Nurturing Faith and Hope Anne E. Streaty Wimberly, 2010-02-01 Wimberly's latest work presents pastors church lay leaders and scholars with a new lens to think critically and joyously about how Christian education undergirds and supports the worship experience in nurturing faith and hope in black parishioners David L Wallace Sr Dean Johnson C Smith Theological Seminary The Interdenominational Theological Center Atlanta Georgia This highly recommended work provides a thoughtful yet comprehensive framework of the black Christian worshipping community as the context where faith and hope are nurtured Marsha Snulligan Haney Associate Professor of Missiology and Religions of the World The Interdenominational Theological Center Atlanta Georgia This is a must read for all pastors and worship designers who desire to make worship relevant for African American Congregations Cecelia M Long former General Secretariat of the General Commission on the Status and Role of Women in the United Methodist Church Innovative dynamic thought provoking and inspiring A must read for pastors church leaders Christian educators and anyone interested in revitalizing Christian education in the 21st Century Yolanda Y Smith Assistant Professor of Christian Education Yale University Divinity School and author of Reclaiming the Spirituals New Possibilities for African American Christian Education Dr Wimberly has seized upon the heretofore unspoken wisdom of the black church Local church laity and clergy will easily access this fine work for local churches Lynne Westfield Assistant Professor of Christian Education Drew Theological School Madison New Jersey Wimberly understands comprehensively the ways education is embodied in congregational life Indeed she invites us to nurture faith and hope Jack L Seymour Professor of Religious Education and Academic Dean Garrett Evangelical Theological Seminary Evanston Illinois Anne E Streaty Wimberly is Professor of Christian Education at The Interdenominational Theological Center in Atlanta Georgia She is the author of several books including Soul Stories African American Christian Education 1994 Black Church Studies Stacey Floyd-Thomas, Juan M. Floyd-Thomas, Carol B. Duncan, Dr. Stephen G. Ray JR., Nancy Lynne Westfield, 2007-11-01 Religious Studies Over the last thirty years African American voices and perspectives have become essential to the study of the various theological disciplines Writing out of their particular position in the North American context African American thinkers have contributed significantly to biblical studies theology church history ethics sociology of religion homiletics pastoral care and a number of other fields Frequently the work of these African American scholars is brought together in the seminary curriculum under the rubric of the black church studies class Drawing on these several disciplines the black church studies class seeks to give an account of the broad meaning of Christian faith in the African American experience Up to now however there has not been a single comprehensive textbook designed to meet the needs of students and instructors in these classes Black Church Studies An Introduction will meet that need Drawing on the work of specialists in several fields it introduces all of the core theological disciplines from an African American standpoint from African American biblical interpretation to womanist theology and ethics to sociological understandings of the life of

African American churches It will become an indispensable resource for all those preparing to serve in African American congregations or to understand African American contributions to the study of Christian faith Looks at the diverse definitions and functions of the Black Church as well as the ways in which race class religion and gender inform its evolution Provides a comprehensive view of the contributions of African American Scholarship to the current theological discussion Written by scholars with broad expertise in a number of subject areas and disciplines Will enable the reader to relate the work of African American theological scholars to the tasks of preaching teaching and leading in local congregations Will provide the reader the most comprehensive understanding of African American theological scholarship available in one volume Stacey Floyd Thomas Brite Divinity School Juan Floyd Thomas Texas Christian University Carol B Duncan Wilfrid Laurier University Stephen G Ray Jr Lutheran Theological Seminary Philadelphia Nancy Lynne Westfield Drew University Theology Theology and Doctrine Contemporary Theology

Transforming Ministry Formation Hahnenberg, Edward P., Jewell, Marti R., Whapham, Theodore James, 2021 A theological and practical exploration of ministry formation in the church today

The Commercial Church Mary Hinton, 2011-05-19 In this new book on the rise of commercial black mega churches Mary Hinton examines the rich legacy of the historic black church from the dual perspectives of theology and religious education She explores the new religious models emerging from the tradition of the historic black church and questions whether they are continuing to operate and practice according to the wisdom of this unique form of American religion Two mega church ministries those of T D Jakes and Creflo Dollar are examined in detail with regards to how they align with black church religious history Hinton concludes by proposing that the fastest growing religious phenomenon within and outside of the black community in the United States the mega church should no longer be analyzed based on size alone Instead Hinton urges readers to consider the ecclesiastical structures of churches in making appropriate assessments in determining should and should not be classified as a commercial church

Religious Education in the African American Tradition Kenneth H. Hill, 2012-11 Schweitzer's goal in this book is to explore what postmodernity actually means for theology and how theology and the church may respond to its challenges He focuses on the life cycle as it is changing with the advent of postmodernity looking sequentially at segments of the life cycle using different lenses modernity postmodernity and responses from church and theology Schweitzer concludes with a theology of the life cycle

Empowering Black Youth of Promise Sandra L. Barnes, Anne Streaty Wimberly, 2016-06-10 Informed by the experiences of 772 Black churches this book relies on a multidisciplinary mixed methodological lens to examine how today's Black churches address the religious and non religious educational and broader socialization needs of youth Drawing from a cultural and ecological framework of village mindedness Barnes and Wimberly examine the intersected nature of place space and race to propel a conversation about whether and how the Black Church can become a more relevant and empowering presence for youth and the Black community centered catechesis toward a catechetical method that gets at the heart of faith formation for ALL generations storytelling In the African American storytelling tradition both the storyteller and listener are important they embody the story What happens in the story exchange process is the discovery of connections The author s method of African American storytelling My Story Your Story brings to life the Christian story through our shared experiences Intergenerational catechesis invites us to see ourselves and one another across time through eyes that are young middle aged and elderly Based on an understanding of family intergenerational catechesis moves away from the domestic church as a starting point for growing in faith to the community as a starting point Where the domestic church focuses on those who live in the household intergenerational catechesis focuses on everyone in the Church community single persons divorced persons widows widowers teens young adults pre school and elementary children parents grandparents aunts and uncles In highlighting our connections we are better able to see ourselves and one another differently When we see ourselves and others transformed faith is revitalized Encyclopedia of Christian Education George Thomas Kurian, Mark A. Lamport, 2015-05-07 Christianity regards teaching as one of the most foundational and critically sustaining ministries of the Church As a result Christian education remains one of the largest and oldest continuously functioning educational systems in the world comprising both formal day schools and higher education institutions as well as informal church study groups and parachurch ministries in more than 140 countries In The Encyclopedia of Christian Education contributors explore the many facets of Christian education in terms of its impact on curriculum literacy teacher training outcomes and professional standards This encyclopedia is the first reference work devoted exclusively to chronicling the unique history of Christian education across the globe illustrating how Christian educators pioneered such educational institutions and reforms as universal literacy home schooling Sunday schools women s education graded schools compulsory education of the deaf and blind and kindergarten With an editorial advisory board of more than 30 distinguished scholars and five consulting editors The Encyclopedia of Christian Education contains more than 1 200 entries by 400 contributors from 75 countries These volumes covers a vast range of topics from Christian education History spanning from the church s founding through the Middle Ages to the modern day Denominational and institutional profiles Intellectual traditions in Christian education Biblical and theological frameworks curricula missions adolescent and higher education theological training and Christian pedagogy Biographies of distinguished Christian educators This work is ideal for scholars of both the history of Christianity and education as well as researchers and students of contemporary Christianity and modern religious education Keep It Real Prof. Anne E. Streaty Wimberly, 2010-12-01 Offers the village of hope as a framework where pastors and leaders offer the church as a place of support guidance and accountability for youth parents and other adults who are raising today s black youth The first edition of Working with Black Youth edited by Charles R Foster and Grant S Shockley was published in 1989 Since that time the challenges for black youth have only intensified and grown in complexity A burning question of Black churches continues to be How can we effectively ministry with our youth Their world is fast paced media centered techno savvy hip hop violent and plagued with HIV AIDS The Church wants to guide youth toward a Christian identity with values for wise decision making Youth want their questions heard They want to see hope modeled They need leadership opportunities While there are no quick easy or singular approaches to working with black youth there can be a framework to offer vital and relevant youth ministry This book proposes a comprehensive framework that has evolved over ten years of annual youth and family convocations of the Interdenominational Theological Center as well as youth and family forums and activities related to the Youth Hope Builders Academy of ITC The framework builds on the image of the congregation as a village of hope where pastors and leaders get real to offer the church as a place of support guidance and accountability for youth parents and other adults who are raising today s black youth Contributors Daniel O Black Philip Dunston Maisha I Handy Michael T McQueen Tapiwa Mucherera Elizabeth J Walker Herbert R Marbury Annette R Marbury and Anne E Streaty Wimberly And We Shall Learn through the Dance Kathleen S. Turner, 2021-07-28 Liturgical dance is a way to present reflect instruct learn study and share religious beliefs with one s self within one s worship community and with one s God Such a belief is confirmed and witnessed within a variety of religious settings throughout the world from the beginning of time to this present age However there is a vacuum of resources that connect liturgical dance within the Christian context as a tool for religious learning within the field of religious education With the continual rise of liturgical dance as an artistic form of expression this book proposes that liturgical dance offers unique attributes conducive to the teaching and learning of faith and to faith formation Kathleen S Turner shows how liturgical dance is religious education in two very important ways first by addressing the power and potential liturgical dance has in nourishing the faith life of Christian congregants through means that are both educative and reflective and second by giving examples of how liturgical dance can be implemented as a religious education tool within the teaching life of the church The Black Church Studies Reader Alton B. Pollard, Carol B. Duncan, 2016-04-29 The Black Church Studies Reader addresses the depth and breadth of Black theological studies from Biblical studies and ethics to homiletics and pastoral care The book examines salient themes of social and religious significance such as gender sexuality race social class health care and public policy While the volume centers around African American experiences and studies it also attends to broader African continental and Diasporan religious contexts The contributors reflect an interdisciplinary blend of Black Church Studies scholars and practitioners from across the country The text seeks to address the following fundamental questions What constitutes Black Church Studies as a discipline or field of study What is the significance of Black Church Studies for theological education What is the relationship between Black Church Studies and the broader academic study of Black religions What is the relationship between Black Church Studies and local congregations as well as other faith based entities The book s search for the answers to these questions is compelling and illuminating Nurturing Faith Fred P. Edie, Mark A. Lamport, 2021-09-07 Faith left on rocky soil withers

But faith nurtured in the good soil of Christian teaching formation and mentorship grows to maturity and yields thriving community Educational ministries are so often where this happens where the desires of the human heart are shaped toward a love for God a love for one's neighbor and a love for the world In this comprehensive guide to educational ministries in the twenty first century Fred Edie and Mark Lamport explore how church leaders and others involved in Christian education can nurture a robust cruciform faith within their communities When discussing strategies and goals Edie and Lamport consider a range of contexts and a variety of related fields that might give insight into educational ministry theology pedagogy philosophy social science and more Those working with any age group children adolescents and adults will find a relevant discussion of key underlying theological themes a guide to concrete practices and indispensable help in navigating shifting cultural dynamics Exceedingly practical and consistent with the teachings of the gospel the wisdom in this book will speak to all who long to foster discipleship in their church school or missional community Key Features A Road Map at the beginning of each chapter concisely introduces the chapter's topic and essential themes Sidebars throughout the text provide deeper insight into particular important or nuanced concepts Discussion questions at the end of each chapter facilitate further reflection especially in conversation with others Suggestions for further reading are provided at the end of each chapter for those interested in exploring the chapter's ideas in greater depth Concluding the book is a series of afterwords from experts in the field of Christian educational ministries Martyn Percy Almeda Wright Craig Dykstra Kirsten Oh Elizabeth DeGaynor and Thomas Groome Preaching Prophetic Care Phillis Isabella Sheppard, Dawn Ottoni-Wilhelm, Ronald J.

Allen, 2018-06-25 Preachers often think of prophetic preaching in the caricature of the prophet as the lonely outsider confronting the congregation often angrily with the congregation's complicity in social injustice and with a bracing call for repentance The twenty seven essays and sermons in this book offer a different perspective by viewing prophetic preaching specifically and ministry practical theology and theological education more broadly as pastoral care for the community in prophetic perspective Such preaching does indeed bring a critical theological analysis of justice concerns to the center of the sermon but in such a way as to invite the congregation to consider how the move toward justice is a pastoral move that is a move that seeks to build up community Rather than contributing to the polarization so rampant in today's social world the preacher seeks to help the congregation build bridges along which concern for justice can travel The contributions honor the work of the late Dale Andrews a scholar of preaching and practical theology at the Divinity School Vanderbilt University whose seminal work inspires the notions of prophetic care and building bridges to justice American Book Publishing Record, 2003 T&T Clark Handbook of African American Theology, 2019-07-25 This handbook explores the central theme of Christian faith from various disciplinary approaches and different contexts of black experience in the United States The central unifying theme is freedom an important concept both in American culture and Christianity African American theology represents a Christian understanding of God's freedom and the good news of God's call for all humankind to enter life true human identity and moral responsibility in genuine and just community Contributors to the volume argue that African American theology highlights how racism and other intersecting forms of oppression complicate the human predicament and that their eradication requires an expansion of salvation to include the liberation of persons who lack full participation in society and enjoyment of the good and goods made possible by that society The essays in this handbook employ the tools of biblical criticism history cultural and social analysis religious studies philosophy and systematic theology in order to explore and assess the nature and impact of race ethnicity gender sexuality class immigration and cultural and moral pluralism in America as well as the intersections between African American and African diasporan religious thought and life Practical Theology for Black Churches Dale P. Andrews, 2002-01-01 Exploring the concept of church as refuge offers a way to bridge the gap between black theology with its social and political concerns and black churches with their emphases on pastoral care and piety Black Religion and Aesthetics A. Pinn, 2009-07-06 A great deal of attention has been given to the sociopolitical and theological importance of Black Religion However of less academic concern up to this point is the aesthetic qualities that define much of what is said and done within the context of Black Religion Recognizing the centrality of the black body for black religious thought and life this book proposes a conversation concerning various dimensions of the aesthetic considerations and qualities of Black Religion as found in various parts of the world including the Americas the Caribbean Africa and Europe In this respect Black Religion is simply meant to connote the religious orientations and arrangements of people of African descent across the globe Salt, Light, and a City, Second Edition Graham Joseph Hill, 2020-07-24 Jesus is calling his church to be a multiethnic and missional people who listen and learn from the many voices of world Christianity Graham Joseph Hill issues a moving call for churches to be missional by being conformed to the image of Jesus Christ Hill does this by exploring the thinking of twenty five Asian African Latin American Indigenous African American diaspora Caribbean Oceanian Eastern European and Middle Eastern pastors and theologians These are as diverse as Melba Padilla Maggay Emmanuel Katongole Lamin Sanneh Oscar Muriu Ruth Padilla DeBorst Pope Francis Richard Twiss Lisa Sharon Harper Willie James Jennings Ada Maria Isasi Diaz Soong Chan Rah and Mitri Raheb These voices show us the future of missional churches in world Christianity When churches are conformed to Christ they make disciples heal a broken world and witness to Jesus and his gospel Jesus forms us in his image and moves us to be a people of shalom humility character justice peace wisdom prayer beauty and witness The church has had a Reformation but now it needs a Conformation Hill explores biblical themes and the voices of world Christianity to show that a missional church is conformed to the image of the incarnate crucified resurrected and glorified Christ Conformity to Christ is the heart of missional ecclesiology and discipleship Christian Sacred Music in the Americas Andrew Shenton, Joanna Smolko, 2021-02-17 Christian Sacred Music in the Americas explores the richness of Christian musical traditions and reflects the distinctive critical perspectives of the Society for Christian Scholarship in Music This volume edited by Andrew Shenton and Joanna Smolko is a follow up to SCSM's Exploring Christian Song and offers a cross section of the most current and outstanding scholarship from an international array of writers. The essays survey a broad geographical area and demonstrate the enormous diversity of music making and scholarship within that area. Contributors utilize interdisciplinary methodologies including media studies, cultural studies, theological studies, and different analytical and ethnographical approaches to music. While there are some studies that focus on a single country, musical figure, or region, this is the first collection to represent the vast range of sacred music in the Americas and the different approaches to studying them in context. Pinnacle of Faith

Leverda Watkins, 2010-06-24
Life was so good with a wonderful loving and well known husband. The pain of losing him was intolerable, but there was little time to feel it. Left alone with four children all under the age of 9, Leverda Watkins had to figure out how she was going to do this. How was she going to raise four children on her own? Three of the four had chronic asthma, and her oldest daughter was diagnosed with a rare genetic disorder that required numerous operations. With a lot of faith, a good sense of humor, and the help of good friends and family, Leverda overcomes each trial one by one, one day at a time.
