Military Occupation And Diplomacy Soviet Troops In Romania 1944 1958:

Military Occupation and Diplomacy Sergiu Verona, 1992 In 1958 after fourteen years of military occupation Khrushchev in an unprecedented act withdrew the Soviet Union's troops from Romania as part of a political move intended to encourage the withdrawal of Western military forces from Europe In analyzing this crucial historic episode Sergiu Verona's comprehensive study illustrates the dynamics of Soviet military presence in Romania and provides a framework for understanding Soviet security policy then and now as well as the interaction between Soviet military objectives and diplomacy Drawing on declassified archival material in the United States and the United Kingdom the author considers Khrushchev's reversal of Stalinist expansionism by examining the motivation function and operation of the initial occupation of Romania the complex involvement of Soviet diplomacy and its perception by the United States and other Western powers the process by which Khrushchev decided to withdraw Soviet troops from that country and the impact of this decision on Soviet policy Verona extends his analysis providing comparisons between Khrushchev's and Gorbachev's approaches to Eastern Europe noting that similarities exist not only in domestic policies but in the realm of foreign policy as well

Romania under Communism Dennis Deletant, 2018-10-11 Communism has cast a long shadow over Romania The passage of little over a quarter of a century since the overthrow in December 1989 of Romania's last Communist leader Nicolae Ceaucescu offers a symbolic standpoint from which to penetrate that shadow and to throw light upon the entire period of Communist rule in the country An appropriate point of departure is the observation that Romania's trajectory as a Communist state within the Soviet bloc was unlike that of any other That trajectory has its origins in the social structures attitudes and policies in the pre Communist period The course of that trajectory is the subject of this inquiry Romania and World War II Kurt Treptow, 2022-11-01 Romania and World War II is a collection of studies in English and Romanian by distinguished American European and Romanian historians on the situation of Romania during World War II presented at the First International Conference of the Center for Romanian Studies held in Ia i on 25-26 May 1995 commemorating the fiftieth anniversary of the end of World War II in Europe This book reveals the results of research by leading specialists from around the world addressing many important aspects of Romania's involvement in World War II The papers published in this volume include Charles King The Moldovan ASSR on the Eve of the War Cultural Policy in 1930s Transnistria Kurt W Treptow Alegerile din decembrie 1937 si instaurarea dictaturii regale Nicholas M Nagy Talavera Reminiscences of Iorga's Murderer Traian Boeru Florin Constantiniu Un episod pu in cunoscut al rela iilor rom no sovietice 1941 Larry L Watts Incompatible Alliances Small States of Central Europe during World War II Mihai Retegan The End of the War in Europe Consequences for the States of Central and Eastern Europe A Comparative Study Valeriu Florin Dobrinescu Unele considera ii privind intrarea Rom niei n razboiul na iunilor unite 1944-1945 Gheorghe Onisoru Uniunea Sovietica si Rom nia de la 1944 la 1947 Paul E Michelson Recent Historiography on Romania and the Second World War and many others Edited by Kurt W Treptow

Migrating Memories James Koranyi, 2021-12-16 Romanian Germans mainly from the Banat and Transylvania have occupied a place at the very heart of major events in Europe in the twentieth century yet their history is largely unknown This east central European minority negotiated their standing in a difficult new European order after 1918 changing from uneasy supporters of Romania to zealous Nazis tepid Communists and conciliatory Europeans Migrating Memories is the first comprehensive study in English of Romanian Germans and follows their stories as they move across borders and between regimes revealing a very European experience of migration minorities and memories in modern Europe After 1945 Romanian Germans struggled to make sense of their lives during the Cold War at a time when the community began to fracture and fragment The Revolutions of 1989 seemed to mark the end of the German community in Romania but instead Romanian Germans repositioned themselves as transnational European bridge builders staking out new claims in a fast changing world

Romania since the Second World War Florin Abraham, 2016-11-17 CHOICE Outstanding Academic Title 2017 Romania since the Second World War is the first book about Romania designed to chart the progress of the nation under the communist regime as well as the transition period that followed providing detailed analysis of the aspects of continuity and change that can be identified over the period as a whole The book begins with Romania's involvement in the Second World War looking at the communist regime in depth It examines how communism took hold and the elimination of traditional elites took place before discussing the impact of Gheorghiu Dej and Nicolae Ceausescu the two most important leaders of the communist era The following chapters cover the main social and economic changes during the communist regime The second part of the book explores the transition period following the end of communism in 1989 with special attention given to international relations and Romania's drive for inclusion in NATO and the EU Romania since the Second World War assesses socio demographic trends across the postwar period before concluding with some thoughts on the nation's development during this time The book includes a useful appendix covering the key figures in Romania's recent history and a helpful bibliography making this a key text for anyone interested in the modern history of Eastern Europe

Church Reckoning with Communism in Post-1989 Romania Lavinia Stan, Lucian Turcescu, 2021-07-07 The present volume focuses on the relationship with Communism of Romania's most important religious denominations and their attempt to cope with that difficult past which continues to cast an important shadow over their present For the first time ever this volume considers both the majority Romanian Orthodox Church and significant minority denominations such as the Roman and Greek Catholic Churches the Reformed Church the Hungarian Unitarian Church and the Pentecostal Christian Denomination It argues that no religious group escaped collaboration with the Communists After 1989 however most denominations had little desire to tackle their tainted past and make a clean start In part this situation was facilitated by the country's deficient legislation that did not encourage the pursuit of lustration which in turn did not lead to a serious movement of elite renewal in the religious realm Instead a strong process of reproduction of the old elites and their adaptation to democracy has been the dominant characteristic of the post Communist period

The Ransom of the Jews Radu Ioanid, 2021-06-23 After 1948 the 370 000 Jews of Romania who survived the Holocaust became one of the main sources of immigration for the new state of Israel as almost all left their homeland to settle in Palestine and Israel Romania's decision to allow its Jews to leave was baldly practical Israel paid for them and Romania wanted influence in the Middle East For its part Israel was rescuing a community threatened by economic and cultural extinction and at the same time strengthening itself with a massive infusion of new immigrants Radu Ioanid traces the secret history of the longest and most expensive ransom arrangement in recent times a hidden exchange that lasted until the fall of the Communist regime Including a wealth of recently declassified documents from the archives of the Romanian secret police this updated edition follows Israel's long and expensive ransom arrangement with Communist Romania Ioanid uncovers the elaborate mechanisms that made it successful for decades the shadowy figures responsible and the secret channels of communication and payment As suspenseful as a Cold War thriller his book tells the full startling story of an unprecedented slave trade

How Armies Respond to Revolutions and Why Zoltan Barany, 2020-03-31 An exploration of military responses to revolutions and how to predict such reactions in the future We know that a revolution's success largely depends on the army's response to it But can we predict the military's reaction to an uprising How Armies Respond to Revolutions and Why argues that it is possible to make a highly educated guess and in some cases even a confident prediction about the generals' response to a domestic revolt if we know enough about the army, the state it is supposed to serve, the society in which it exists and the external environment that affects its actions. Through concise case studies of modern uprisings in Iran, China, Eastern Europe, Burma, and the Arab world, Zoltan Barany looks at the reasons for and the logic behind the variety of choices soldiers ultimately make. Barany offers tools in the form of questions to be asked and answered that enable analysts to provide the most informed assessment possible regarding an army's likely response to a revolution and ultimately the probable fate of the revolution itself. He examines such factors as the military's internal cohesion, the regime's treatment of its armed forces, and the size, composition, and nature of the demonstrations. How Armies Respond to Revolutions and Why explains how generals decide to support or suppress domestic uprisings. The Atlantik-Brücke and the American Council on Germany, 1952-1974 Anne Zetsche, 2021-03-23

Based on impressive multi-archival work and a keen sense for a good narrative, the author introduces us to the complex interlocking networks of the little-known Atlantik Brücke and the American Council on Germany. A fantastic addition to our understanding of the Transnational Transatlantic in the 20th century. Giles Scott Smith, Roosevelt Chair in New Diplomatic History, Leiden University, The Netherlands. An original and insightful book exploring how two transatlantic networks worked to improve and solidify West Germany's relationship with the United States in the aftermath of World War II. Deborah Barton, Assistant Professor of History, University of Montreal, Canada. Revisiting the relationship between the USA and Germany following the Second World War, this book offers a new perspective and focuses on the influence of two organisations in accelerating West Germany's integration into the Atlantic Alliance. Tracing the Atlantik Brücke and the American Council on Germany's ACG origins to the late 1940s and tracking their development and activities throughout the 1950s-70s, this book covers new ground in German-American historiography by bridging public and private relations and introducing central actors that have previously been hidden from academic debate. The author unveils and examines dense transatlantic elite networks that allowed Germany to re-join the community of nations, regain sovereignty and become a trusted member of the North Atlantic Treaty Organisation (NATO). Analysing transatlantic relations through the lens of the intertwined history of the Atlantik Brücke and the ACG, this book explores public-private networks on a transnational level, providing valuable reading for those studying political history, European and American post-war relations, and the Cold War. Ceausescu and the Securitate Dennis Deletant, 2016-12-05. First Published in 2017. This book contains Deletant's research and view that an inescapable feature of life in Romania under Ceausescu was the ubiquity of the Securitate, or the security police, known officially for much of the period as the Department of State Security of the Ministry of the Interior. He seeks to right the omission in Romanian literature until now of the mechanism of terror which Stalin used in Romania to enforce his will and about the organisation of the Department of State Security. Empires and Nations from the Eighteenth to the Twentieth Century Antonello Biagini, 2014-08-11 This volume is the result of an international conference held at Sapienza University in Rome on June 20 and 21 2013 as the final stage of the PRIN Progetto di rilevante interesse nazionale project Empires and Nations from the 18th to the 20th century during which scholars from all over the world academics specialists young researchers PhD students and post doctorates confronted diverse but connected topics on the relations between multinational empires and the idea of the nation In this way the reality of the historical empires and national states was represented and concepts such as identity nationality and sovereignty analyzed The second volume is dedicated to the age of empires and colonialism with particular reference to the colonial policy of the Great Powers England Russia and Italy the reality of post colonial states and to the different patterns of decolonization including specific cases such as South Sudan Azerbaijan Iraq Afghanistan and Palestine Particular attention is paid to the economic systems of different countries and to the area of Southeastern Europe particularly to Romania and its multicultural area Transylvania To the Great War and the dissolution of the multinational empires ample space is dedicated providing insights on border issues ethnic conflicts foreign policies the Adriatic question and the territorial conflict between Yugoslavia and Italy The final part of the book analyzes communism the bipolar system and the East West conflict that divided Europe for almost half a century with specific contributions that discuss post communist nations and states
