Emde, Dennis P. Wolf, David Oppenheim, 2003-09-25 This book reports the work of a 20 year collaboration between a multidisciplinary group of clinicians and developmental scientists who have created and investigated a new tool to elicit and analyze children's narratives This tool is the MacArthur Story Stem Battery a systematic collection of story beginnings that are referred to as stems These stems are designed to elicit information from children about their representational worlds This method is particularly exciting because using it allows developmental psychologists and others to gain information directly from children about their emotional states and what they are able to understand and in turn to use this information to explore significant emotional differences among children This work will appeal to researchers and practitioners in developmental and clinical psychology The Lighthouse Keith McCloskey, 2014-07-01 On 26 December 1900 the vessel Hesperus arrived at Eilean Mor in the remote

Outer Hebrides with a relief lighthouseman and fresh provisions The lighthouse had been in operation for a year but it had been noted that no light had been seen from Eilean Mor for several days The relief keeper Joseph Moore found the lighthouse to be completely deserted and a subsequent search of the island failed to reveal any sign of what had happened to the three keepers The last entry in the logbook had been made on 15 December and contained a number of strange and distressing clues as to the mental states of the men One was reported to have been crying while another had become very quiet When it was revealed that the men's oilskin coats were missing and the clock in the lighthouse had stopped theories surrounding the keepers' fates inevitably proliferated These included a giant wave washing them away murder or suicide Others favoured more esoteric explanations Eilean Mor was believed to have mystical properties In The Lighthouse Keith McCloskey explores this mysterious and chilling story in depth for the first time and reveals a shocking conclusion
