An Environmental History of the World J. Donald Hughes, 2002-09-26 An Environmental History of the World is a concise history from Ancient to Modern times of the interaction between human societies and the other forms of life that inhabit our planet This original work follows a chronological path through the history of mankind in relationship to ecosystems around the world Each chapter concentrates on a general period in human history which has been characterised by large scale changes in the relationship of human societies to the biosphere and gives three case studies that illustrate the significant patterns occurring at that time Little environmental or historical knowledge is assumed from the reader in this introduction to environmental history

Richard Seddon: King of God's Own Tom Brooking, 2014-08-27 2014 Must Read Otago Daily Times The life the health the intelligence and the morals of the nation count for more than riches and I would rather have this country free from want and squalor and unemployed than the home of multi millionaires Richard Seddon 1905 Casting a long shadow over New Zealand history Richard John Seddon Premier from 1893 to his untimely death in 1906 held a clear vision for the country he led Pushing New Zealand in more egalitarian directions than ever before he was both the builder and the maintenance man if not the architect of our country Challenging popular opinion of New Zealand's longest serving Prime Minister as a ruthless pragmatist cunning misogynist and Imperialistic jingoist this landmark biography of Seddon presents an altogether more sympathetic erudite appraisal Reconciling two generations of New Zealand scholarship Richard Seddon King of God's Own demonstrates that while holding fast to common ideals Seddon was successful by mastering the art of the possible He knew instinctively what his electorate would tolerate and remained in step with public opinion Despite contradictions in his attitudes towards other races he fought to ensure privilege did not become entrenched in what he envisioned as a white man's utopia In this perceptive new evaluation political historian Tom Brooking explains Seddon's complex relationship with Maori and shows how he in fact held a progressively bi cultural vision for the future of God's Own Country Seddon was no saint Somewhat autocratic and given to petty nepotism he nevertheless remains the most dominant political leader in our country's history Internationally his high profile within the Empire helped put New Zealand on the map Domestically he sought a middle ground between free market extremism and full blown socialism And more privately Seddon was a devoted family man his actions shaped much more by his supportive wife and assertive daughters than has previously been realised Richard Seddon King of God's Own is a superlative achievement in New Zealand history writing Absorbing wide ranging and beautifully articulated it reframes and repositions one of the founding fathers of modern New Zealand The definitive biography of one of New Zealand's most influential political leaders Paul Moon author of New Zealand in the Twentieth Century King of God's Own is a nuanced and generous assessment of our most famous Premier a man very much of his own time Gavin McLean co editor of the bestselling Frontier of Dreams The Story of New Zealand An excellent biography and a major revision of an important period in this country's history Barry Gustafson acclaimed biographer of Sir Keith Holyoake Sir Robert Muldoon and Michael Joseph Savage Also available as an eBook Museum Revolutions Simon Knell, Suzanne MacLeod, Sheila Watson, 2007-09-12 Capturing the richness of the museum studies discipline Museum Revolutions is the ideal text for museum studies courses providing a wide range of interlinked themes and the latest thought and research from experts in the field No Left Turn Chris Trotter, 2010-12-01 A bold and passionate re examination of New Zealand political history by a leading social commentator The way some histories tell it Europeans came to New Zealand keen to establish a Little Britain in the South Seas Not so says Chris Trotter Most nineteenth century immigrants wanted something better than the misery and oppression of the world they had left and Trotter reveals just how close they and their descendants came to building a new one On each occasion however their achievements were resisted and ultimately overturned by those who saw New Zealand simply as a source of profits Trotter pulls no punches in describing the methods these partisans of profit used to ensure there was no Left turn jamming radio broadcasts political arson even murder From Massey's Cossacks to Muldoon's riot squads violence and repression have been the Right's weapons not the Left's. Charting the evolution of New Zealand's unique brand of democratic socialism Trotter offers insightful and often surprising verdicts on the leading participants including John A Lee Peter Fraser Fintan Patrick Walsh David Lange and Helen Clark. Passionately argued infused with poetic imagery and comprehensively researched No Left Turn is a unique and indispensable contribution to our political and social history an inspiration for anyone who puts money second and people first and a deliberate provocation to everyone else. Fairness and Freedom David Hackett Fischer, 2012-02-10 From one of America's preeminent historians comes a magisterial study of the development of open societies focusing on the United States and New Zealand. Slipping into Paradise Jeffrey Moussaieff Masson, 2008-12-30 In the tradition of Under the Tuscan Sun and A Year in Provence here is Jeffrey Moussaieff Masson's ode to his personal paradise his adopted home New Zealand. After living in California why did Masson settle out of all the places on earth in such a faraway land? It turns out that while visiting a beautiful sandy beach just fifteen minutes from bustling Auckland Masson and his family were utterly seduced by the exotic locale. There was little deliberation. This place surrounded by lush forest on a bay dotted with volcanic islands would be their new home. Masson takes readers on a remarkable journey to another world as he and his family slip into the paradise that is New Zealand. For anyone who has ever dreamed of finding utopia Masson reveals a country where neighbors talk to one another and provide a sense of real community rarely outside of the big cities locking their doors and where politics are as mellow as the weather. New Zealand is also a land of spectacular scenery made even more famous for being the shooting location for the Lord of the Rings films. The flora is plentiful. Mangroves banana plants papaya trees and more than ten thousand species of ferns grow wild and freely. The fauna is benign. There are no snakes tarantulas or scorpions. Children can walk to school barefoot without a care there is nothing to sting them bite them or give them a rash. In the blue waters near the lush coastline dolphins and orcas abound. While describing his love affair with the country and his affinity for its citizens Masson reflects on the meaning of home the importance of acting on intuition and what happens when we lose our connection to the place we live in. Responding to an impulse Masson reveals he realized a dream. Featuring a glossary of phrases used by New Zealanders and important Maori words as well as the author's recommended travel itinerary Slipping into Paradise is ideal for anyone planning a visit to this exquisite land. Full of photographs delightful anecdotes and little known facts jogging for example was invented in New Zealand. Slipping into Paradise is also a book for those who fantasize about dramatically changing their lives and who imagine something better for themselves. Jeffrey Masson's message New Zealand awaits. Milestones Tom Brooking, Paul Enright, 1988. Seeds of Empire Tom Brooking, Eric Pawson, 2010-10-05 The traditional image of New Zealand is one of verdant landscapes with sheep grazing on lush green pastures. Yet this landscape is almost entirely an artificial creation. As Britain became increasingly reliant on its overseas territories for supplies of food and raw material so all over the Empire indigenous plants were replaced with English grasses to provide the worked up products of pasture meat.

butter cheese wool and hides In New Zealand this process was carried to an extreme with forest cleared and swamps drained How why and with what consequences did the transformation of New Zealand into these empires of grass occur Seeds of Empire provides both an exciting appraisal of New Zealand's environmental history and a long overdue exploration of the significance of grass in the processes of sowing empire Aotearoa Gavin Bishop, 2017 Over a thousand years ago the wind sea currents and stars brought people to the islands that became known as Aotearoa the land of the long white cloud Navigate your way through this sumptuously illustrated story of New Zealand Explore the defining moments of our history captured by celebrated children's book creator Gavin Bishop from the Big Bang right through to what might happen tomorrow Discover Maori legends layers of meaning and lesser known facts A truly special book Aotearoa The New Zealand Story deserves a space on every bookshelf to be taken off and pored over thumbed and treasured time and again Margaret Mahy Book of the Year New Zealand Book Awards for Children and Young Adults 2018 Elsie Locke Award for Non fiction New Zealand Book Awards for Children and Young Adults 2018 Storylines Notable Non Fiction Award 2018 Best Children's Book PANZ Book Design Awards 2018 NZ Listener 50 Best Books for Kids 2017 The Sapling Best Books List 2017 Man of the Century John Ramsden, 2002 Man of the Century is the often surprising story of how Winston Churchill in the last years of his life carefully crafted his reputation for posterity revealing him to be perhaps the twentieth century's first and most gifted spin doctor Ramsden draws on fresh material and extensive research on three continents to argue that the statesman's force of personality and romantic imperial notion of Britain has contributed directly to many of the political debates of the last decades including American involvement in Vietnam and the role of the Anglo American alliance in promoting and protecting a certain vision of world order The women's suffrage movement in New Zealand Anne-Mareike Franz, 2008-01-09 Essay from the year 2006 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Culture and Applied Geography grade 2.0 University of Trier language English abstract On 19 September 1893 New Zealand became the first state in the world which granted women the vote At this time Kate Sheppard who was of great importance for the feminist movement perceived the feelings of women in New Zealand as follows The General Elections have come and gone For the first time the women of New Zealand have joined with men in choosing members of Parliament and we have waited with bated breath for the deluge of calamities which it was prognosticated would follow the admission of women into the political arena Although this step seemed to be revolutionary and sudden considering the restricted political rights of women in many other countries the development of the women's suffrage movement in New Zealand was without violence and the outcome of a long historical process Changing Times Jenny Carlyon, Diana Morrow, 2014-02-01 From the golden weather of postwar economic growth through the globalization economic challenges and protest of the 1960s and 1970s to the free market revolution and new immigrants of the 1980s and 1990s and beyond this account the most complete and comprehensive history of New Zealand since 1945 illustrates the chronological and social history of the country with the engaging stories of real individuals and their experiences Leading historians Jennifer Carlyon and Diana Morrow discuss in great depth New Zealand's move toward nuclear free status its embrace of a small state free market ideology and the seeming rejection of its citizens of a society known for the worship of averages Stories of pirate radio in Auckland's Hauraki Gulf the first DC8 jets landing at Mangere airport feminists liberating pubs public protests over the closing of post offices and indigenous language nests vividly demonstrate how a postwar society famous around the world for its dull conformity became one of the most ethnically economically and socially diverse countries on earth Reading Pakeha? Christina Stachurski, 2009 Aotearoa New Zealand a tiny Pacific country is of great interest to those engaged in postcolonial and literary studies throughout the world In all former colonies myths of national identity are vested with various interests Shifts in collective Pakeha or New Zealand European identity have been marked by the phenomenal popularity of three novels each at a time of massive social change Late colonialism anti imperialism and the collapse of the idea of a singular nation can be traced through the reception of John Mulgan's Man Alone 1939 Keri Hulme's The Bone People 1983 and Alan Duff's Once Were Warriors 1990 Yet close analysis of these three novels also reveals marginalization and silencing in claims to singular Pakeha identity and a linear development of settler acculturation Such a dynamic resonates with that of other settler cultures the similarities and differences telling in comparison Specifically Reading Pakeha Fiction and Identity in Aotearoa New Zealand explores how concepts of race and ethnicity intersect with those of gender sex and sexuality This book also asks whether Pakeha is still a meaningful term Intimate Details & Vital Statistics Peter Davis, 1996 It offers a history of AIDS in this country and presents important and interesting research into the disease and into areas of social life that have previously been obscured by myth taboo and legal prohibition Contributors discuss the epidemic from the perspective of the groups involved and outline the unique response of the New Zealand government and the public a panic free response characterised by early mobilisation a preventive approach and substantial involvement of the gay community Family Matters Bronwyn Dalley, 1998 Traces the changes in government child welfare services from 1902 until 1992 Back cover Milestones Tom Brooking, Paul Enright, 1999-01-01 Tony Fomison Mark Forman, 2025-03-13 he wanted to make room at the back of our heads From the introduction by the author In a career spanning three decades Tony Fomison 1939 activist archaeologist and scholar trickster addict and disrupter and above all else an artist who shed light on the human condition and reimagined life in Aotearoa In this compelling biography developed over more than a decade Mark Forman draws on archival material and interviews with more than 150 people including Fomison's family and close friends leading contemporary artists political activists and art professionals The result is a comprehensive yet lively and accessible biography that reveals the man and his art to a new generation of readers Linguistic Landscaping and the Pacific Region Diane Elizabeth Johnson, 2021-07-27 In Linguistic Landscaping and the Pacific Region Colonization Indigenous Identities and Critical Discourse Theory Diane Elizabeth Johnson provides four case studies each exploring the use of language in public spaces in an area of the Pacific in which colonization has played a major role The Kingdom of Hawai i Hawai i Aotearoa New Zealand Kanaky New Caledonia and Tahiti Each of these studies is informed by critical discourse theory highlighting the ways in which hegemonic structures may be established reinforced and particularly in times of crisis contested and overturned The book introduces the case studies in the context of a parallel introduction to the Pacific region critical discourse theory and research on linguistic landscapes The critical discussion is accessible to students and others who are approaching these contexts and theories for the first time while also locating the author s work in relation to existing scholarship Johnson urges readers to listen carefully to the voices of indigenous peoples at a time when the danger of Western certainties has been fully exposed
