South African Nursing Record ... ,1927 Sessional Papers Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons,1906 Precarious childhood in post-independence Ireland Moira Maguire,2013-07-19 This fascinating study reveals the desperate plight of the poor illegitimate and abused children in an Irish society that claimed to cherish and hold them sacred but in fact marginalized and ignored them It examines closely the history of childhood in post independence Ireland and breaks new ground in examining the role of the state in caring for its most vulnerable citizens Maguire gives voice to those children who formed a significant proportion of the Irish population but have been ignored in the historical record More importantly she uses their experiences as lenses through which to re evaluate Catholic influence in post independence Irish society An essential and timely work this book offers a different interpretation of the relationships between the Catholic Church the political establishment and Irish people important for those interested in the history of family and childhood as well as twentieth century Irish social history The Medical Officer, 1912 Public Welfare in Indiana Indiana. Dept. of Public Welfare, 1915 The Cultural Context of Therapeutic Choice C. Sargent, 2012-12-06 This book examines the factors influencing women's choices of obstetrical care in a Bariba community in the People's Republic of Benin West Africa When selecting a research topic I decided to investigate health care among the Bariba for several reasons First I had served as a Peace Corps Volunteer in northern Benin then Dahomey and had established a network of contacts in the region In addition I had worked for a year as assistant manager of a pharmacy in a northern town and had become interested in the pattern of utilization of health care services by urban residents This three year residence proved an invaluable asset in preparing and conducting research in the northern region In particular I was able to establish relationships with several indigenous midwives whose families I already knew both from prior research experience and mutual friendships These relationships enabled me to obtain detailed information regarding obstetrical practice and thus form the foundation of this book The fieldwork upon which the book is directly based was conducted between June 1976 and December 1977 and sponsored by the Ford Rockefeller Population Policy Program the Social Science Research Council the National Science Foundation and the Fulbright Hays Doctoral Dissertation Research Program The Ford Rockefeller Population Policy Program funded the project as a collaboration between myself and Professor Eusebe Alihonou Professor Agregé Gynecologie Obstetrique at the National University of Benin Community Health Nursing Karen Saucier Lundy, Sharyn Janes, 2009 Historically community health nursing has responded to the changing health care needs of the community and continues to meet those needs in a variety of diverse roles and settings Community Health Nursing Caring for the Public's Health Second Edition reflects this response and is representative of what communities signify in the United States a unified society made up of many different populations and unique health perspectives This text provides an emphasis on population based nursing directed toward health promotion and primary prevention in the community It is both community based and community focused reflecting the current dynamics of the health care system The Second Edition contains new chapters on disaster nursing and community collaborations during emergencies The chapters covering Family health ethics mental health and pediatric nursing have all been significantly revised and updated

Women, Identities and Communities in Early Modern Europe Stephanie Tarbin, Susan Broomhall, 2016-12-05 Addressing a key challenge facing feminist scholars today this volume explores the tensions between shared gender identity and the myriad social differences structuring women's lives By examining historical experiences of early modern women the authors of these essays consider the possibilities for commonalities and the forces dividing women They analyse individual and collective identities of early modern women tracing the web of power relations emerging from women's social interactions and contemporary understandings of femininity Essays range from the late medieval period to the eighteenth century study women in England France Germany Ireland Italy and Sweden and locate women in a variety of social environments from household neighbourhood and parish to city court and nation Despite differing local contexts the volume highlights continuities in women s experiences and the gendering of power relations across the early modern world Recognizing the critical power of gender to structure identities and experiences this collection responds to the challenge of the complexity of early modern women s lives In paying attention to the contexts in which women identified with other women or were seen by others to identify contributors add new depth to our understanding of early modern women s senses of exclusion and belonging
