Luigi Ghirri Atlante:

Atlante Luigi Ghirri, Vittorio Savi, 1999 Essay by Vittorio Savi L'atlante e l'archivio Guglielmo Gabbiadini, 2025-04-18T00:00:00+02:00 Nella letteratura contemporanea di lingua tedesca l'interesse per questioni antropologiche costituisce non solo un tema ricorrente ma anche un'occasione di sperimentazione formale. Questo libro analizza tre opere in cui l'immaginario dell'atlante si amplia rispetto alle sue origini geografiche e si pone in dialogo con varie forme di archivio. Gli atlanti di Judith Schalansky, Christoph Ransmayr e Gerhard Roth intitolati rispettivamente Atlas der abgelegenen Inseln, Atlante delle isole remote e Atlas eines längstlichen Mannes raccontano di un uomo irrequieto e Atlas der Stille dell'atlante del silenzio appaiono come costruzioni narrative atte a portare alla luce materiali antropologici eterogenei tratti da archivi reali e virtuali. Testi brevi o brevissimi frammenti biografici didascalie ed elementi grafici mostrano spaccati di realtà abissali e perturbanti. A emergere è l'interesse per un'antropologia della singolarità che si avvale di tecniche e strategie narrative oggi al centro di una crescente attenzione da parte del pubblico e della critica.

Stillness in Motion Sarah Patricia Hill, Giuliana Minghelli, 2014-11-21 Stillness in Motion brings together the writing of scholars, theorists and artists on the uneasy relationship between Italian culture and photography. Highlighting the depth and complexity of the Italian contribution to the technology and practice of photography, this collection offers essays, interviews and theoretical reflections at the intersection of comparative visual and cultural studies. Its chapters, illustrated with more than 130 black and white images and an eight-page colour section, explore how Italian literature, cinema, popular culture and politics have engaged with the medium of photography over the course of time. The collection includes topics such as Futurism's ambivalent relationship to photography, the influence of American photography on Italian neorealist cinema and the connection between the photograph and Duchamp's concept of the Readymade. With contributions from writer and theorist Umberto Eco, photographer Franco Vaccari, art historian Robert Valtorta and cultural historian Robert Lumley, Stillness in Motion engages with crucial historical and cultural moments in Italian history, examining each one through particular photographic practices.

Designing the Rural Joshua Bolchover, John Lin, Christiane Lange, 2017-03-03 The rural is not what it used to be. No longer simply a site for agricultural production for the city, the relationship between the rural and urban has become much more complex. Established categories such as rural, urban and village city no longer hold true. Rural and urban conditions have become increasingly blurred, so how can we identify and distinguish their specific characteristics? Where is the rural and what role does it play in an urbanised world? In developing countries the countryside is a volatile and contradictory landscape: legally designated rural areas look like dense slums, factories intersect fields and farmers no longer farm. In contrast, in developed regions the rural has become a highly controlled landscape of production and consumption: industrialised agriculture coexists with leisure landscapes for tourism, retirement and recreation. This issue of AD investigates how architects and researchers are critically engaging with the rural as an experimental field of exploration. Contributors: Neil

Explorers Collectif, 2016-09-08T00:00:00+02:00 This publication brings together an outstanding ensemble of works by artist explorers selected from France's national collections Whatever the terrain on land or at the depths of the ocean real virtual or even at the farthest limits of the subconscious exploration remains a quest accomplished thanks to and in spite of oneself to redefine the contours of a world whether it exists for real or in our imagination In this respect exploration is not so unlike art which is largely inspired by it both in terms of how it is done and its objective From Voyage autour de ma chambre by Xavier de Maistre whose detailed inventory encompasses just a single room to Jules Verne's Voyages extraordinaires in which we anticipate an exploration of the seas the centre of the Earth and outer space the paths taken by the explorer seem infinite from the most exotic to the most local from the direct trajectory to the most labyrinthine of routes In this book the artist assumes the role of explorer inventor and cartographer in turn plunges into the seas traverses the oceans digs beneath the earth loses their way finds it again or becomes a castaway taking the reader along with them on the ride This digital book is a revised and enhanced edition of the two catalogues created to present the Explorateurs exhibition shown at the Centre des Arts in Enghien les Bains in 2010 then at the Musée de l'Abbaye Sainte Croix des Sables d'Olonne in 2012

Art and knowledge after 1900 James Fox, Vid Simoniti, 2023-12-12 This ground breaking new history of modern art explores the relationship between art and knowledge from the beginning of the twentieth century to the present day Each chapter examines artistic responses to a particular discipline of knowledge from quantum theory and theosophy to cybernetics and ethnic futurisms The authors argue that art's incursion into other intellectual disciplines is a defining characteristic of both modernism and postmodernism Throughout the volume poses a series of larger questions is art a source of knowledge If so what kind of knowledge And ultimately can it contribute to our understanding of the world in ways that thinkers from other fields should take seriously

Trends in Contemporary Italian Narrative 1980-2007 Gillian Ania, Ann Hallamore Caesar, 2009-05-05 The new Italian narrative that began to be spoken about in the 1980s was not associated with a single writer or movement but with an eclectic and varied production The eight essays that make up this volume set out to give a flavour of the breadth and range of recent trends and developments The collection opens with two essays on crime fiction In the first Luca Somigli examines novels dealing with topical issues or recent history and which reveal a strong indigenous and regional tradition while in the second Nicoletta McGowan discusses the particular case of a noir by Claudia Salvatori They are followed by essays on two of Italy's best known contemporary writers Marina Spunta's essay explores the representation of space place and landscape in the work of Gianni Celati and photographer Luigi Ghirri while Darrell O Connell analyses the fiction of

Vincenzo Consolo and his struggle to find a means of representing an ethical stance within fiction Two essays then examine the role of the anthology for young writers Charlotte Ross and Derek Duncan in the context of lesbian and gay writing looking at identity politics and the problematics of categorization Monica Jansen and Inge Lanslots in that of the Young Cannibals and their often unsettling non literary language and orientation towards cinema pop music and slang The penultimate essay by Jennifer Burns discusses the literature of migrants to Italy focusing on questions of identity memory mobility and language while the final contribution by Gillian Ania is a study of apocalypse and dystopia in contemporary writing looking at novels by Vassalli Capriolo Avoledo and Pispisa This volume examines Italian narrative from the 1980s to the present from the original viewpoint of genres categories trends rather than author based analyses It highlights the innovations of the last twenty years incorporating into the various themes well known writers like Consolo Celati and Vassalli with relative newcomers like Avoledo and Pispisa The contributors to the volume academics from the UK Ireland Canada Belgium cover a wide range of themes which have come to the fore during this period ranging from detective stories both the giallo and the noir to lesbian and gay writing to immigration literature in Italian to the study of apocalypse and dystopia The themes are contextualized in the socio political and cultural changes taking place in Italy and parallel to this the temporal moments of the narratives are in turn related to their historical realities This is a richly woven account which presents post 80s Italian narrative from a new and stimulating angle in eight lucid and informative essays which will be welcomed by all those interested in contemporary fiction in its cultural context Professor Anna Laura Lepschy Department of Italian University College London

Pages of Italian photography, 1900-1998 Roberta Valtorta, 1998 A journey through the periods which Italian photography has experienced during the XX century in a truly extraordinary variety of languages ranging from the nineteenth century realistic approach to the experimentations of the avant gardes from the mellowness of Pictorialism to Modernism from the formal and social novelties of the post war period to the golden age of the reportage from the conceptual commitment of the 1970 s to the landscape school of the 1980 s up until the neo conceptual tendencies Luigi Ghirri ,
