Bergmann,2006-01-01 Jean Shepherd 1921 1999 master humorist is best known for his creation A Christmas Story the popular movie about the child who wants a BB gun for Christmas and nearly shoots his eye out What else did Shepherd do He is considered by many to be the Mark Twain and James Thurber of his day For many thousands of fans for decades Shep talked on the radio late at night keeping them up way past their bedtimes He entertained without a script improvising like a jazz musician on any and every subject you can imagine He invented and remains the master of talk radio Shepherd perpetrated one of the great literary hoaxes of all time promoting a nonexistent book and author and then brought the book into existence He wrote 23 short stories for Playboy four times winning their humor of the year award and also interviewed

The Beatles for the magazine He authored several popular books of humor and satire created several television series and acted in several plays He is the model for the character played by Jason Robards in the play and movie A Thousand Clowns as well as the inspiration for the Shel Silverstein song made famous by Johnny Cash A Boy Named Sue Readers will learn the significance of innumerable Shepherd words and phrases such as Excelsior you fathead and observe his constant confrontations with the America he loved They will get to know and understand this multitalented genius by peeking behind the wall he built for himself a wall to hide a different and less agreeable persona Through interviews with his friends co workers and creative associates such as musician David Amram cartoonist and playwright Jules Feiffer publisher and broadcaster Paul Krassner and author Norman Mailer the book explains a complex and unique genius of our time Shepherd pretty much invented talk radio What I got of him was a wonder at the world one man could create I am as awed now by his achievement as I was then Richard Corliss Time magazine online

The Idea Writers Teresa Iezzi, 2010-12-07 This book is a must read for any copywriter and anyone looking to understand the new realities of the brand creativity business A memorable slogan has been the cornerstone of every great ad campaign In the past writing one great headline could launch a career But today s advertising campaigns are interactive multi platform and ongoing and the copywriter s canvas is vast At any given time a copywriter may be conceiving a video game writing a TV show maintaining a Twitter feed creating a mobile app or an interactive installation or yes writing a headline or a TV script While the best copywriters have always been brand storytellers now that story can play out anywhere The digital revolution put control in the hands of the people the audience now no longer just consumers but active participants in a brand's story The art and science of advertising has gone from creating one way messages to engaging audiences in ongoing conversations A new ad landscape means new opportunities for writers who now have the incredible opportunity to push brand narrative to places it's never been before and to actually create something so useful or entertaining that it generates its own audience It also means that many of the rules of the past while exceedingly worthy of study are insufficient to guide the modern copywriter Co published with AdvertisingAge The Idea Writers outlines the changing landscape of the advertising industry while providing useful how to advice Filled with interviews from top creatives including Greg Hahn Nick Law Jeff Benjamin Tim Delaney Rei Inamoto Lee Clow Steve Simpson Rick Condos David Droga Gerry Graf Ty Montague Calle and Pelle Sjonell PJ Pereira David Abbott and many more

Milwaukee's Historic Bowling Alleys Manya Kaczowski, 2010-10-25 From the U S Olympic team to Bowling with the Champs to countless corner bars with a couple of lanes in the basement Milwaukee has lived and breathed this sport In the late 1800s German brewers like Capt Frederick Pabst and the Uihleins offered bowling in their Milwaukee beer gardens When Abe Langtry brought the American Bowling Congress here in 1905 Brew City became bowling central Today owning a bowling alley is a labor of love with good reason Its the place where you rolled that 700 series met your wife and taught your son how to bowl in the junior league Even in this high tech immediate gratification society bowling still thrives in Milwaukee Several old school lanes still have steady business and this book is a tribute to the people the places and the sport that made Milwaukee Americas Bowling Capital Federal Register ,1946-08 Merchant Vessels of the United States ...

(including Yachts). ,1969 Brand Stretch David Taylor, 2006-02-08 Stretching the Brand offers practical and actionable advice on how to extend successful brands into new areas without losing sight of the value of the original brand itself Examples of brand stretching include Dove soap which has now been extended to the shampoo and deodorant markets This book presents a single minded focus on brand stretching that covers topics not found anywhere else such as how to launch brand extensions and support them Stretching the Brand will help companies increase their chances of winning by looking at the lessons learnt from both successes and failure in brand stretching It provides the tools and techniques to stretch a brand successfully Ebony ,1960-09 EBONY is the flagship magazine of Johnson Publishing Founded in 1945 by John H Johnson it still maintains the highest global circulation of any African American focused magazine Loveworks Brian Sheehan, 2013-05-28 In 2004 Kevin Roberts wrote Lovemarks the future beyond brands It was admired by many as a breakthrough in marketing thinking but was also controversial because of its surprisingly obvious thesis that emotional connections are at the heart of sustained relationships between producers retailers and consumers While many companies were using the language of war in their marketing target penetrate ambush Roberts was using the language of love mystery sensuality intimacy He explained in simple terms what people are often loath to admit we make decisions with our emotions over our reason Lovemarks described the journey by which brands could move from consumer respect based on intellect to consumer love based on emotion and in return gain loyalty beyond reason In 2010 Advertising Age magazine named Lovemarks one of their ideas of the decade while noting that the roadmap for brands to achieve Lovemark status was still not entirely clear Loveworks How the world's top marketers make emotional connections to win in the marketplace adds to the original Lovemarks by showcasing real world business examples and outlining the roadmaps followed by several world renowned brands to achieve Lovemark status Procter Gamble Toyota Visa General Mills Miller T Mobile and Lenovo are just a few examples of businesses winning in the marketplace through the application of the Lovemarks theory maintaining laser like focus on making and sustaining emotional connections with consumers Loveworks features 20 case stories from clients and markets worldwide in widely varying categories My book shows that Lovemarks thinking works anywhere anytime All it takes is having the brains to implement it the guts to see it through and an abiding faith in emotion as your compass says Brian Sheehan
