

The background of the image is a photograph of a mountain range at sunset. The sun is low on the right side, creating a bright orange and yellow glow that fills the sky and reflects off the mountain peaks. The mountains in the foreground are dark and silhouetted against the bright sky. A dark grey rectangular box is centered in the upper half of the image, containing the quote in white text.

Lying is done with words and also with silence.

Lying Silence:

Lying and Truthfulness Stewart Clem, 2023-01-05 In this book Stewart Clem develops an account of truthfulness that is grounded in the Thomistic virtue of veracitas Unlike most contemporary Christian ethicists who narrowly focus on the permissibility of lying he turns to the virtue of truthfulness and illuminates its close relationship to the virtue of justice This approach generates a more precise taxonomy of speech acts and shows how they are grounded in specific virtues and vices Clem's study also contributes to the contemporary literature on Aquinas who is often classified alongside Augustine and Kant as holding a rigorist position on lying Meticulously researched this volume clarifies what set Aquinas's view apart in his own day and how it is relevant to our own Clem demonstrates that Aquinas's account provides a genuine alternative to rigorist and consequentialist approaches His analysis also reveals the perennial relevance of Aquinas's thought by bringing it to bear on contemporary social and ethical issues

The Truth about Lying Stephen Costello, 2013-11-11 In this forthright and fascinating study Dr Stephen J Costello philosopher and logotherapist takes us on a profound journey into the intricate and intriguing nature of the dynamics of lying Drawing on philosophy logical puzzles and Lacanian psychoanalysis Costello investigates the types of lies we tell the lies that include a good deal of truth how and why children lie the lies lovers tell self deception and much more In the final section of the book Costello focuses in particular on how men and women lie in different ways Men he argues lie in the guise of truth while women tell the truth in the guise of a lie Men tend to be more direct while women are more deceptive Men lie to create a better image of themselves women lie to make others feel more comfortable Provocative while also frequently amusing The Truth about Lying is a pithy primer on the act and art of lying This is an absolutely fascinating book a quite extraordinary range of information I can only encourage everyone to read it and thoroughly enjoy it as I did Ivor Browne from the Foreword

The Habit of Lying John Vignaux Smyth, 2002-03-18 An investigation of deceit and concealment that proposes a new theory of fiction both as a new genre of literature and as a strategy in the social world

Identity Poetics Linda Garber, 2001-10-17 Queer theory asserts Linda Garber alternately buries and vilifies lesbian feminism missing its valuable insights and ignoring its rich contributions Rejecting the either/or choice between lesbianism and queer theory she favors an inclusive approach that defies current factionalism In an eloquent challenge to the privileging of queer theory in the academy Garber calls for recognition of the historical and intellectually significant role of lesbian poets as theorists of lesbian identity and activism The connections Garber shows are most clearly seen when looking at the pivotal work of working class lesbians lesbians of color whose articulations of multiple simultaneous identity positions and activist politics both belong to lesbian feminism and presage queer theory Identity Poetics includes a critical overview of recent historical writing about the women's and lesbian feminist movements of the 1970s discussions of the works of Judy Grahn Pat Parker Audre Lorde Adrienne Rich and Gloria Anzaldúa and finally a chapter on the rise and hegemony of queer theory within lesbian/gay studies
