Minerva's Message Martin S. Staum, 1996-10-17 In theory the CMPS was set up to enshrine the human and social studies that were at the heart of Enlightenment culture Staum illustrates however that the Institute helped transform key ideas of the Enlightenment in order to maintain civil rights while upholding social stability and that the social and political assumptions on which it was based affected notions of social science He traces the careers of individual members and the factions within the Institute arguing that the discord within the CMPS reflects the unravelling of Enlightenment culture Minerva's Message presents a valuable overview of the intellectual life of the period and brings together new evidence about the social sciences in their nascent period

Rhet Ops Jim Ridolfo, William Hart-Davidson, 2019-10-03 In this edited volume authors seek to document and analyze how state and non state actors leverage digital rhetoric as a twenty first century weapon of war Rhet Ops offer readers a chance to focus on the human dimension of rhetorical practice within mobile technologies and social networks to reflect not only on the durable question of what it means to conduct oneself ethically as a speaker or writer but also what it means to learn the art of rhetoric as a means to engage adversaries in war and conflict

Minerva's Aviary John G. Slater,2005-01-01 In Minerva s Aviary John G Slater documents the history of Toronto s Philosophy Department from its founding to contemporary times

The New Global Universities Bryan Penprase,Noah Pickus,2023-12-05 Reimagining higher education around the world lessons from the creation of eight new colleges and universities in Africa Asia the Middle East and North America Higher education is perpetually in crisis buffeted by increasing costs and a perceived lack of return on investment campus culture that is criticized for stifling debate on controversial topics and a growing sense that the liberal arts are outmoded and irrelevant Some observers even put higher education on the brink of death The New Global Universities offers a counterargument telling the story of educational leaders who have chosen not to give up on higher education but to reimagine it The book chronicles the development and launch of eight innovative colleges and universities in Africa Asia the Middle East and North America describing the combination of intellectual courage entrepreneurial audacity and adaptive leadership needed to invent educational institutions today The authors both academic leaders who have been involved in launching ventures similar to the ones described offer a unique inside perspective on these efforts Bryan Penprase and Noah Pickus show how the founders of new colleges and universities establish distinctive brands in a sector dominated by centuries old institutions secure creative sources of funding attract stellar faculty and students and design appealing curriculums and campuses all while managing tradeoffs and setbacks balancing local needs and global aspirations and wrestling with challenges to academic freedom These new educational institutions include two universities in Asia and the Middle East built by well established American parent institutions others in Africa and North America that offer holistic reform from the ground up and leverage new technologies to lower costs and still others that adapted the American liberal arts model to Asian and African contexts Their experiences offer lessons for future founders of new universities and for those who want to renew and rejuvenate existing ones

Online Education Policy and Practice Anthony G. Picciano,2016-09-13 Online Education Policy and Practice examines the past present and future of networked learning environments and the changing role of faculty within them As digital technologies in higher education increasingly enable blended classrooms collaborative assignments and wider student access an understanding of the creation and ongoing developments of these platforms is needed more than ever By investigating the history of online education the rise and critique of MOOCs the mainstreaming of social media mobile devices gaming in instruction and more this expansive book outlines a variety of potential scenarios likely to become realities in higher education over the next decade

Democratic Struggle, Institutional Reform, and State Resilience in the African Sahel Leonardo A. Villalón,Rahmane Idrissa,2020-02-06 Long on the periphery of both academic research and international attention the countries of the West African Sahel currently find themselves at the center of global concerns over security terrorism migration and conflict Since the early 1990s the Sahelian states have also been engaged in political struggles over the construction of democratic institutions Edited by Leonardo A Villalón and Abdourahmane Idrissa Democratic Struggle Institutional Reform and State Resilience in the African Sahel addresses a key and little studied question How have the politics of democratization across the Francophone Sahel shaped processes of state building and with what effects on the resilience of state institutions Starting from the premise that variation in the politics of institution building and institutional reform although most frequently justified and debated in terms of democratization have differing impact on the construction of resilient states this book examines these processes in six francophone states of the Sahel Senegal Mauritania Mali Burkina Faso Niger and Chad The contributors represent a set of distinguished scholars from across the region many of whom have also been important actors in the struggles they analyze Higher Education and Employability Peter J. Stokes, 2017-11-14 2016 Phillip E Frandson Award for Literature in the Field of Professional Continuing and or Online Education University Professional and Continuing Education Association UPCEA Higher Education and Employability makes a crucial contribution to the current reassessment of higher education in the United States by focusing on how colleges and universities can collaborate with businesses in order to serve the educational and professional interests of their students Drawing on his extensive experience with universities and the business world Peter J Stokes argues that the need for closer alignment between the two sectors has never been more critical and that the opportunities for partnership have never been greater This book includes a series of trenchant case studies of particular universities that have developed ambitious collaborative programs New York University Northeastern University and the Georgia Institute of Technology Incisive and practical this book surveys the full range of current partnerships between businesses and higher education and points to opportunities that will best serve students now and in the future The Complete Book of Colleges, 2012 Edition Princeton Review (Firm), 2011-08-15 Presents a comprehensive guide to 1 571 colleges and universities and includes information on academic programs admissions requirements tuition costs housing financial aid campus life organizations athletic programs and student services Minerva's Voyage Lynne Kositsky, 2009-11-16 Robin Starveling aka Noah Vaile is scooped off the streets of seventeenth century Bristol England and dragged onboard a ship bound for Virginia by the murderous William Thatcher who needs a servant with no past and no future to aid him in a nefarious plot to steal gold Starveling fits the bill perfectly since he lives nowhere and has no parents Aboard the ship Starveling makes friends with a young cabin boy Peter Fence Together the two boys suffer through a frightening hurricane and are shipwrecked on the mysterious Isle of Devils They solve the ciphers embedded in emblems found in Thatcher's sea chest which has washed up with the wreck then make their way through gloomy forests and tortuous labyrinths to a cave on the shore that houses a wizard like old man Beset by danger and villainy on every side they finally discover the old man's identity and unearth a treasure that is much rarer and finer than gold      The Trillion Dollar Silencer Joan Roelofs, 2022-11-01 The Trillion Dollar Silencer investigates the astounding lack of popular protest at the death and destruction that the military industrial complex is inflicting on people nations and the environment and its budget draining costs Where is the antiwar protest by progressives libertarians environmentalists civil rights advocates academics clergy community volunteers artists et al This book will focus on how military largesse infests such public sectors interests Contractors and bases serve as the economic hubs of their regions State and local governments are intertwined with the DoD some states have Military Departments National Guard annual subsidies are large Joint projects include aid to state environmental departments for restoration and government environmental organization teams to create buffer zones for bombing ranges Economic development commissions aim to attract military industries and keep the existing bases and corporations Veterans Administration hospitals are boons to their communities Universities colleges and faculty get contracts and grants from the DoD and its agencies such as the Defense Advanced Research Projects Agency The Minerva Initiative Reserve Officers Training Corps programs are subsidized by the DoD Civilian jobs in the DoD provide opportunities for scientists engineers policy analysts and others Every kind of business and nonprofit including environmental and charitable organizations like The Nature Conservancy and Goodwill Industries feeds at the DoD trough via contracts and grants Individuals arts institutions charities churches and universities succumb to the profitability of military related investments Pension funds of public and private employees are replete with military stocks Philanthropy is another silencer The DoD itself donates equipment to organizations especially those of youth and lends equipped battalions to Hollywood The weapons firms give generously to the arts and charities heavily to youth and minorities They also initiate joint programs such as providing tutors and mentors for robotics teams in public schools Our militarized economy is destructive and wasteful How can we replace the multitude of dependencies on military funding and restore the boundary between it and civil society Surely a first step is to see how military spending results in the complicity of civil society in its pernicious outcomes That is what this book tries to reveal      Wide-Range Partnership Possibilities Between The EU and Turkey Mesut Savrul, Nilgün Serim, 2018-08-25
