Millennium Man:

Russia and Western Man Walter Schubart, 1950      Opus Dei Manuel S. Marin, 2007-09-07 A quasi religious corporation worth mentioning is the Fabretto Foundation based in Nicaragua This Foundation is a true God Enterprise Father Rafael Mara Fabretto was an Italian priest who moved to Nicaragua with the purpose of opening and managing an orphanage It was a catastrophic failure Father Fabrettos experiment almost killed me together with other kids who were rescued at the brink of starvation Ironically it was Anastasio Somoza the father the first member of the Somoza dynasty who saved our lives The continuum works in marvelous ways just picture a hated soft hearted tyrant being impacted by the sight of more than 300 children starving to death I bet his conscience screamed to his inner ears that he was going to be blamed if some of those children were to die Somoza was moved by the continuum to do what is atypical of dictators an act of love The author Manuel S Marin as a child lived for a short time in the Oratorio San Juan Bosco where he met Father Rafael Mara Fabretto who lighted up in him the notion of the continuum for which he didnt have a name until he met Bob Jones at Williams Brothers Construction Co      The Millennial Harbinger ,1862      Man's Rights Annie Denton Cridge, 2011-05-01 An early feminist Utopian work Last night I had a dream which may have a meaning Excerpt Last night I had a dream which may have a meaning I stood on a high hill that overlooked a large city The proud spires of many churches rose high here and there and round about the city were beautiful sloping hills stretching away away into the distance while a broad river wound here and there extending a kindly arm toward the city As I stood there wondering what manner of city it was its name and the character of its inhabitants all at once I found myself in its very midst From house to house I flitted from kitchen to kitchen and lo everywhere the respective duties of man and woman were reversed for in every household I found the men in aprons superintending the affairs of the kitchen Everywhere men and only men were the Bridgets and housekeepers I thought that those gentlemen housekeepers looked very pale and somewhat nervous and when I looked into their spirits for it seemed in my dream that I had the power I saw anxiety and unrest a constant feeling of unpleasant expectancy the result of a long and weary battling with the cares of the household As I looked at those men Bridgets and gentleman housekeepers I said to myself This is very strange Why these men seem unsexed How stoop shouldered they are how weak and complaining their voices I found too that not only was the kitchen exclusively man s but also the nursery in fact all the housework was directed and done by men I felt a sad pity for these men as I flitted from house to house from kitchen to kitchen from nursery to nursery I saw them in the houses of the poor where the man did his own work I saw him in the morning arise early light the fire and begin to prepare the breakfast his face pale and haggard No wonder I thought when I saw how he hurried hurried while in his spirit was a constant fear that the baby would awake Very soon I heard the sharp cry of the baby and away ran the poor father soon returning with baby in his arms carrying it around with him while he raked the fire fried the meat and set the table for breakfast When all was ready down came two or three unwashed unkempt children who must be attended to and when all this was done I observed that the poor gentleman s appetite was gone and pale and nervous he sat down in the rocking chair with the baby in his arms But what greatly astonished me was to see how quietly and composedly the lady of the house drank her coffee and read the morning paper apparently oblivious of the trials of her poor husband and of all he had to endure in connection with his household cares It was wash day and I watched him through that long and weary day First at the wash tub while baby slept then rocking the cradle and washing at the same time then preparing dinner running and hurrying here and there about the house while in his poor disturbed mind revolved the thought of the sewing that ought to be done and only his own hands to do it Evening came and the lady of the house returned to dinner The children came to meet her and as she lifted up one and then another and kissed them I thought Why how beautiful is that woman Then in my dream I seemed to behold every woman of that strange city and ah the marvelous beauty of those women Eye hath not seen neither hath it entered into the heart of man to conceive for a beauty almost angelic was so charmingly combined with intellect and health brooded so divinely over all that at the tout ensemble I was profoundly astonished and intensely delighted Then I turned myself about and was again in the home I had left It was evening the lamp on the table was lighted and there sat the poor husband I have described in his rocking chair darning stockings and mending the children s clothes after the hard day s washing I saw that it had rained that the clothes line had broken

The Gospel in Nature Henry Christopher McCook, 1887      GOD SAW YOU Robert E. Carpenter D.D.S, 2025-08-11 In God Saw You Dr Carpenter takes the reader through a fascinating journey that focuses on the modern sciences of genetics and biochemistry uniting them with the mysteries of the kingdom of God Over 1 400 footnotes are presented on the page referring to them so the reader has immediate access to the truths presented Modern science and the Holy Scriptures conflict with each other On these pages the battle lines are reduced unapologetically from assumptions possibilities hypotheses and theories to raw truths many of which you might find to be inconvenient The author finds an amazing number of scriptures that deal with genetics ranging from simple concepts such as seeds and conception to complex references to DNA and the human genome The book's real pay dirt is when he reveals the beautiful spiritual truths that are metaphorically parallel to these physical sciences This is the true sense of the word apocalypse meaning an unveiling The entire Bible is an apocalypse an unveiling of who God is His kingdom His expectations and all of history past present and future This book does just that lifting the veil off of familiar scriptures and revealing the rich and thrilling images previously hidden in the mysteries of God's Word Get ready to see into the mind of God as He planned and programmed your genome As King David said in Psalm 139 Your eyes saw my substance being yet unformed and in Your book they all were written when as yet there were none of them How precious also are Your thoughts to me O God How great is the sum of them Yes God actually Saw You And when you see that you will never be the same again      We Want to Believe Amy M. Donaldson, 2011-04-14 From the first episode to the latest feature film two main symbols provide the driving force for the iconic television series The X Files Fox Mulder's I Want to Believe poster and Dana Scully's cross necklace Mulder's poster may feature a flying saucer but the phrase I want to believe refers to more than simply the quest for the truth about aliens The search for extraterrestrial life the truth that is out there is a metaphor for the search for God The desire to believe in something greater than ourselves is part of human nature we want to believe Scully's cross represents this desire to believe as well as the internal struggle between faith and what we can see and prove The X Files depicts this struggle by posing questions and exploring possible answers both natural and supernatural Why would God let the innocent suffer Can God forgive even the most heinous criminal What if God is giving us signs to point the way to the truth but we're not paying attention These are some of the questions raised by The X Files In the spirit of the show this book uses the symbols and images presented throughout the series to pose such questions and explore some of the answers particularly in the Christian tradition With a focus on key themes of the series faith hope love and truth along the way this book journeys from the desire to believe to the message of the cross      Lectures in Systematic Theology Henry C.
