013-07-25 This book draws Søren Kierkegaard and Luce Irigaray into conversation on the nature and ethics of sexual difference. While these two initially seem like doubtful dialogue partners, the conversation between them yields a rich and compelling account of intersubjectivity between man and woman, an account that moves beyond the limited and tired debate over egalitarianism vs. complementarianism. Through engagement with Irigaray and Kierkegaard, this book develops a constructive theological ethics of sexual difference that focuses on an epistemological and subjective gap that sets man and woman at a decisive distance from each other. They are a mystery to each other. Yet it is also an ethical framework that allows woman and man to encounter one another in ways that respect their independence, subjectivity, and becoming of each. Above all, this is a theological ethics of sexual difference that centers on Jesus Christ, who is defined as the middle term in every relationship and whose love command defines the encounter between man and woman in difference.

Awakening Through Love John Makransky, 2007-08-10 Mother Theresa, The Dalai Lama, Nelson Mandela, Gandhi. Some admire such figures from afar and think, "How special they are, I could never be like that." But as John Makransky has learned, the power of real and enduring love lies within every one of us. Awakening Through Love is his guide to finding it. In Awakening Through Love, he pioneers new ways of making Tibetan meditations of compassion and wisdom accessible to people of all backgrounds and faiths. Drawing from Tibetan teachings of compassion and the Dzogchen teachings of innate wisdom and using plain practical instruction, he helps readers uncover the unity of wisdom and love in the very nature of their minds. Then Lama John describes how to actualize those qualities in every aspect of family life, work, service, and social action.

International Handbook of Love Claude-Hélène Mayer, Elisabeth Vanderheiden, 2021-05-04 This handbook is the winner of the William B. Gudykunst Award for Outstanding Book in 2023 given by the International Academy of Intercultural Research. This handbook includes state-of-the-art research on love in classical, modern, and postmodern perspectives. It expands on previous literature and explores topics around love from new cultural, intercultural, and transcultural approaches and across disciplines. It provides insights into various love concepts like romantic love, agape, and eros in their cultural embeddedness and their changes and developments in specific cultural contexts. It also includes discussions on postmodern aspects with regard to love and love relationships such as digitalisation, globalisation, and the fourth industrial revolution. The handbook covers a vast range of topics in relation to love: aging, health, special needs, sexual preferences, spiritual practice, subcultures, family, and other relationships, and so on. The chapters look at love not only in terms of the universal concept and in private, intimate relationships but apply a broad concept of love which can also, for example, be referred to in postmodern workplaces. This volume is of interest to a wide readership including researchers, practitioners, and students of the social sciences, humanities, and behavioural sciences. In the 1970s through the 90s, I was told that globalization was homogenizing cultures into a worldwide monoculture. This volume is as risky and profound as the many
