Mindanao On The Mend:

Asian Islam in the 21st Century John L. Esposito, John Voll, Osman Bakar, 2008 Asian Islam in the 21st century is divided into two sections religion politics and society in major Muslim majority countries and ethnic and religious politics in Muslim minority communities Muslims in Asia are affected by what is happening in the Arab Middle East and the Western part of the Islamic world From Terrorism to Politics Anisette Van Engeland, Rachael M. Rudolph, 2016-04-22 How do terrorists become politicians This book embraces a series of comparative case studies in order to examine important issues regarding the relationship between terrorism and political processes It identifies the characteristics necessary for the transition from a terrorist organization to a political party and situates this within broader debates about substantive ethical concerns motivating the distinction between legitimate politics and illegitimate violence The volume offers a presentation of how some terrorist groups see the world in which they live It also provides an understanding of how established democracies such as the US react to the phenomenon of the terrorist politician transition This is a useful resource for students and scholars of international relations political ethics and comparative politics Mindanao on the Mend Eliseo R. Mercado, Margarita Moran- Floirendo, 2003 Zones of Peace Landon E. Hancock, Christopher Roger Mitchell, 2007 Looks at the ways people have used sanctuary throughout history and in present day conflicts to avoid or challenge violence Authors with practical experience in peace zones throughout Asia Europe Africa and Latin America The notion of having sanctuary from violence or threat has probably existed as long as conflict itself Whether people seek safety in a designated location such as a church or hospital or over a regional border or whether their professions or life situations doctors children allow them at least in theory to avoid injury in war sanctuary has served as a powerful symbol of non violence The authors of this collection examine sanctuary as it relates to historical and modern conflicts from the Philippines to Colombia and Sudan They chart the formation and evolution of these varied zones of peace and attempt to arrive at a theory of sanctuary that might allow for new and useful peacebuilding strategies This book makes a significant contribution to the field of conflict resolution using case studies to highlight efforts made by local people to achieve safety and democracy amid and following violent civil wars The authors ground the emerging interest in sanctuary by providing a much needed description of the complexity of these peace zones Other Contributors Kevin Avruch Pushpa Iyer Roberto Jose Jennifer s presidency marks the end of liberal international order the very system of global institutions rules and values that shaped the international system since the end of World War II Exit from Hegemony Alexander Cooley and Daniel Nexon develop a new approach to understanding the rise and decline of hegemonic orders They identify three ways in which the liberal international order is transforming The Trump administration declaring America First accelerates all three processes lessening America s position as a world power      The English Circumnavigators David Laing Purves,1874      War and Resistance in the Philippines, 1942-1944 James K Morningstar,2021-04-15 War and Resistance in the Philippines 1942 1944 repairs the fragmentary and incomplete history of events in the Philippine Islands between the surrender of Allied forces in May 1942 and MacArthur s return in October 1944 No book has comprehensively examined the Filipino resistance during this crucial period Here James Kelly Morningstar provides for the first time a comprehensive history of the protracted fighting by 260 000 guerrillas in 277 units across the archipelago Beginning with the Japanese occupation the collapse of the United States Forces Far East USAFFE and the simultaneous rise of the complex diverse Philippine guerrilla movements Morningstar exposes the inadequacy of MacArthur s conventional plans while revealing his inchoate preparation for guerrilla resistance Morningstar then recounts in detail the impromptu resistance led by refugee American and Filipino soldiers local politicians and social revolutionaries left to battle the Japanese and each other with emphasis on how Japanese American and Filipino actions influenced and proscribed each other From a distance MacArthur contacted select guerrillas and organized agents to deliver supplies and radios to them by submarine In this way he empowered some to gain power as part of a united framework under his leadership This not only kept alive the resistance that denied the Japanese exploitation of the Philippines while setting the conditions for MacArthur s return it also ensured that no one guerrilla leader could challenge America s supremacy MacArthur s selective support to guerrilla groups that encouraged continued Filipino dependence on the United States would prove fatal for the incipient Maoist social revolution on Luzon Even so the Filipinos shared sacrifice in their act of resistance fueled a national consciousness that created a sense of deserved nationhood War and Resistance in the Philippines 1942 1944 concludes with a brief discussion of legacies of the guerrilla resistance MacArthur s return reestablished the power of American and Filipino political elites Guerrillas and other citizens who had experienced exceptional hardship now had to fight for recognition However the war had resulted in a more united Philippine national identity along with new political institutions to repair the divisions between the formerly exiled government the collaborationists and the members of resistance These momentous years of struggle in the Philippines changed the tide of history and challenge our understanding of war and resistance      Spurring Growth at the Grass Roots Center for Research and Communication,1989      Flashpoints in the War on Terrorism Derek S. Asia and sub Saharan Africa With cogent assessments of civil conflicts that threaten to be part of a global jihad each chapter both dissects the historical roots and socio economic causes that catalyze terrorism in those areas as well as posits ways for the United States to meet the myriad of foreign policy challenges posed by the growing threat of contemporary international terrorism

The Politics of Religion in South and Southeast Asia Ishtiaq Ahmed, 2011-05-04 The notion of a politics of religion refers to the increasing role that religion plays in the politics of the contemporary world This book presents comparative country case studies on the politics of religion in South and South Asia including India Pakistan and Indonesia The politics of religion calls into question the relevance of modernist notions of secularism and democracy with the emphasis instead on going back to indigenous roots in search of authentic ideologies and models of state and nation building Within the context of the individual countries chapters focus on the consequences that politics of religion has on inclusive nation building democracy and the rights of individuals minorities and women The book makes a contribution to both the theoretical and conceptual literature on the politics of religion as well as shed light on the implications and ramifications of the politics of religion on contemporary South Asian and South East Asian countries It is of interest to students and scholars of South and South East Asian Studies as well as Comparative Politics

Islamic Identity, Postcoloniality, and Educational Policy J. Milligan, 2005-07-31 Tensions between Muslim communities and state institutions are endemic in many parts of the world For decades successive colonial and independent governments in the Philippines have deployed educational policy as a tool to mitigate one such conflict between Muslims and Christians a conflict which has claimed more than 100 000 lives since the 1970 s Postcolonial Education and Islamic Identity in the Southern Philippines offers a postcolonial critique of this century long educational project in an effort to understand how educational policy has failed Muslim Filipinos and to seek insight from their experience into the potential and pitfalls of educational responses to ethnic and religious tensions
