Continuity and Rupture in the Long Middle Ages Michael Edward Moore, 2024-08-26 The Long Middle Ages indicates a span of time extending from Antiquity across the Middle Ages to the Early Modern period The author tries to understand factors of historical continuity binding this period together and the periodic scenes of violent change that disrupted societies and traditions The Long Middle Ages were established on classical and biblical foundations while each generation interpreted and expanded on those origins The cohesion of the Long Middle Ages was brought about by continuous acts of reflection and renaissance Scholarly practices and ideas of Antiquity were taken up in the monasteries and cathedral schools of the Middle Ages while during the Renaissance and then the Baroque period thinkers looked back to Antiquity and to the Middle Ages

Continuity and Rupture in the Long Middle Ages is an interdisciplinary approach to intellectual history which puts the history of ideas in the context of cultural political religious and legal history Medieval history is the central moment while continuity and change are found in traditions extending from the Lord's Prayer AD 30 to Jean Mabillon AD 1632 1707 and onward to moderns like Ernst Cassirer and Paul Ricoeur Readers will discover new significance in historical figures like the Venerable Bede Boniface of Mainz Charlemagne and Pope Formosus in the laws of medieval kings and bishops and institutions like the monastery of Cluny These essays gathered together for the first time in this Variorum volume offer powerful new interpretations for students and researchers in the fields of medieval studies legal and literary interpretation legal history and the history of European intellectual life from ancient to modern times Byzantion ,2005 Includes section Comptes rendus The Making of Syriac Jerusalem

Catalin-Stefan Popa,2023-05-31 This book discusses hagiographic historiographical hymnological and theological sources that contributed to the formation of the sacred picture of the physical as well as metaphysical Jerusalem in the literature of two Eastern Christian denominations East and West Syrians Popa analyses the question of Syrian beliefs about the Holy City their interaction with holy places and how they travelled in the Holy Land He also explores how they imagined and reflected the theology of this itinerary through literature in Late Antiquity and the Middle Ages set alongside a well defined local tradition that was at times at odds with Jerusalem Even though the image of Jerusalem as a land of sacred spaces is unanimously accepted in the history of Christianity there were also various competing positions and attitudes This often promoted the attempt at mitigating and replacing Jerusalem s sacred centrality to the Christian experience with local sacred heritage which is also explored in this study Popa argues that despite this rhetoric of artificial boundaries the general picture epitomises a fluid and animated intersection of Syriac Christians with the Holy City especially in the medieval era and the subsequent period through a standardised process of pilgrimage well integrated in the custom of advanced Christian life and monastic canon The Making of Syriac Jerusalem is suitable for students and scholars working on the history literature and theology of Syriac Christianity in the late antique and medieval periods The Journal of Ecclesiastical History Clifford William Dugmore,2005 Galla Placidia Hagith Sivan,2011-02-01 The astonishing career of Galla Placidia c 390 450 provides valuable reflections on the state of the Roman empire in the fifth century CE In an age when emperors like Galla s two brothers Arcadius 395 408 and Honorius 395 423 and nephew Theodosius II 408 450 hardly ever ventured beyond the fortified enclosure of their palaces Galla spent years wandering across Italy Gaul and Spain first as hostage in the camp of Alaric the Goth and then as wife of Alaric s successor In exile at the court of her nephew in Constantinople Galla observed how princesses wield power while vaunting piety Restored to Italy on the swords of the eastern Roman army Galla watched the coronation of her son age six as the emperor of the western Roman provinces For a dozen years 425 437 she acted as regent treading uneasily between rival senatorial factions ambitious church prelates and charismatic military leaders This new biography of Galla is organized according to her changing roles as bride widow bereaved mother queen and empress It examines her relations with men in power her achievements as a politician her skills at establishing power bases and political alliances and her efficiency at accomplishing her desired goals Using all the available sources documents epigraphy coinage and the visual arts and Galla s own letters Hagith Sivan reconstructs the turning points and highlights of Galla s odd progression from a bloodthirsty princess at Rome to a bride of a barbarian in Gaul from a manipulative sister and wife of emperors at the imperial court at Ravenna to a beggar at the court of her relatives in Constantinople and from a devious regent of the western Roman empire to a collaborator of popes in Rome Church History James E. Bradley,Richard A. Muller,2016-03-22 In their acclaimed much used Church History James Bradley and Richard Muller lay out guidelines methods and basic reference tools for research and writing in the fields of church history and historical theology Over the years this book has helped countless students define their topics locate relevant source materials and write quality papers This revised expanded and updated second edition includes discussion of Internet based research digitized texts and the electronic forms of research tools The greatly enlarged bibliography of study aids now includes many significant new resources that have become available since the first edition s publication in 1995 Accessible and clear this introduction will continue to benefit both students and experienced scholars in the field

International Medieval Bibliography ,2009 Lists articles notes and similar literature on medieval subjects in journals Festschriften conference proceedings and collected essays Covers all aspects of medieval studies within the date range of 450 to 1500 for the entire continent of Europe the Middle East and North Africa for the period before the Muslim conquest and parts of those areas subsequently controlled by Christian powers

Relics, Shrines and Pilgrimages Antón M. Pazos,2020-03-04 Since Late Antiquity relics have provided a privileged spiritual bond between life and death between human beings and divinity Royalty nobility and clergy all tried to obtain the most prestigious remains of sacred bodies since they granted influence and fame and allowed the cult around them to be used as a means of sacralization power and propaganda This volume traces the development of the veneration of relics in Europe and how these objects were often catalysts for the establishment of major pilgrimage sites that are still in use today The book features an international panel of contributors taking a wide ranging look at relic worship across Europe from Late Antiquity until the present day They begin with a focus on the role of relics in Jacobean pilgrimage before looking at the link between relics and their shrines more generally The book then focuses in on two major issues in the study of relics the stealing of relics Furta Sacra and their modern day scientific examination and authentication These topics demonstrate not only symbolic importance of relics but also their role as physical historical objects in material religious expression This is a fascinating collection featuring the latest scholarship on relics and pilgrimage across Europe It will therefore be of great interested to academics working in Pilgrimage Religious History Material Religion and Religious Studies as well as Anthropology Archaeology Art and Cultural Studies

On Hospitals Sethina Watson,2020-07-24 This ground breaking study explores welfare institutions in western law in the middle ages and establishes for the first time a legal model for the hospital On Hospitals takes us beyond canon law Carolingian capitularies and Justinian s Code and Novels to late Roman testamentary law identifying new legislation and legal initiatives in every period In challenging long established orthodoxies a new history of the hospital emerges one that is fundamentally a European history To the history of law it offers an unusual lens through which to explore canon law What this monograph identifies for the first time is that the absence of law is the key This is a study of what happened when there was no legal inheritance nor even an authority through which to act Here at the fringes of law pioneers worked and forgers played Their efforts shed light on councils both familiar and forgotten and on major figures including Abbot Ansegis of Saint Wandrille Abbot Wala of Corbie the Pseudo

Isidorian forgers Pope Alexander III Bernard of Pavia and Robert de Courson Finally On Hospitals offers a new picture of welfare at the heart of Christianity The place of welfare houses at the edge of law has for too long encouraged an assumption that welfare itself was peripheral to popes and canonists and so by implication to those who designed the priorities of the Church This study reveals the central place for them all across a thousand years of Christian caritas We discover a Christian foundation that could belong not to the Church but to the whole society of the faithful

Invisible Weapons M. Cecilia Gaposchkin, 2017-01-17 Throughout the history of the Crusades liturgical prayer masses and alms were all marshaled in the fight against Muslim armies In Invisible Weapons M Cecilia Gaposchkin focuses on the ways in which Latin Christians communicated their ideas and aspirations for crusade to God through liturgy how public worship was deployed and how prayers and masses absorbed the ideals and priorities of crusading Placing religious texts and practices within the larger narrative of crusading Gaposchkin offers a new understanding of a crucial facet in the culture of holy war Open Access edition funded by the National Endowment for the Humanities

The Oxford Handbook of Hellenic Studies George Boys-Stones, Barbara Graziosi, Phiroze Vasunia, 2009-08-20 The Oxford Handbook of Hellenic Studies is a unique collection of some seventy articles which together explore the ways in which ancient Greece has been is and might be studied It is intended to inform its readers but also importantly to inspire them and to enable them to pursue their own research by introducing the primary resources and exploring the latest agenda for their study The emphasis is on the breadth and potential of Hellenic Studies as a flourishing and exciting intellectual arena and also upon its relevance to the way we think about ourselves today

Las islas Baleares durante la Antigüedad Tardía (siglos III-X) Miguel Ángel Cau Ontiveros, 2024-05-16 This volume brings together different contributions on the history and archaeology of the Balearic Islands during Late Antiquity Together these contributions provide an overview of the period between the 3rd and 10th centuries AD traditionally considered to be one of the least known periods in the history of the islands

A Political History of the Editions of Marx and Engels's "German ideology Manuscripts" Terrell Carver, Daniel Blank, 2014-12-17 Since the 1920s scholars have promoted a set of manuscripts long abandoned by Marx and Engels to canonical status in book form as The German Ideology and in particular its first chapter known as I Feuerbach Part one of this revolutionary study relates in detail the political history through which these manuscripts were editorially fabricated into editions and translations so that they could represent an important exposition of Marx's theory of history Part two presents a wholly original view of the so called Feuerbach manuscripts in a page by page English language rendition of these discontinuous fragments By including the hitherto devalued corrections that each author made in draft the new text invites the reader into a unique laboratory for their collaborative work An Analytical Introduction shows how Marx's and Engels's thinking developed in dialogue as they altered individual words and phrases on these left over polemical pages

The Character of David in Judaism, Christianity and Islam, 2021-11-29 King David is one of the most central figures in all of the major monotheistic traditions He generally

connotes the heroic past of the more imagined than real ancient Israelite empire and is associated with messianic hopes for the future Nevertheless his richly ambivalent and fascinating literary portrayal in the Hebrew Bible is one of the most complex of all biblical characters This volume aims at taking a new critical look at the process of biblical creation and subsequent exegetical transformation of the character of David and his attributed literary composition the Psalms with particular emphasis put on the multilateral fertilization and cross cultural interchanges among Jews Christians and Muslims

The Byzantine City from Heraclius to the Fourth Crusade, 610-1204 Luca Zavagno, 2021-10-06 This book explores the Byzantine city and the changes it went through from 610 to 1204 Throughout this period cities were always the centers of political and social life for both secular and religious authorities and furthermore the focus of the economic interests of local landowning elites This book therefore examines the regional and subregional trajectories in the urban function landscape structure and fabric of Byzantium's cities synthesizing the most cutting edge archaeological excavations the results of analyses of material culture including ceramics coins and seals and a reassessment of the documentary and hagiographical sources The transformation the Byzantine urban landscape underwent from the seventh to thirteenth centuries can afford us a better grasp of changes to the Byzantine central and provincial administrative apparatus their fiscal machinery military institutions socio economic structures and religious organization This book will be of interest to students and researchers of the history archaeology and architecture of Byzantium
