Reluctant Europeans David Gowland, Arthur Turner, 2014-09-25 During the past fifty years few issues in British politics have generated such heated controversy as Britain's approach to European integration Why has

Europe had such an explosive impact on British politics What impelled British policymakers to embrace a European destiny and why did they take such a cautious approach These are some of the key issues addressed in The Reluctant Europeans This new study draws upon recently available source material providing a clear chronological account and covering events right up to Blair's first year in office and the launch of the Euro

The Presidency of the European Commission under Jacques Delors K. Endo, 1999-01-13 This work is the first systematic study of the presidency of the European Commission Drawing upon cases of attempted leadership by Jacques Delors the Commission President from 1985-95 it examines the leadership capacity of the office holder This points to the inherently shared and contingent nature of Commission President's leadership in a Union where the leadership sources are widely dispersed While this is essentially an empirical study Endo addresses some of the theoretical implications of its findings and resulting issues

A Legal and Political Interpretation of Articles 224 and 225 of the Treaty of Rome Constantin Stefanou, Helen Xanthaki, 2019-01-15 First published in 1997 Article 224 is one of the most powerful Articles of the Treaty of Rome allowing a member state to take unilateral measures and to suspend some or all its Treaty based obligations in times of what can loosely be described as serious internal turmoil or external threat It is for this reason that the very next Article of the Treaty Article 225 allows the Commission or a member state to challenge invocation of Art 224 before the European Court of Justice ECJ on grounds of improper use In practice the use of Art 224 by a member state presents multiple problems The obvious connection with defence and security issues has inhibited the ECJ which still has not given an authentic interpretation of this Article As the recent former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia FYROM cases Greek referral for the embargo on FYROM indicate unless the use of Art 224 is blatantly flippant the ECJ is not in a position to challenge a member state's unilateral measures

Deepening and Widening Pierre-Henri Laurent, Marc Maresceau, 1998 Eighteen articles discuss the leading EU issues and institutional reforms at the end of this century such as enlargement security and monetary union as well as relations with the US Russia and the new World Trade Organization Although the contents are not exclusively determined by that agenda the volume was prepared and edited on the eve of and during the early months of the 1996 IGC which highlighted the struggle between those who seek a more integrated and even a federal Europe and those proposing a looser confederation Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR
