Lying About The Wolf Essays In Culture And Education:

Lying about the Wolf David Solway,1997 Addressing some of the major issues plaguing education particularly the scandal of illiteracy and the growing mediocrity in academic performance David Solway argues that the current state of affairs in education is the result not simply of poor training in elementary school or the disappearance of grammatical study from the overall curriculum but of a larger cultural problem Lying about the Wolf David Solway,1997 Addressing some of the major issues plaguing education particularly the scandal of illiteracy and the growing mediocrity in academic performance David Solway argues that the current state of affairs in education is the result not simply of poor training in elementary school or the disappearance of grammatical study from the overall curriculum but of a larger cultural problem

Citizenship as Politics ,2009-01-01 This book holds two main concepts citizenship and adult education and presents a diverse scope of ideas and experiences from different countries and perspectives in a rich indication to edify liberating practices and researches Citizenship is closely linked with participation When people are encouraged to take part in an authentic process of decision making people do participate in public affairs Here is the true meaning of citizenship related to the old idea to take part to get involved in public issues and transform their community through participation On the other hand Lifelong Learning s concepts and practices seem to have forgotten that adult education is more than the preparation for a job Adult education is learning for democracy researching communities searching for a school for all transforming communities struggling for our rights becoming awareness about environmental hazards edifying the city or expressing ourselves through theatre or public art Lifelong Learning s concepts and practices seem to have forgotten that life is more than the labour market The entire life of women and men are the substance of what adult education is made of The book is not only addressed to scholars under and postgraduate students interested in citizenship and adult education but also to practitioners working in communities in a participatory way Looking Forward Brian A. Roberts,2000 What challenges face Canadian music education in the coming decades The happy convergence of a new millennium the 40th Anniversary of the Canadian Music Educators Association l Association Canadienne des Educateurs de Musique in 1999 and ISME 2000 in Edmonton prompted the CMEA ACEM to initiate a national dialogue about the future of Canadian music education Looking Forward edited by two of Canada s leading scholars in music education Betty Hanley and Brian A Roberts is the result Addressing a broad range of topics and educational levels the book provides a provocative and thoughtful look at opportunities and challenges identified by fourteen articulate and well informed authors who represent diverse backgrounds and viewpoints The dialogue has begun Curriculum Politics, Policy, Practice Catherine Cornbleth,2000-05-26 Offering a range of studies on the intersections of curriculum politics policy and or practice this book addresses the following questions Who decides what is taught in K 12 schools On what basis What actually happens in classroom practice What do students have opportunities to learn Who benefits from these decisions and practices It includes case studies that span school levels subject areas and national boundaries thus enriching the possibilities for cross case analysis interpretation and insight Curriculum dynamics are revealed in cases ranging from the macro as in the case from South Africa to the micro as in the case of U S special education placement Instances of curriculum politics policy and or practice are brought to life and situated in their contemporary and historical contexts with particular attention to questions of knowledge control and distribution of benefits Included is this uniquely comparative text are several American case studies including a discussion of implications of science for all the politics and consequences of placing a significantly disabled student in a separate classroom after several years of inclusion trying to embrace multicultural literature without dealing with racism close to home and history social studies curriculum policy intended as cultural containment Also examined are the business education culture clash in creating meaningful technology education in Canada the politics of mandating religious knowledge curricula in Singapore white South African students negotiating divergent stories of their country s past and present while trying to make sense of their own roles and future and critical analysis of British educational discourses of social justice and their impact in the 1940s and 1990s Contributors include Angela Calabrese Brown Nadine Dolby Vivian Forssman Diana Lawrence Brown Suzanne Miller Margery Osborne Jason Tan Gina DeBlase Trzyna Gaby Weiner and John Willinsky International Who's Who in Poetry 2005 Europa Publications,2004 Provides up to date profiles on the careers of leading and emerging poets History of the Jews in Quebec Pierre Anctil,2021-09-07 The presence of Jews in Quebec dates back four centuries Quebec Jewry in Montreal in particular has evolved over time thanks to successive waves of migration from different regions of the world The Jews of Quebec belong to a unique society in North America which they have worked to fashion The dedication with which they have defended their rights and their extensive achievements in multiple sectors of activity have helped foster diversity in Quebec This work recounts the different contributions Jews have made over the years along with the cultural context that encouraged the emergence in Montreal of a Jewish community like no other in North America This is the first overview of a history that began during the French Regime and continued through many twists and turns up to the turn of the twenty first century Random Walks David Solway,1997 The first section of the book develops Solway s approach to literature starting from the assumption that genuine criticism requires the intellectual freedom to range at will across the literary landscape rather than restricting one s direction based on what is current fashionable or politically correct Solway argues that advocating a theoretical school postmodernism poststructuralism semiotics new historicism Marxist revisionism or queer theory generally involves abandoning the real critical project which is the discovery of one s own undetermined motives dispositions and interests as reflected in the secret mirrors embedded in literary texts Instead Solway pursues what he calls elective criticism writing that enables the critical writer to freely discover his or her own identity a concept that he claims cannot reasonably be diluted relinquished or deconstructed In the second section Solway practices what he preaches exploring a wide range of authors and subjects His essays include an analysis of Franz Kafka s The Trial as a Jewish joke a personal memoir of Irving Layton an interpretation of Erin Moure's Pronouns on the Main an examination of language in William Shakespeare's romances a reading of Robert Browning's My Last Duchess that is sympathetic to the Duke an assertion that James Joyce has more in common with the traditional novelist than with the professional post modern alienator and an exploration of Jonathan Swift's sartorial imagery that contends that form is the source of substantive identity

David Solway Carmine Starnino, 2001 In recent years David Solway's groundbreaking trio of critical books have earned him a reputation as a thinker and prose writer of considerable erudition He now emerges into the 21st century as a Canadian poet of major stature
