Sweeney,2016-05-16 The Philosophical Contexts of Sartre s The Wall and Other Stories Stories of Bad Faith presents a philosophical analysis of all five stories in Sartre s short story collection Kevin W Sweeney argues that each of the five stories has its own philosophical idea or problem that serves as the context for the narrative Sartre constructs each story as a reply to the philosophical issue in the context and as support for his position on that issue In the opening story The Wall Sartre uses the Constant Kant debate to support his view that the story s protagonist is responsible for his ally s death The Room presents in narrative form Sartre s criticism that the Freudian Censor is acting in bad faith In Erostratus Sartre opposes Descartes s claim in his hats and coats example that we recognize the humanity of others by using our reason In Intimacy Sartre again opposes a Cartesian position this time the view that our feelings reveal our emotions Sartre counters that Cartesian view by showing that the two women in the story act in bad faith because they do not distinguish their feelings from their emotions The last story The Childhood of a Leader shows how the protagonist acts in bad faith in trying to resolve the question of who he is by appealing to the view that one s roots in nature can provide one with a substantial identity The stories are unified by showing the characters in all five narratives engaged in different acts of bad faith The Philosophical Contexts of Sartre s The Wall and Other Stories is written for scholars interested in Jean Paul Sartre s early literary and philosophical work as well as for students interested in Sartre and twentieth century French literature Zulu Lulu Amos Bwire,2018-01-11 In 2008 a fourteen year old Maya is raped by a family member As a cover up she is forced to marry a sixty year old man who already has three wives several children and grandchildren older than her Soon after delivery her brute husband learns of the hidden truth and all hell breaks loose Langa is an orphan adopted by a wealthy Greek couple He has a chance at real happiness until his adoptive mother dies His adoptive father turns to alcohol and eventually sexual abuse When the odious man finally dies Langa is left with nothing At a crossroads both on his sexual orientation and unpredictable future the eighteen year old sets off to make his way in the unknown world Lucilla is born into a family already torn apart by ruthless bandits Her broken parents end up dead leaving her to fight for survival by any means necessary Now in 2012 a handsome banker a sexy undercover agent and a desperate prostitute clash in a single act of betrayal that leaves hearts broken and destinies derailed Attempting to overcome the ghosts of their haunted pasts Maya Langa and Lucilla unleash a sequence of events that swings the pendulum of the judicial system saves the republic from a
