Macedonia The Politics Of Identity And Difference:

Macedonia Jane K. Cowan, 2000-12-20 Macedonia has been contested by its three neighbours Serbia Bulgaria and Greece during and since the demise of the Ottoman Empire But the Macedonian Question extends far beyond the contested borders of Macedonia to immigrant communities in Europe Australia and North America The contributors to this collection explore the contemporary repercussions of the Macedonian Question which has long been at the heart of Balkan politics The volume recognises Macedonia as a global issue and focuses on the politics of identity and difference in both homeland and diaspora The contributors argue that Macedonia as place and as concept is forged within a transnational network of diasporas local communities states and international institutions They examine the increasingly important role of transnational bodies including the European Union and human rights NGOs in regulating relationships between states and minority groups as well as in promoting multiculturalism and civic participation They consider the role of scholarship and the media in defining Macedonia and its inhabitants They also draw attention to the struggles of individuals in constructing negotiating and even transforming their identities in the face of competing nationalisms and memories In the process they re evaluate ethnicity as a conceptual tool for understanding difference in the region and raise questions about the implications of recognising and not recognising difference at the political level

Macedonia and Identity Politics After the Prespa Agreement Vasiliki P. Neofotistos, 2020-12-29 This book explores issues of national identity history and language in light of the 2018 Prespa Agreement Designed to resolve a protracted and bitter dispute the agreement signed by the Macedonian and Greek foreign ministers on the banks of the Prespa lake stipulated that the Republic of Macedonia change its name to the Republic of North Macedonia The chapters examine the social political and economic conditions and events that led to the agreement and the implications and consequences for identity politics in the region Consideration is given to the ways in which and the reasons why identity identities difference differences modes of belonging and experiences of injustice and discrimination have been mobilized By focusing on the Prespa Agreement the collection also offers valuable insight into the processes involved in re making boundaries re defining ethnic and national identities re inventing citizenship and re writing national histories Bringing together expert contributors with intimate knowledge of and long term engagement with the region this volume will be of interest to scholars and students of anthropology Slavic and East European studies history and international relations Chapter 7 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

Collective Memory, National Identity, and Ethnic Conflict Victor Roudometof, 2002-12-30 Roudometof provides an in depth analysis of inter ethnic relations in the southern Balkans He examines the evolution of the Macedonian Question and the production of rival national narratives by Greeks Bulgarians and Macedonians He introduces the concept of a national narrative in order to account for the production and proliferation of different forms of collective memory among the rival nation states Roudometof deconstructs the national narratives of the competing sides and shows the limits of these narratives and their biases He also develops an alternative interpretation of Macedonian national formation The contentious issue of Macedonian national minorities in the southern Balkans is examined as well as the issue of the Albanian movements toward self determination and succession in Kosovo and western Macedonia Roudometof argues that the Macedonian minority groups are not as numerous in the neighboring states as it is conventionally assumed With regard to the Albanian national question he provides a review of the post 1945 relations between Albania and Greece the Albanians of Kosovo and the Serbs and the Albanians and Macedonians He argues that the Albanian nationalist movements have grown out of the interaction between Albanians and their neighboring nations and ethnic groups An important resource for scholars students and other researchers involved with the Balkans and ethnic conflict resolution in general

Notes from the Balkans

Sarah F. Green, 2016-09-26 Maps and borders notwithstanding some places are best described as gaps places with repeatedly contested boundaries that are wedged in between other places that have clear boundaries This book explores an iconic example of this in the contemporary Western imagination the Balkans Drawing on richly detailed ethnographic research around the Greek Albanian border Sarah Green focuses her groundbreaking analysis on the ambiguities of never quite resolving where or what places are One consequence for some Greek peoples in this border area is a seeming lack of distinction but in a distinctly Balkan way In gaps which are never empty marginality is in contrast with conventional understandings not a matter of difference and separation it is a lack thereof Notes from the Balkans represents the first ethnographic approach to exploring the Balkans as an ideological concept Green argues that rather than representing a tension between West and East the Balkans makes such oppositions ambiguous This kind of marginality means that such places and peoples can hardly engage with multiculturalism Moreover the region's ambiguity threatens clear modernist distinctions The violence so closely associated with the region can therefore be seen as part of continual attempts to resolve the ambiguities by imposing fixed separations And every time this fails the region is once again defined as a place that will continually proliferate such dangerous ambiguity and could spread it somewhere else

Nationalism, National Identity and Conflict in Southeast Europe: Towards a Comparative Approach

Alexis Heraclides, 2025-07-10 Looking into the intricate relationship between nationalism national identity and conflict this book offers a comparative approach to understanding the enduring tensions in Southeast Europe Alexis Heraclides examines the complex dynamics of five nations Albanians Bulgarians Greeks Macedonians and Turks and four key axes of conflicts Greece and Turkey Greece and Macedonia Bulgaria and Macedonia and Greece and Albania Through in depth analysis the Heraclides explores how historical narratives and the denial of others' identities fuel protracted rivalry and hinder conflict resolution in the region From the roots of national identity formation to the manifestations of us versus them mentalities this work sheds light on the critical interplay between identity and foreign policy This study is essential for scholars and anyone seeking to understand the deep seated nationalisms that continue to shape the political landscape of Southeast Europe Contents Chapter 1 Foreign policy analysis updated towards the nationalist identity and conflict nexus 3 PART I Ethnogenesis Greeks Bulgarians Albanians Turks and Macedonians 13 Chapter 2 Greek nationalism identity and narrative 19 Chapter 3 Bulgarian Nationalism Identity and narrative 39 Chapter 4 Albanian nationalism identity and narrative 59 Chapter 5 Turkish nationalism national identity and narrative 79 Chapter 6 Macedonian nationalism and national identity 95 PART II National Identity and Conflict four case studies 119 Chapter 7 Greece and Turkey a classic conflict of national identities and historical narratives 123 Chapter 8 Greece and Macedonia national identities and narratives and the non acceptance of the Other 157 Chapter 9 Bulgaria and Macedonia non acceptance of the Other and national identities and narratives 195 Chapter 10 Greece and Albania entanglements national identity and historical narrative 229 In lieu of a conclusion 267 Bibliography 271

Mediating the Nation Mirca Madianou, 2012-11-12 What does it mean to watch two hour long news programmes every evening Why are some people addicted to the news while others prefer to switch off Television is an indispensable part of the fabric of modern life and this book investigates a facet of this process its impact on the ways that we experience the political entity of the nation and our national and transnational identities Drawing on anthropological social and media theory and grounded on a two year original ethnography of television news viewing in Athens the book offers a fresh interdisciplinary perspective in understanding the media identity relationship Starting from a perspective that examines identities as lived and as performed the book follows the circulation of discourses about the nation and belonging and contrasts the articulation of identities at a local level with the discourses about the nation in the national television channels The book asks whether and in what ways does television influence identity discourses and practices When do people contest the official discourses about the nation and when do they rely on them Do the media play a role in relation to inclusion and exclusion from public life particularly in the case of minorities The book presents a compelling account of the contradictory and ambivalent nature of national and transnational identities while developing a nuanced approach to media power It is argued that although the media do not shape identities in a causal way they do contribute in creating common communicative spaces which often catalyse feelings of belonging or exclusion The book claims a place in the emerging sub field of media anthropology and represents the new generation of audience research that places media consumption in the wider social economic and political context

The Macedonian Slavs in the Greek Civil War, 1944-1949 James Horncastle, 2019-06-03 In this study of Macedonian Slavs in the Greek Civil War the author examines how their participation in the conflict and the attempts by other groups to manipulate them gave rise to modern issues that continue to affect politics in the region today The Macedonian Question has confounded academics politicians and the people of the Balkans since the nineteenth century While the countries have resolved the territorial component of the Macedonian Question the critical and confusing question surrounding the ethnic and linguistic identity of the people of the region continues to be the source of international debate Part of the reason for this confusion is because the history of the

Macedonian Question is shrouded in nationalist polemics The role of the Macedonian Slavs involvement in the Greek Civil War is particularly contentious and embedded in nationalist polemics which has impacted academic inquiry This book argues that the preponderance of Macedonian Slavs within the communist forces during the Greek Civil War influenced the actions of all the major actors involved and is a significant factor in shaping the modern Macedonian national identity

Borderlands Hastings Donnan, Thomas M. Wilson, 2012-07-10 Borderlands are often seen as zones of instability uncertainty marginality and danger Yet they increasingly attract the attention of ethnographers as a unique lens through which to view the intersections of the national transnational and global forces that shape the securities and insecurities of our globalizing age The contributors to this volume examine how different kinds of insecurity manifest and interconnect at state borders encompassing the personal and the political the social and the economic in ways that reinforce or undermine the identities of those whose lives these borders frame Drawing upon case studies from the Southern Cone the U S Mexico border and borders in Greece Ireland and southeast Asia the authors show that borders raise questions of security not just for those who live and cross them including ethnographers but also for the sustainability of the physical environments and wildlife disturbed by the passage movement and containment borders generate Strategies of Symbolic Nation-building in South Eastern Europe Pål Kolstø, 2016-04-01 After the conflagration of Tito's Yugoslavia a medley of new and not so new states rose from the ashes Some of the Yugoslav successor states have joined or are about to enter the European Union while others are still struggling to define their national borders symbols and relationships with neighbouring states Strategies of Symbolic Nation building in South Eastern Europe expands upon the existing body of nationalism studies and explores how successful these nation building strategies have been in the last two decades Relying on new quantitative research results the contributors offer interdisciplinary analyses of symbolic nation building in Albania Bosnia Herzegovina Croatia Kosovo Macedonia Montenegro and Serbia to show that whereas the citizens of some states have reached a consensus about the nation building project other states remain fragmented and uncertain of when the process will end A must read not only for scholars of the region but policy makers and others interested in understanding the complex interplay of history symbolic politics and post conflict transition Central and Southeast European Politics since 1989 Sabrina P.
