Jackson,2019-10-29 A definitive study of one of the most important practices in Tibetan Buddhism with translations of a number of its key texts Mahamudra the great seal refers to the ultimate nature of mind and reality to a meditative practice for realizing that ultimate reality and to the final fruition of buddhahood It is especially prominent in the Kagy tradition of

Tibetan Buddhism so it sometimes comes as a surprise that mahamudra has played an important role in the Geluk school where it is part of a special transmission received in a vision by the tradition's founder Tsongkhapa. Mahamudra is a significant component of Geluk ritual and meditative life widely studied and taught by contemporary masters such as the Dalai Lama. Roger Jackson's Mind Seeing Mind offers us both a definitive scholarly study of the history, texts and doctrines of Geluk mahamudra and masterful translations of its seminal texts. It provides a skillful survey of the Indian sources of the teaching, illuminates the place of mahamudra among Tibetan Buddhist schools and details the history and major textual sources of Geluk mahamudra. Jackson also addresses critical questions such as the relation between Geluk and Kagy mahamudra and places mahamudra in the context of contemporary religious studies. The translation portion of Mind Seeing Mind includes ten texts on mahamudra history, ritual and practice. Among these are the First Panchen Lama's root verses and autocommentary on mahamudra meditation, his ritual masterpiece Offering to the Guru and a selection of his songs of spiritual experience. Mind Seeing Mind adds considerably to our understanding of Tibetan Buddhist spirituality and shows how mahamudra came to be woven throughout the fabric of the Geluk tradition. Dimensions of Mind Tarthang Tulku, 2016. Drawing on his many years of interacting with Westerners, Tarthang Tulku engages a wide range of important and helpful topics related to meditation and the spiritual path, from joy as the foundation of the path to the nonduality of subject and object. There are 20 exercises from Panoramic Seeing to Building Positive Energy to Thoughts without Ownership. The text is accessible yet able to challenge and clarify important points of meditative and spiritual practice for longer term practitioners.

Mind in Tibetan Buddhism Lati Rinbochay, 1986. Details the nature of mind and its functions. The Relaxed Mind Dza Kilung Rinpoche, 2015-11-10. An esteemed modern Tibetan Buddhist teacher presents a system of meditation instructions designed for achieving relaxation in our stressful, fast-paced world. In the late 1990s, shortly after arriving in the United States, it became clear to Dza Kilung Rinpoche that his Western students responded to traditional meditation instructions differently from his students back in Asia. The Westerners didn't know how to relax and their pressured, fast-paced lifestyles carried over into meditation. With this in mind, Dza Kilung Rinpoche set out to create a meditation system that could break through the noise of Western life. The Relaxed Mind contains instructions for the seven-phase practice that he developed for students in the West. It is adapted from traditional instructions to counteract the overwhelming distraction that is becoming a global culture these days. Not only in the West, beginners will find a wealth of useful, easy-to-understand information, while more experienced meditators may be surprised to find their practice deepening through letting go of tension. Train your Mind Viryabodhi Dhirananda, 2025-05-06. Tibetan Buddhism's Mind Training uses 59 slogans to develop wisdom and compassion. Dhirananda and Viryabodhi provide commentaries and exercises to bring these teachings to life. The book inspires and challenges us to overcome limitations, shift from self-centered views to a more compassionate, liberated perspective, prioritizing others' welfare. Luminous Mind Kalu, 2012-08-19. Luminous Mind is a remarkable compilation of the oral and written teachings of the late Kalu Rinpoche who was called a beacon of inspiration by the Dalai Lama A master of meditation and leader of the Shangpu Kagyu school of Tibetan Buddhism Kalu Rinpoche taught with an inviting playful and lucid style that was just one natural manifestation of his own profound realization The teachings presented in Luminous Mind are immediate and timeless As the Dalai Lama notes in his foreword Luminous Mind covers the full range of Buddhist practice from the basic analysis of the nature of the mind up to its ultimate refinement in the teachings of Mahamudra This anthology of Kalu Rinpoche s writings and oral teachings resonates with his wisdom and compassion Comparing Kyabje Kalu Rinpoche with Milarepa the greatest mediation master Tibet has ever known His Holiness the Dalai Lama extols the author of Luminous Mind as a beacon of inspiration for spiritual practitioners of all traditions Noting that there have been few like him before or since His Holiness urges us to delve into this remarkable anthology of the late Kalu Rinpoche s essential instructions so that we may encounter the full range of Buddhist practice from the basic analysis of the nature of the mind up to its ultimate refinement in the teachings of Mahamudra Drawn from both his lucid writings and his eloquent oral presentations this unprecedented book lays bare the full grandeur of Kalu Rinpoche s legacy At the same time the gentle words and playful stories of this master of meditation are filled with a depth of clarity and warmth that could only arise from a profound realization of both wisdom and compassion
