Ming Gong Ci:

The Empress and the Heavenly Masters Luk Yuping, 2016-02-16 Over twentyseven meters long the Ordination Scroll of Empress Zhang 1493 is an important Ming Dynasty Daoist artifact from the San Diego Museum of Art's collection that records the imperial ordination of Empress Zhang 1470 1541 consort of the Ming Dynasty Hongzhi emperor r 1488 1505 by Zhang Xuanqing d 1509 the fortyseventh Heavenly Master of the Zhengyi institution This book uncovers the history of imperial ordinations through a detailed examination of the scroll's transcriptions and the meticulously painted images of celestial beings as well as the influences of the Daoist leaders known as the Zhengyi Heavenly Masters Thriving in Crisis Dewei Zhang, 2020-05-19 Late imperial Chinese Buddhism was long dismissed as having declined from the glories of Buddhism during the Sui and Tang dynasties 581 907 In recent scholarship a more nuanced picture of late Ming era Buddhist renewal has emerged Yet this alternate conception of the history of Buddhism in China has tended to focus on either doctrinal contributions of individual masters or the roles of local elites in Jiangnan leaving unsolved broader questions regarding the dynamics and mechanism behind the evolution of Buddhism into the renewal Thriving in Crisis is a systematic study of the late Ming Buddhist renewal with a focus on the religious and political factors that enabled it to happen Dewei Zhang explores the history of the boom in enthusiasm for Buddhism in the Jiajing Wanli era 1522 1620 tracing a pattern of advances and retrenchment at different social levels in varied regions He reveals that the Buddhist renewal was a dynamic movement that engaged a wide swath of elites from emperors and empress dowagers to eunuchs and scholar officials Drawing on a range of evidence and approaches Zhang contends that the late Ming renewal was a politically driven exception to a longer term current of disfavor toward Buddhism and that it failed to establish Buddhism on a foundation solid enough for its future development A groundbreaking interdisciplinary study Thriving in Crisis provides a new theoretical framework for understanding the patterns of Buddhist history in China 陈朝天 chao tianle, 2025-01-20 Recalling the chaos in the Chinese music scene in later generations Shen Lang decided to rectify the Chinese music scene A Dialogue Between Law and History Baosheng Zhang, Thomas Yunlong Man, Jing Lin, 2020-12-14 This book builds on the success of the First International Conference on Facts and Evidence A Dialogue between Law and Philosophy Shanghai China May 2016 which was co hosted by the Collaborative Innovation Center of Judicial Civilization CICJC and East China Normal University The Second International Conference on Facts and Evidence A Dialogue between Law and History was jointly organized by the CICJC the Institute of Evidence Law and Forensic Science ELFS at China University of Political Science and Law CUPL and Peking University School of Transnational Law STL in Shenzhen China on November 16 17 2019 Historians legal scholars and legal practitioners share the same interest in ascertaining the truth in their respective professional endeavors It is generally recognized that any historical study without truthful narration of historical events is fiction and that any judicial trial without accurate fact finding is a miscarriage of justice In both historical research and the judicial process practitioners are invariably called upon before making any arguments to prove the underlying facts using evidence regardless of how the concept is defined or employed in different academic or practical contexts Thus historians and legal professionals have respectively developed theories and methodological tools to inform and explain the process of gathering evidentiary proof When lawyers and judges reconsider the facts of cases questions of law are actually a subset of questions of fact and thus the legal interpretation process also involves questions of historical fact The book brings together more than twenty leading history and legal scholars from around the world to explore a range of issues concerning the role of facts as evidence in both disciplines As such the book is of enduring value to historians legal scholars and everyone interested in truth seeking
