Nursing Care of the Older Adult Mildred O. Hogstel, 1981 National Library of Medicine Current Catalog
National Library of Medicine (U.S.), Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.), First multi year cumulation covers six years 1965-70 Current Catalog, 1989 First multi year cumulation covers six years 1965-70 Handbook on Ethnicity, Aging, and Mental Health Deborah Padgett, 1995-01-30 This state of the art multi disciplinary reference is the first to assess the empirical research and conceptual frameworks for understanding the mental health needs and services use of the ethnic elderly. Leading scholars, researchers and clinicians in gerontology, epidemiology, psychiatry, psychology, sociology, anthropology, nursing and social work appraise varying approaches, the demographics, the mental health status and service use of the ethnic elderly and issues in the diagnosis, treatment and mental health service delivery for the ethnic aged: for African Americans, American Indians, Asian and Pacific Islander Americans and Hispanic/Latino Americans. This unique handbook is a valuable resource and text for students, teachers and professionals in a broad array of fields and settings. The handbook considers such problems as Alzheimer's Disease, depression and problems of coping, culturally specific psychosocial nursing care programs, the role of culture and class in mental and physical comorbidity among the elderly and important life course perspectives for specific groups. Students, teachers and professionals in many fields and settings will find this unique handbook a valuable resource and text. EBOOK: Quality of Life and Older People John Bond, Lynne Corner, 2004-09-16 What is quality of life How should we assess quality of life for older people What are the personal and external influences on quality of life for older people Quality of Life and Older People provides a critical approach to the conceptualization and measurement of quality of life in social gerontology and health and social care research The book re-examines what we mean by quality of life in a post modern world and examines the impact of continuous personal and social changes on the lives of older people The book explores ideas about quality of life in social gerontological literature and describes the experiences of older people through both their own personal accounts and representations in everyday life popular culture and scientific research In this way the book is unique since it reviews the way that older people talk about their quality of life and how this differs from the ways that younger people researchers and scientists policy makers and professionals discuss it The book draws on a range of behavioural and social science knowledge to present a new way of thinking about and understanding quality of life and older people While the book provides a critique of existing social science theories underpinning conceptions of quality of life it also addresses operational issues for the use of quality of life in social gerontological research Quality of Life and Older People is essential reading for undergraduate and postgraduate students taking courses in gerontology medicine nursing social work and social sciences It is also of interest to social gerontologists and health and social care researchers as well as to those involved in the planning and delivery of services to older adults

Ebook: Life-Span Development Santrock, 2016-09-16 Ebook Life Span Development Subject Catalog, 1981 Library of Congress, 1981 The Ethics of Caring for Older People British Medical Association, 2009-02-23 This book is the British Medical Association's statement on the ethics related to care of the elderly written and reviewed by a panel of renowned medical ethicists As such it is an authoritative and considered reference written in an accessible non jargon so as to be useful for anyone charged with looking after the elderly The book includes useful case examples so that it can be used by a range of health professionals and carers who need to know the law and ethics of looking after older people The authors focus on practical issues such as helping older people stick to their treatment regimes the sort of information they should be given to give valid consent and their rights to confidentiality as well as discussion about where they want to end their lives when it comes to that point Handbook of Behavioral and Cognitive Therapies with Older Adults Dolores Gallagher Thompson, Ann Steffen, Larry W. Thompson, 2007-10-12 It gives me great pleasure to witness continued growth in the application of cognitive and behavioral theories and therapies to more diverse populations including in this volume their application to the mental health problems of later life Evidence continues to accumulate demonstrating that these are effective in treating a broad range of elderly patient groups This is the first book to examine a number of these evidence based interventions currently in use with older adults The editors have assembled chapters developed in many of the leading clinical and clinical research programs focusing on elderly patients both in this country and in the UK Since the emphasis of this volume is primarily on clinical application each author group was asked to discuss the empirical data for the treatment strategies it is using with the specific patient group selected Typically this was followed by a detailed description of treatment procedures that were then illustrated by one or more clinical examples The book begins by examining the treatment of depressive and anxiety disorders and then moves on to more complicated and/or serious disorders including schizophrenia and other psychoses suicidal behavior personality disorders bipolar disorders dementia and complicated bereavement A chapter on the problems and issues in training therapists to use evidence based interventions effectively is also included along with a chapter discussing the implications of Medicare policies and guidelines for service delivery Applying the Roper-Logan-Tierney Model in Practice E-Book Karen Holland, Jane Jenkins, Jackie Solomon, Sue Whittam, 2008-04-08 The eBook version of this title gives you access to the complete book content electronically Evolve eBooks allows you to quickly search the entire book make notes add highlights and study more efficiently Buying other Evolve eBooks titles makes your learning experience even better all of the eBooks will work together on your electronic bookshelf so that you can search across your entire library of Nursing eBooks Please note that this version is the eBook only and does not include the printed textbook Alternatively you can buy the Text and Evolve eBooks Package which gives you the printed book plus the eBook Please scroll down to our Related Titles section to find this title This is a new edition of the highly successful textbook which explores the use of the Roper Logan and Tierney Model of Nursing in practice It underpins nursing care for patients with a variety of health care problems The main focus is on nursing adult patients in acute and community based settings Applying the RLT Model in Practice has been written to enable students and their teachers in both Higher Education and clinical practice to explore the different dimensions of the model through a variety of case studies and exercises The case studies can be viewed as triggers for student problem solving skills in using the Model Many of the exercises are aimed at enabling readers to find evidence to support nursing activities The authors have incorporated an international perspective throughout the text Based on the most popular model used in general nursing care throughout the world Explicitly demonstrates how the RLT model can be used to assess plan deliver and evaluate individualised nursing care Applies the RLT model in the context of today s health services and links it to clinical governance and the multi disciplinary context of care Uses a problem solving approach with extensive use of exercises and case studies Attractive two colour design using boxes tables and summaries Fully updated throughout in line with changes in practice developments in the evidence base changes in the NHS e g modern matrons Modernisation Agency etc More material on how to apply the model in an inter disciplinary context Updated infection control section More on discharge planning More material relating to primary care
