Worley, 2017-01-06 Love letters during the Napoleonic wars were largely framed by concepts of love which were promoted through novels and philosophy The standard texts so to speak which were written by major authors who inherited this Enlightenment bearing responded to the emerging concepts of love found in novels and philosophical essays Love among this Napoleonic coterie is unique because it demonstrates the reciprocal relationship between the love letter and the romantic novel Germaine de Sta l Juliette R camier Chateaubriand Benjamin Constant Lady Emma Hamilton Napoleon Bonaparte and his brother Lucien Bonaparte were the authors and recipients of some of the most passionate love letters of this period They were also avid readers of the newly emerging genre of the romantic novel and many of them were also authors of such works where they projected their personal romances onto the characterization of their fictional heroes and heroines In addition these authors had lived through the recent French Revolution and the Terror Imprisoned during the Revolution or branded as emigrés upon their return to Paris their mature adult lives were spent in the shadows of the Napoleonic wars in which they shifted political loyalties as the specter of Napoleon's powers grew from First Consul to Emperor of Europe The looming threat of war ignited the depths of their passions and inspired their intellectual analysis of love happiness and suicide Their evolving concept of love was a romantic all consuming passion which gripped the lovers in fatal embraces This book's analysis of their love letters and romantic novels reveals the emerging political landscape of the period through extended metaphors of love and patriotism

LOVE LETTERS FROM THE BATTLE OF OKINAWA Everett Ware Smith, 2024-09-18 A Marine Corps Officer Everett Smith served overseas for nearly three years including 1944 and 1945 in the Pacific Theater Eighty years after the unconditional surrender of Imperial Japan ended WW II the massive conflict that engulfed every corner of the planet is increasingly a distant memory Its toll on an entire generation in lost and maimed lives and destruction of entire cities has faded into the history books While the conclusion of the European war was being celebrated with VE Day on May 8 1945 U.S. armed forces were still engaged in a vicious battle against Japanese combatants on Okinawa Island By early August preparations code named Operation Downfall were well underway for a massive invasion of Japan's mainland islands Everett expected to participate in that final campaign and privately believed he would not survive it For military personnel serving overseas letters from loved ones were critical lifelines This book is a compilation of letters Everett wrote to his wife In them he describes the battle's progression censured his dreams for their future together and especially his love for Ruth during their many months of separation

LOVE LETTERS TO AND FROM A MONK Suzanne Saunders Taylor, 2014-06-20 The letters begin when my Aunt wrote to inform Rev Bonnell Spencer of the death of her husband who had been his Williams college roommate Thus began a 20 year relationship highlighted by numerous letters written after her husband's death in 1974 at the age of 70. They are most unusual for they not only are her letters to him but his responses to her. As time passed they developed a deep feeling for each other. Remarkable people. He was third in his class at Williams, Phi Beta Kappa, a member of Actor's Equity, a published author and a mentor to many Seminarians in Ghana and numerous other places. He celebrated over 50 years in the life-long profession of being an Episcopalian Monk affiliated with the Holy Cross Monastery at West Park, New York. She began her 48 year long career teaching in a one room school and ending as a professor at Central Connecticut State University, teaching others to teach. Thereafter she continued to be an activist for many humanitarian and politically liberal causes. Both were world travelers and met in England, Santa Barbara, New York City and numerous other exotic places. Theirs was a most unusual and sensitive relationship. The letters are exceptionally well written and one wants to read on to see how they managed to meet and to learn how two extraordinary people thought about life, religion, education, politics and the world of their day as well as to learn what would become of their relationship. Love Letters of Nathaniel Hawthorne (Complete) Nathaniel Hawthorne, Love Letters to a Sacred Prostitute Gary, 2012-11. A spiritual and knowledgeable woman once told me that I was a Sacred Prostitute. She explained that a Sacred Prostitute is someone who soothes, nurtures and heals another and then sends them on their way to find their true destiny, a better, more emotionally complete person for the experience. I was initially confused but eventually relieved and elated by this possibility. I sometimes felt guilty because it wasn't possible for me to ignore a woman who was strong or beautiful or talented or sweet. I had many deep but relatively short-lived relationships. I was in love with many of these women. I respected and admired every single one of them. I found them simply amazing. I was never looking for notches on a bedpost, only searching for my one true Love. Many left me and moved on, found another. I was left alone again and again, wondering. But maybe there was a reason for such an active love life. Maybe I really am a Sacred Prostitute. After all, very few of the women seemed to hate me when we parted. And most were married shortly after their time spent with me. I can't tell you why I was chosen as a Sacred Prostitute. I can't tell you how to become one yourself. But in this book I share the journeys, the thoughts and passions of 89 women that loved one in their own words. Louisa May Alcott Martha Saxton, 1995-09-30. Traces the life and career of the nineteenth century American novelist and discusses the influence of her life on her writings. Sherwood Anderson's Secret Love Letters Sherwood Anderson, Ray Lewis White, 1999-03-01. In 1927, tired of the literary life of New York City, New Orleans and Chicago, a famous but aging American writer named Sherwood Anderson (1876-1941), author of Winesburg, Ohio (1919) and other short stories in which he virtually invented the modern American short story, moved to rural Southwest Virginia to write for and edit two small town weekly newspapers that he owned: the Marion Democrat and the Smyth County News. Living again among the small town figures with whom he was usually most content, William Faulkner, Thomas Wolf and indeed an entire generation of the greatest American writers worked for several years at making his newspaper nationally famous while struggling to come to terms with a life threatening psychological depression and a failing third marriage Both of Anderson s midlife problems were complicated when he met Eleanor Copenhaver lovely young daughter in one of the prominent first families of Marion and a career social worker for the YWCA Trying to keep their ardent affair secret in the small town Anderson avidly courted the socially prominent and much younger Miss Copenhaver while at the same time trying to free himself from his embittered third wife and overcome the disadvantages of his age and his lover s family s distrust of him Having by the end of 1931 continued for three years his surreptitious and consuming affair with Miss Copenhaver Anderson determined on the first day of 1932 that the new year should be the year of decisions for him to gain his love in marriage or perhaps to end his life and he began the new year with a creative venture unique in literature Starting on January 1 Anderson secretly wrote and hid away for Eleanor Copenhaver to find after his eventual death one letter each day letters that she should someday discover whether they had ever become married or not and thereby relive in her memory their days of intense lovemaking a mutual despair about their then unlikely marriage Found by Eleanor Copenhaver Anderson only at Sherwood Anderson s death in 1941 and then preserved intact by this grieving widow who had married Anderson in 1933 the carefully hidden letters of 1932 recording their intense and seemingly doomed love affair have remained secret until now Chosen by Eleanor Copenhaver Anderson before her death in 1985 to publish her husband s secret love letters Anderson scholar Ray Lewis White has prepared a fascinating edition of these unique letters for the enjoyment of students and scholars of literature as well as for all other readers who savor compelling and inspiring stories of loss and love

Love Letters from Golok Holly Gayley, 2016-12-06 Love Letters from Golok chronicles the courtship between two Buddhist tantric masters T re Lhamo 1938 2002 and Namtrul Rinpoche 1944 2011 and their passion for reinvigorating Buddhism in eastern Tibet during the post Mao era In fifty six letters exchanged from 1978 to 1980 T re Lhamo and Namtrul Rinpoche envisioned a shared destiny to heal the damage done to Buddhism during the years leading up to and including the Cultural Revolution Holly Gayley retrieves the personal and prophetic dimensions of their courtship and its consummation in a twenty year religious career that informs issues of gender and agency in Buddhism cultural preservation among Tibetan communities and alternative histories for minorities in China The correspondence between Tare Lhamo and Namtrul Rinpoche is the first collection of love letters to come to light in Tibetan literature Blending tantric imagery with poetic and folk song styles their letters have a fresh vernacular tone comparable to the love songs of the Sixth Dalai Lama but with an eastern Tibetan flavor Gayley reads these letters against hagiographic writings about the couple supplemented by field research to illuminate representational strategies that serve to narrate cultural trauma in a redemptive key quite unlike Chinese scar literature or the testimonials of exile Tibetans With special attention to Tare Lhamo s role as a tantric heroine and her hagiographic fusion with Namtrul Rinpoche Gayley vividly shows how Buddhist masters have adapted Tibetan literary genres to share private intimacies and address contemporary
