What drives literary change Does literature merely follow shifts in a culture or does it play a distinctive role in shaping emergent trends Michael Fuller explores these questions while examining the changes in Chinese ship poetry from the late Northern Song dynasty 960 1127 to the end of the Southern Song 1127 1279 a period of profound social and cultural transformation Shi poetry written in response to events was the dominant literary genre in Song dynasty China serving as a central form through which literati explored meaning in their encounters with the world By the late Northern Song however old models for meaning were proving inadequate and Daoxue Neo Confucianism provided an increasingly attractive new ground for understanding the self and the world Drifting among Rivers and Lakes traces the intertwining of the practice of poetry writings on poetics and the debates about Daoxue that led to the cultural synthesis of the final years of the Southern Song and set the pattern for Chinese society for the next six centuries Examining the writings of major poets and Confucian thinkers of the period Fuller discovers the slow evolution of a complementarity between poetry and Daoxue in which neither discourse was self sufficient New York Magazine, 1979-04-02 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea New York Magazine, 1974-03-11 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to
