Minerva Stone:

Sayre Family Ralph Hall Sayre, 2003-07-09 Thomas Sayre came with his family from England to Lynn Massachusetts in the early 1630s. Among descendants of Thomas were clergymen, surgeons, attorneys, ambassadors, and representatives of almost every profession. Francis B. Sayre, a cowboy professor of law and ambassador, was son-in-law of former President Woodrow Wilson. Zelda was the wife of American novelist F. Scott Fitzgerald and subject of one of his books. David A. Sayre was a silversmith, banker, and founder of Lexington's Sayre School. Many Sayre descendants were taken by wars in service to America and never had the chance to win recognition for their inherent abilities. SAYRE FAMILY another 100 years in a large part focuses on the early pioneers who came to or passed through the Ohio Valley of West Virginia and Ohio. At least three direct descendants of Thomas had made settlements in the area by the Nineteenth Century. One David Sayre came from New Jersey about 1778 and left many descendants who still lived in that area at the beginning of the Twenty-first Century. The bulk of this genealogy covers those while other Sayre families whose ancestral links were not discovered are also included. The three generations of ancestors above each family block makes tracing easier. An A-Z of Type Designers Neil Macmillan, 2006 This illustrated A-Z features outstanding type designers from around the world from Gutenberg to the present day. Arranged alphabetically by designer's name, the book contains over 260 biographical profiles. Entries are illustrated by key typefaces taken from a wide range of sources including type specimens, original posters, private press editions, and magazine covers, and also give a list of work and, where applicable, further reading references and a website address. An essential reference for typographers, graphic designers, and students, the book also features a full index and eight short texts by leading typographers: Jonathan Barnbrook, Erik van Blokland, Clive Bruton, John Downer, John Hudson, Jean-François Porchez, Erik Spiekermann, and Jeremy Tankard, that cover a variety of different aspects of type design, including typeface revivals, font piracy, designing fonts for corporate identities, and the role of nationality in type design. History and Genealogies of the Families of Miller, Woods, Harris, Wallace, Maupin, Oldham, Kavanaugh, and Brown (illustrated) William Harris Miller, 1906 Robert Miller was probably born in Ireland in the early 1700s and immigrated to Virginia. In about 1731 he married Ann Lynn. They probably settled in Goochland, Orange, or Albemarle County, where they reared their family. He died after 1750. Descendants and relatives lived in Massachusetts, Kentucky, Indiana, North Carolina, Virginia, Montana, Oregon, Arkansas, Tennessee, Texas, and elsewhere. Decisions of the Department of the Interior in Appealed Pension and Bounty-Land Claims United States. Jacob Grigg was a young Cornishman who inspired by his contemporary William Carey was the first English missionary to volunteer for Africa. His career was a chequered one. Expelled by the Governor of Sierra Leone, he emigrated to the newly free United States of America. There he became renowned for his ability as a preacher, evangelist, and
