

The background of the slide is a photograph of a desk. On the left, a portion of a wooden desk lamp is visible. In the center and right, there are several sheets of paper or documents, some of which appear to be old or have a yellowish tint. The overall lighting is soft and focused on the papers.

Burrows,1960 Journey Through Despair, 1880-1914 John Ashby Lester Jr.,2015-12-08 English literary culture from the death of Thomas Carlyle to the First World War was paradoxical and diverse In literature it was a time of confusion and a nervous often frenzied search for new terms on which the imagination could live Professor Lester shows that the literary culture of the period moved steadily from a suspicion that the old bases of significant imaginative life were indefensible to a widespread conviction that they had collapsed His book is not an exercise in literary criticism Rather it is an attempt to discover the Geist of an age to provide a synthesis for the years 1880 1914 His overriding concern is What is the primary force which so unsettles disperses and disorients the imaginative experience of this period Originally published in 1968 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905

Bibliography of European Economic and Social History Derek Howard Aldcroft, Richard Rodger, 1993 This bibliographical guide contains 10 000 references to the economic and social history of 30 European countries during the period 1700 1939 More than 3000 periodicals have been consulted to obtain references as well as books edited collections and conference proceedings The information is listed in categories such as industry agriculture finance migration labour conditions urban communities and organizations Full publication details are included so that references may be located easily The Modern Schism Martin E. Marty, 2012-09-01 The reality of the secular has come to obsess modern religious thinkers notes Martin E Marty This volume analyzes from the first time the complex story of THE MODERN SCHISM an episode in the cultural and spiritual history of the West which has had fateful consequences for contemporary society Dr Marty argues that during the previous century there occurred a cluster of events more devastating to and potentially more hopeful for Christianity than anything that happened during such similar periods as the Renaissance and the Enlightenment He traces three different types of secularization which together make up the modern schism shows how they have developed in the West and where they are leading man today By contrasting the ways in which the old Christian order was attacked in Europe ignored in England and transformed in America the author points to present alternatives to that order and what they mean for society

Spiritualism and the Foundations of C. G. Jung's Psychology F. X. Charet, 2015-04-17 Charet uncovers some of the reasons why Jung's psychology finds itself living between science and religion He demonstrates that Jung's early life was influenced by the experiences beliefs and ideas that characterized Spiritualism and that arose out of the entangled relationship that existed between science and religion in the late nineteenth century Spiritualism following its inception in 1848 became a movement that claimed to be a scientific religion and whose controlling belief was that the human personality survived death and could be reached through a medium in trance The author shows that Jung's early experiences and preoccupation with Spiritualism influenced his later ideas of the autonomy personification and quasi metaphysical nature of the archetype the central concept and one of the foundations upon which he built his psychology Europe in the Nineteenth Century Harry Hearder, 2014-01-21 The period between 1830 and 1880 was one of immense activity radical political change and striking economic and social growth in Europe The major themes of the struggles between individuals parties and classes within the state and between the states themselves are explored within the context of a study of the administration organisation and growth of European society The whole book has been fully revised and updated particularly the section on German history Professor Hearder has also given greater consideration to many important issues such as popular movements of protest and insurrection life styles and the role of women Responding to Modern Genocide Mark D. Kielsgard, 2015-07-30 Developments in the understanding and treatment of genocide through the twentieth century have involved a combination of politics public opinion social trends and economic development and led to the substantive law of genocide and the assumption of international jurisdiction This book analyzes incidences of genocide and mass atrocities focusing on the political factors involved in modern counter genocide efforts Drawing on incidences of genocide and mass atrocity such as the Holocaust the Rwandan genocide and the Armenian genocide Mark Kielsingard adopts a conceptual model that reveals the political factors which impact the international law of genocide such as barriers and catalysts to transitional justice and the politics of genocide denial As a work which provides a focused picture of those influences and their significance to genocide studies this book will be of great use and interest to students and researchers in international criminal law conflict studies and conflict resolution

The Lengthening War Michael Goode, 2016-08-31 The First World War was an event so important so catalytic so transformative that it still hangs in the public memory and still compels the Historians pen It was a conflict which by the end of the struggle had created a world unfamiliar to the one in existence before it and brought levels of destruction and loss all too unimaginable to the generation of minds which created it Despite this we still find it hard to picture what it was like to live through this war Right from its start Mabel Goode realised that the First World War would be the biggest event to take place in her lifetime Knowing this she took to recording it taking us day by day through what living in wartime Britain was like The diary shows us how the war came to the Home Front from enrolment rationing the collapse of domestic service and growth of war work to Zeppelin attacks over Yorkshire and the ever mounting casualty lists Above all else Mabels diary captures a growing disillusionment with a lengthening war as the costs and the sacrifices mount Starting with great excitement and expecting a short struggle the entries gradually give way to a more critical tone and eventually to total disengagement The blank pages marked for 1917 and 1918 are almost as informative as the fearful excitement captured at the onset of that tremendous conflict This is a strong narrative of the war easy to read mixing news with personal feelings and events often revealing gap between official news and reality Also included are several poems written by Mabel and a love story in the appendix giving a complete insight into the life of the diarist Of note is the fact that Mabel and her brothers the main serving protagonists in the diary lived in Germany for some time meaning they could all speak German and knew the enemy nation as many Britons did not
