Antología personal Juan Rulfo, 1988 Las voces de los seres que habitan como apariciones la obra de Juan Rulfo son voces que sin saberlo conocimos desde siempre. Son los murmullos, son las imprecaciones, el dolor, las esperanzas, las preguntas del México profundo. Así nos han dado esta tierra. Y en este comal acalorado quieren que sembremos semillas de algo para ver si algo retoña y se levanta. Pero nada se levanta de aquí. Ni zopilotes. Uno los ve allá, cada y cuando muy arriba volando a la carrera tratando de salir lo más pronto posible de este blanco terrenal endurecido donde nada se mueve y por donde uno camina reculando. Melitón dice: Esta es la tierra que nos han dado. La prosa más parca y más desolada de la literatura mexicana es también la más hermosa, la más poética. Cada lector recuerda pasajes y personajes inolvidables de la obra rulfiana, pero lo que encontrar en este volumen es la selección que hizo Juan Rulfo de las páginas que a él mismo más de su

Art of the Landscape Raffaele Milani,2009-04-01 Aesthetics deals with art a human construction but what one experiences when placed before nature is also an aesthetic feeling the countryside is a place of reflection like no other In The Art of the Landscape Raffaele Milani interprets natural landscapes as an aesthetic category Drawing from philosophical traditions literature and art he calls the reader s attention to a special consciousness originally established during the pre Romantic age that has become a distinctive feature of contemporary spirituality Focusing on the definition of landscapes in relation to the concepts of nature environment territory and man made settings such as gardens and cities Milani examines the origins of the predilection for natural scenery in the works of landscape painters and in travel literature He addresses the distinctness of the aesthetic experience of landscapes analyses the role of aesthetic categories and explores landscape art as a medium of contemplation What emerges is an original morphology of natural beauty derived from the scrutiny of landscape elements most frequently associated with aesthetic emotion the colour of water and the sky earth and stones fire and volcanic eruptions ruins and the mountains an analysis especially relevant given the increasing fragility of our natural environment The Hospitable Canon Virgil Nemoianu,Robert Royal,1991-06-21 The papers in this book respond to the public debate over literary canons in the United States and elsewhere by placing the political ideological aspects of the conflict inside perspectives derived from comparative literature Canons are seen by most of the contributors as based on democratic and communal intentions or choices inevitable filtered through and colored by historical experiences and social biases An examination of the canonical process over many centuries reveals both the impressive durability of its elements and the amazing flexibility of its outlines The careful individual analyses as well as the thought provoking general contributions in this volume agree that the democracy of play is one of the strongest bonds uniting the human race Canons or canons the contributors argue are based on it and reflect the intimate interdependence of cultural and intellectual matters with the workings of society as a whole Contributors Charles Altieri Lilian R Furst Michael G Cooke Robert Royal Roger Shattuck Rosa E M D Penna Glen M Johnson Yves Chevrel Raymond A Prier Peter Walker Christopher Clausen Virgil Nemoianu

The Oxford Handbook of Jorge Luis Borges Oxford Handbooks,2024 The Oxford Handbook of Jorge Luis Borges contextualizes the Argentine writer Jorge Luis Borges s work for a new generation of twenty first century readers and critics Most known for his creative fictions that tackle literary questions of authorship as well as more philosophical notions such as multiverse theory Borges has captivated scholars from a variety of disciplines since his emergence on the international scene This volume shifts the emphasis to Borges s working life his writing processes his collaborations and networks and the political and cultural background of his production It also evaluates his impact on a variety of other fields ranging from political science and philosophy to media studies and mathematics Inventing the Universe Alister E McGrath,2015-10-08 We just can t stop talking about the big questions around science and faith They haven't gone away as some predicted they might in fact we seem to talk about them more than ever Far from being a spent force religion continues to grow around the world Meanwhile Richard Dawkins and the New Atheists argue that religion is at war with science and that we have to choose between them It's time to consider a different way of looking at these two great cultural forces What if science and faith might enrich each other What if they can together give us a deep and satisfying understanding of life Alister McGrath one of the world's leading authorities on science and religion engages with the big questions that Dawkins and others have raised including origins the burden of proof the meaning of life the existence of God and our place in the universe Informed by the best and latest scholarship Inventing the Universe is a groundbreaking new primer for the complex yet fascinating relationship between science and faith

Jorge Luis Borges: The Last Interview Jorge Luis Borges, 2013-06-25 Believe me the benefits of blindness have been greatly exaggerated If I could see I would never leave the house I'd stay indoors reading the many books that surround me Jorge Luis Borges Days before his death Borges gave an intimate interview to his friend the Argentine journalist Gloria Lopez Lecube That interview is translated for the first time here giving English language readers a new insight into his life loves and thoughts about his work and country at the end of his life Accompanying that interview are a selection of the fascinating interviews he gave throughout his career Highlights include his celebrated conversations with Richard Burgin during Borges's time as a lecturer at Harvard University in which he gives rich new insights into his own works and the literature of others as well as discussing his now oft overlooked political views The pieces combine to give a new and revealing window on one of the most celebrated cultural figures of the past century

Translating Orients Timothy Weiss, Timothy F. Weiss, 2004-01-01 Weiss examines texts that reference Asian North African or Middle Eastern societies and their imaginaries and equally important engage questions of individual and communal identity that issue from transformative encounters

The Big Question Alister McGrath, 2024-03-26 McGrath calls for a full bodied humanism invigorated by both scientific reasoning and religious devotion Profound engagement with life defining issues Booklist Richard Dawkins's groundbreaking book The God Delusion created an explosion of interest in the relation of science and faith This often troubled relationship between science and religion was seemingly damaged by the rise of the New Atheism which insisted that science had essentially disproved not just God but also the value of religion There is increasing skepticism towards its often glib and superficial answers and the big questions about faith God and science haven't gone away in fact we seem to talk about them more than ever Alister McGrath's The Big Question is an accessible engaging account of how science relates to faith exploring how the working methods and assumptions of the natural sciences can be theologically useful McGrath uses stories and analogies as well as personal accounts in order to help readers understand the scientific and theological points he makes and grasp their deeper significance. An extremely accomplished scientist and scholar, McGrath criticizes the evangelism of the New Atheists and paves a logical, well-argued road to the compatibility between science and faith. Some of his main discussion points include: There is much more convergence between science and faith than is usually appreciated; How the three great models of scientific explanation can be adapted to religious belief; Belief in God provides a big picture of reality making sense of science's successes. Another deeply felt entry on two divergent yet ultimately compatible ways of engaging the world and understanding reality. Kirkus Reviews

Formas de leer a Borges Juan Carlos Rodríguez Gómez, 2013-04-03. No cabe duda de que Borges es uno de los grandes mitos de la literatura en castellano y de la literatura universal. Solitario e inesperado, supo unir como pocos la inteligencia y el placer en las líneas de su escritura. Pero a la vez, Borges consideraba a la lectura como un acto más civilizatorio más válido incluso que la propia escritura. Y sin embargo, a cada uno de todos nosotros, lectores prejuiciosos, se puede uno fiar por tanto de su propia lectura o conviene desconfiar de esas trampas que la lectura nos tiende continuamente. Y cómo se enlazan lectura y escritura en la obra de Borges hasta llegar a fascinarnos. Culebra la lógica invisible que impregna sus textos para encumbrarlos o rechazarlos. Y en suma, ¿qué significa leer? Este libro propone una serie de lecturas rigurosas y amenas de la obra de Borges de principio a fin, dejando abiertas todas las puertas para la comprensión de su obra, preguntas para quitar el polvo a cualquier biblioteca borgiana.

Defective Institutions Jacques Lezra, 2024-03-05. Defective Institutions overturns the basis of institutionalism. Faith in classic institutions exposed as clamorously inadequate by the failure of governance under neoliberalism does not result in greater democracy, greater horizontality, or more equitable living. Nor does trust in the standing of decisions in the authority of antecedent cases in the coherence, strength, continuity, or solidity of the institutions that frame and render legitimate these decisions and the rules they buttress. To the contrary, the classically imagined institution and our faith in it lie at the heart of neoliberal unfreedom and racialized violence. Working at the point of contact and conflict between socialist and anarcho-philosophical traditions, Defective Institutions offers an alternative which is also an alternative to the figures of governance associated with the liberal conception of the state: an aberrant republicanism comprised of defective institutions run through with the necessity of their abolition. Lezra's book moves from the primitive scenes of Western political institution: the city, the family, the university, the first person, race, through recent work in the philosophy of translation, decolonial studies, abolitionism, Afropessimism, and its critiques, psychoanalysis, and musicology. To offer an original wedding of abolition and institution, Lezra brings together genealogies of contemporary institutionalism from Durkheim and Hauriou to Searle, post-Marxist accounts of the state, Balibar, Abensour, philosophical and anthropological anarchism, Wolff, Malabou, Graeber, Scott, critical legal theory, analyses of Marbury v. Madison as well as Dobbs v. Jackson, continental and analytic versions and critiques of foundationalism, Heidegger, Lyotard, and Butler, Quine, Searle, and Fine, and political and sociological abolitionism, Lewis, O'Brien. At a time when some call for strengthening institutions and for defending liberties ostensibly protected by such institutions and others long for the destruction of institutions that have long been oppressive Lezra's book offers today's Left a new framework for confronting institutions necessity and their necessary abolition
