Millennium Challenges For Development And Faith Institutions Common Leadership Challenges:

Millennium Goals for Development and Faith Institutions Katherine Marshall,2003 Development and Faith

Katherine Marshall,Marisa Bronwyn Van Saanen,2007 Publisher s description The faith and development nexus is both a promising new focus for secular development agencies and a historic reality for centuries world faiths and individuals inspired by their faith have played many roles in social change and social welfare Secular development agencies have largely operated in parallel to the world of faith motivated development The World Bank began in the late 1990s to explore ways in which faith and development are connected The issue was not and is not about religion but about the recognition that some of Show Morethe best experts on development are faith leaders living and working in poor communities where strong ties and moral authority give them unique experience and insight The World Bank s goal is to act as a catalyst and convenor bringing together development practitioners to find common ground understand one another s efforts and explore differences Development and Faith explores and highlights promising partnerships in the world between secular and faith development entities It recounts the evolving history of relationships between faith and secular development institutions It focuses on the Millennium Development Goals as a common framework for action and an opportunity for new forms of collaboration and partnership The Oxford Handbook of Religion, Conflict, and Peacebuilding Atalia Omer,R. Scott Appleby,David Little,2015

The book provides a comprehensive overview of the literature on religion conflict and peacebuilding With a focus on structural and cultural violence the volume also offers a cutting edge interdisciplinary reframing of the scope of scholarship in the field Global Institutions of Religion Katherine Marshall,2013-06-26 This work fills a significant gap in the current literature by providing a concise introduction to religious institutions and an insightful analysis of their role in world affairs Focusing on formal institutions specifically dedicated to governing religious communities the work examines the intersections between religious and other global institutions set against the fundamental question why and how do these intersections matter The work explores the role of religion within key issues including Human rights Human security International development and humanitarian relief Climate change Moral responsibilities The new forms that religious institutions are taking their fit with human rights and democratic ideals their changing nature in plural societies are a highly relevant part of the global institutional picture and this book is essential reading for all students and scholars of global institutions international relations and religion Religion and Development J. Haynes,2007-10-12

Jeffrey Haynes adopts a chronological and conceptual approach to introduce students to the central themes and theoretical perspectives in the study of religion and development in the developing world focusing on key themes including environmental sustainability health and education Religious Pluralism, Globalization, and World Politics Thomas Banchoff,2008-11-26 Globalization has spawned more active transnational religious communities creating a powerful force in world affairs Religious Pluralism Globalization and World Politics an incisive new collection of essays explores the patterns of cooperation and conflict that mark this new religious pluralism Shifting religious identities have encouraged interreligious dialogue and greater political engagement around global challenges including international development conflict resolution transitional justice and bioethics At the same time interreligious competition has contributed to political conflict and running controversy over the meaning and scope of religious freedom In this volume leading scholars from a variety of disciplines examine how the forces of religious pluralism and globalization are playing out on the world stage Religion, Religious Organisations and Development Carole Rakodi, 2016-04-04 This collection adds to a burgeoning literature concerned with the roles played by religions in development The authors do not assume that religion and religious organisations can be used to achieve development objectives or that religiously inspired development work is more holistic transformative and authentic Instead they subject such assumptions to critical and as far as possible objective scrutiny focusing on how adherents of several religious traditions and a variety of organisations affiliated with different religions perceive the idea of development and attempt to contribute to its objectives Geographically chapters in the volume encompass Africa South Asia and the Asia Pacific Four of the papers have an international focus providing a preliminary framework for analysing the role of religion in development considering the roles played by faith inspired organisations in two regions the Asia Pacific and Sub Saharan Africa and analysing transnational Muslim NGOs The individual case studies focus on nine countries India Kenya Pakistan Nigeria Tanzania Sudan Malawi Sri Lanka South Africa consider four religions Islam Hinduism Christianity Buddhism and can be grouped under four themes they consider religion wellbeing and inequality the roles of religious NGOs in development whether and how religious organisations influence respond to or resist social change and whether religious service providers reach the poor Finally practice notes show how three religious development organisations try to put their principles into practice This book was published as a special double issue of Development in Practice An Introduction to International Relations and Religion Jeffrey Haynes, 2014-04-23 Not so very long ago it seemed reasonable to assert that the influence of religion on global politics was on the wane As the Western world became increasingly secular and the process of globalisation deepened it seemed inevitable on the surface at least that the voice of religion was to be heard softly if it was to be heard at all This has now changed and changed perhaps irrevocably As Jeff Haynes argues in this thought provoking and important new book various religious actors are now significantly involved in international relations and have become a crucial influence on policy in a post Westphalian world International Relations and Religion guides the reader through the complex issues at the heart of this topic with clarity and insight This updated second edition starts with a close reading of the many theoretical and analytical concepts notably Huntington and the clash of civilisations that have grown up around this area and then concludes with a summary of the issues under discussion and attempts to put into context what it means to live in a world that is increasingly shaped by a whole host of diverse religious groups Essential reading for students of International Relations and Politics Global Governance, Poverty & Inequality Rorden Wilkinson, Jennifer

Clapp,2010-06-10 Pt 1 Development and the governance of poverty and inequality pt 2 Bretton Woods and the amelioration of poverty and inequality pt 3 Promising poverty reduction governing indebtedness pt 4 Complex multilateralism public private partnerships and global business pt 5 Horizontal inequalities and faith institutions The Oxford Handbook of Christianity and Economics Paul Oslington,2014 The new interdisciplinary field of Christianity and economics deals with the important and difficult questions that cluster at the boundary of these disciplines drawing on contemporary theory and empirical findings in both fields with roots in older discourses This landmark volume surveys the field and advances the discussion It deploys historical economic and theological analysis to search for answers Ethics, Hunger and Globalization Per Pinstrup-Andersen,Peter Sandøe,2007-07-20 Ethics Hunger and Globalization adds an ethics dimension to the debate and research about poverty hunger and globalization Outstanding scholars and practitioners from several disciplines discuss what action is needed for ethics to play a bigger role in action by governments civil society and the private sector to reduce poverty and hunger within the context of globalization The book concludes that much of the rhetoric by policy makers is not followed up with appropriate action and discusses the role of ethics in attempts to match action with rhetoric The book also concludes that a better understanding of the values underlying both public and private sector action towards the alleviation of poverty and hunger would lead to more enlightened policies and greater success in attempts to achieve the Millennium Development Goals The interaction between ethical economic and policy aspects is discussed and scholars and experienced practitioners from several disciplines suggest how such integration may be promoted Voice for the World's Poor James D. Wolfensohn,2005-01-01 Brings together the most important and inspiring speeches made by James Wolfensohn during his time as World Bank president Politics of Development Heloise Weber,2014-08-13 The Politics of Development A Survey provides an overview of the intrinsically political relations of development It brings together essays written by experts in the politics of development and covers a range of significant and topical concerns gender race indigenous development social movements religion security environmental concerns colonialism and its legacies migration the political economy of development trajectories in urbanization and the agrarian question It introduces and examines key concepts and approaches which have underpinned development as well as the struggles it has engendered historically and in contemporary contexts This volume provides critical insights into the global politics of development and offers alternative analytical frameworks for understanding the relationships around development and inequalities The Politics of Development A Survey is organized in an accessible manner catering to a wide audience ranging from undergraduates at University level to practitioners and Non Governmental Organizations NGOs engaged in advocacy as well as practical political aspects and provides introductions to key issues and themes around contemporary challenges and opportunities in development The title also includes an A Z Glossary covering key terms organizations concepts and actors in the politics of development State of the World's Minorities and Indigenous Peoples 2010 Preti Taneja,2010-07-01 A decade into the new century sees religious minorities confronting serious violations of their rights around the globe Following the violent attacks of 11 September 2001 governments of every political hue have used war on terror rhetoric to justify the repression of religious communities Other religious minorities have faced a violent backlash often unjustly accused of siding with belligerents In Africa the Middle East Asia and Latin America armed conflict and land seizures have forced minority and indigenous communities away from locations central to their religious beliefs Europe has witnessed gains by extreme right wing political parties which are targeting religious minorities with their inflammatory language In Central Asia governments have introduced tough new registration requirements for religious communities and prevented the building of places of worship In State of the World's Minorities and Indigenous Peoples 2010 Minority Rights Group International offers a comprehensive overview of the situation faced by minorities in a world increasingly divided along religious lines It includes An analysis of government initiatives that contribute to the marginalisation of religious minorities such as religious profiling and registration laws First hand accounts from around the world of the discrimination and exclusion faced by those belonging to minorities who wish to exercise their right to freedom of religion and belief An exploration of grassroots efforts through interfaith dialogue to ease tensions overcome conflicts and promote peaceful and equitable development An overview of the human rights situation of minorities and indigenous peoples in every major world region The unique statistical ranking and analysis Peoples under Threat 2010 An invaluable reference for policy makers academics journalists and everyone who is interested in the human rights situation of minorities and indigenous peoples around the world

Global Visioning Ahmed Abaddi, 2017-07-05 This volume makes the case for global visioning the collective process of looking at a larger picture and building common ground for the future The contributors agree that only by such a process will people be able to address mounting problems like global warming war terrorism and poverty which threaten the Earth's population This latest volume in the Peace Policy series addresses three main themes On Spirituality and Ethics advocates an international culture of nonviolence International and Transnational Relations makes a case for global fellowship On Education and Culture argues that educating children is the first step in reforming the world The contributors seek solutions to the question of how people can start seeing issues from a global point of view rather than from narrow national perspectives In keeping with the global nature and scope of the world's problems the contributions come from very diverse countries including Japan Morocco South Africa Germany Italy Belgium and the United States This work will inspire participation in this much needed exercise of collective global problem solving

Finding Global Balance Katherine Marshall, Lucy Keough, 2005 This book relates the latest chapter in the story of a remarkable partnership between the worlds of faith and development launched in 1998 by Jim Wolfensohn and then Archbishop of Canterbury George Carey when they convened a meeting of faith and development leaders in Lambeth Palace The intervening years have seen the growth and enhancement of a network of world faith and development leaders who share a common passion to eradicate global poverty extend social justice and ensure global security for all of the world's people Periodically this group of leaders gathers together to debate issues of common concern and global significance The most recent meeting took place in Dublin Ireland in January 2005 Debates over two days were rich and provocative examining issues ranging from the recent Asian tsunami to HIV AIDS gender and youth and the roots of conflict all viewed through the lens of equity References to the ethical dimensions of poverty alleviation and the need for a strong moral underpinning as a foundation for equitable and sustainable development lay at the heart of every session The uniqueness of this partnership is the fresh perspective it offers on critical development issues and the opportunity for faith leaders and development leaders to seek new avenues for collaboration This book tells the story of this partnership within the context of the Dublin meeting International Development Policy: Religion and Development G. Carbonnier, 2016-01-06 The rise of fundamentalist movements in major religions has forced decision makers development organizations and academics to turn their attention to its meaning for development Global scholars and practitioners examine these issues and fundamentally question the secular religious dichotomy in development discourse and practice Science, Faith and the Climate Crisis Sally Myers, Sarah Hemstock, Edward Hanna, 2020-06-17 Inspired by a 2019 conference Moana Water of Life and including real life insights from a diverse range of participants this book showcases the potential fruits of open dialogue between stakeholders to navigate the critical challenges to planetary health caused by the climate crisis ISG 44: Church Communities Confronting HIV and AIDS Gideon Byamugisha, 2012-04-10 A new title in the ISG series to help Christians and churches around the world meet the enormous challenges that HIV AIDS presents particularly in African countries The Routledge Handbook of Religions and Global Development Emma Tomalin, 2015-02-11 This Handbook provides a cutting edge survey of the state of research on religions and global development Part one highlights critical debates that have emerged within research on religions and development particularly with respect to theoretical conceptual and methodological considerations from the perspective of development studies and its associated disciplines Parts two to six look at different regional and national development contexts and the place of religion within these These parts integrate and examine the critical debates raised in part one within empirical case studies from a range of religions and regions Different religions are situated within actual locations and case studies thus allowing a detailed and contextual understanding of their relationships to development to emerge Part seven examines the links between some important areas within development policy and practice where religion is now being considered including Faith Based Organisations and Development Public Health Religion and Development Human rights Religion and Development Sustainable Development Climate Change and Religion Global Institutions and Religious Engagement in Development Economic Development and Religion Religion Development and Fragile States Development and Faith Based Education Taking a global approach the Handbook covers Africa Latin America South Asia East and South East Asia and the Middle East It is essential reading for students and researchers in development studies and religious studies and is highly relevant to those working in area studies as well as a
