By the first weeks of 1945 the Eastern Front had been pushed back to the Carpathian mountain passes in the south and Warsaw on the Vistula River in the center while in the north the German army was fighting in East Prussia The Wehrmacht s armored and mobile formations were now employed exclusively as fire brigades rushed from one crisis to the next as the Red Army pushed inexorably westward Critical to the German defense were the army s heavy Panzer battalions whose Tiger tanks with their 8 8 cm guns were almost invincible on the open plains of central Europe In his latest book in the TankCraft series Dennis Oliver uses archive photos and extensively researched color illustrations to examine the Tiger tanks and units of the German Army and Waffen SS heavy Panzer battalions that struggled to resist the onslaught of Soviet armor during the last days of the conflict which culminated in the battle for Berlin A key section of his book displays available model kits and aftermarket products complemented by a gallery of beautifully constructed and painted models in various scales Technical details as well as modifications introduced during production and in the field are also examined providing everything the modeler needs to recreate an accurate representation of these historic tanks Germany's Tiger Tanks Thomas L.

The Tiger Tank Story Mark Healy,2010 The Tiger Tank story The Tiger Project Horst Krönke,Dale Richard Ritter,2004 This book is the second in a series that will delve in to the inner workings of Germany's most fearsome panzers of the Second World War the Tiger and Tiger II There are many books already in publication that deal with various aspects of the Tiger series of tanks but few include more than minimal biographical information of the men who crewed these battlefield behemoths Based mainly on interviews personal diaries and recollections the series will present to the reader the German Tiger and King Tiger crewmen as soldiers who had the opportunity to serve as a member of a crew and unit that fielded an extraordinary and deadly weapon The series will include all levels of soldiers from the Tiger abteilung commanders down to the drivers loaders gunners and radio operators As with the first book in this series covering the experiences of Alfred Rubbel this second book is strictly the story of one man Horst Krönke The story combines the experiences of Krönke with approximately 400 photographs most which are unpublished hand drawn maps and original documents to tell the story of a veteran of Germany's elite panzerwaffe and feared Tiger tanks. His initial experience was in training with Panzer Ersatz Abteilung 5. From there he was assigned to Panzer Regiment 6 of the 3rd Panzer Division and experienced the opening of the war in Russia. Krönke was in action on the Eastern Front through the end of 1942 at which time he was sent back to Germany to attend officer cadet and then officer's schools. Upon his return to the front and Panzer Regiment 6 he was sidetracked by an old comrade and was incorporated into schwere Panzer Abteilung 503. At that point Horst was introduced to the new Tiger tank and served with a Tiger unit transferring to schwere Panzer Abteilung 505 to serve with his brother until the end of the war.
