An International Annotated Bibliography of Strindberg Studies 1870-2005: General studies Michael Robinson, 2008 This copiously annotated bibliography documents and examines the whole range of commentary on Strindberg s works and activity in many fields besides the plays for which he is internationally best known These include his prose fiction and poetry his work as an historian and natural historian and his relationship to the other arts most notably his painting It is concerned with both lasting works of literary and dramatic criticism as well as reviews of his books and plays in the theatre and some more ephemeral material all of this in several languages Organised generically and by subject and individual work the bibliography enables the reader to trace the changing impact of Strindberg and his works in various countries and during different periods It is thus very much a study in reception as well as a bibliographical record of published material It traces the developing image of Strindberg and his writing both during his lifetime and in subsequent years and with frequent cross reference offers a comprehensive overview of a literary and existential project that has rarely been matched for its multifaceted diversity The bibliography is published in three parts Volume 2 The Plays 978 0 947623 82 1 and Volume 3 Prose Poetry Miscellaneous 978 0 947623 83 8 are also now available Michael Robinson is Emeritus Professor of Drama and Scandinavian Studies at the University of East Anglia Norwich Documentarism in Scandinavian Literature Poul Houe, Sven Hakon Rossel, 1997 Documentary literature became an international phenomenon on the cultural and political scene in the 1960s and 1970s From the American New Journalism in works by such writers as Norman Mailer and Tom Wolfe to the German Industriereportagen by Gunther Wallraff and others documentarism presented a variety of controversial interplays between facts and fiction labeled as fiction fables of fact or the like Scandinavian literature made important and unique contributions to this international movement and Documentarism in Scandinavian Literature is the first comprehensive volume ever published on the historical significance and future implications of these Nordic dimensions of documentarism and their international context The volume is centered on Swedish documentary literature in the 1960s and 1970s and on such major writers as Per Olov Enquist Sven Lindqvist Sara Lidman and Per Olov Sundman but the powerful voices of Danish writer Thorkild Hansen and Norwegian novelist Dag Solstad are also heard in its critical concert The diversity of Documentarism in Scandinavian Literature is further enhanced by surveys and analyses of the historical background for more recent works and activities and by theoretical inquiries into the epistemological status of documentarism its theoretical narrative and theatrical devices its predominant genres and links to other modes of mass communication and its political affiliations and implications For readers already familiar with its subject matter Documentarism in Scandinavian Literature offers an opportunity to revisit and recontextualize a crucial moment in their recent cultural past For readers who have yet to be exposed to documentary works of fiction the volume presents a timely theoretical historical and critical introduction to the key problematics and potentials of their novel field of interest Whether viewed as part of the past or part of the present documentarism remains an intellectual challenge which this volume is aimed at addressing Documentarism in Scandinavian Literature is edited by two Scandinavian scholars living abroad and its essays are written by senior and junior scholars and critics from Scandinavia Europe and America an interview with Per Olov Enquist and an autobiographical piece by Sven Lindqvist complete the volume Aus Einem Unbekannten Zentrum, Zu Einer Nicht Erkennbaren Grenze Julie A. Reahard, 1997 In an attempt to discover the one idea with respect to which Goethe claimed he had worked while writing Die Wahlverwandtschaften taking my cue from Goethe himself I have united the investigational techniques of hermeneutics and complexity or chaos theory and brought them to bear on the structure of several of the mirroring events in the text The overwhelming conclusion of this author is that like those investigating chaos in nature literary theorists must turn to comprehensive approaches if they wish to treat seriously the structure of texts as works which flow from nature the nature of the human mind Historical Dictionary of Scandinavian Literature and Theater Jan Sjøvik, 2006-04-19 The literature of Scandinavia is amazingly rich and varied consisting of the works produced by the countries of Denmark Norway Sweden Finland and Iceland and stretching from the ancient Norse Sagas to the present day While much of it is unknown outside of the region some has gained worldwide popularity including the fairy tales of Hans Christian Andersen the stories of Isak Dinesen and the plays of Henrik Ibsen and August Strindberg While obviously including the area's most famous works the Historical Dictionary of Scandinavian Literature and Theater also provides information on lesser known authors and current trends literary circles and journals and historical background This is accomplished through a list of acronyms a chronology an introductory essay a bibliography and several hundred cross referenced dictionary entries which together make this reference the most comprehensive and up to date work of its kind related to Scandinavian literature and theater available anywhere World Encyclopedia of Contemporary Theatre Peter Nagy,Philippe Rouyer,2014-10-03 The World Encyclopedia of Contemporary Theatre Europe covers theatre since World War II in forty seven European nations including the nations which re emerged following the break up of the former USSR Czechoslovakia and Yugoslavia Each national article is divided into twelve sections History Structure of the National Theatre Community Artistic Profile Music Theatre Theatre for Young Audiences Puppet Theatre Design Theatre Space and Architecture Training Criticism Scholarship and Publishing and Further Reading allowing the reader to use the book as a source for both area and subject studies Eugene O'Neill Egil Törnqvist,2004-01-28 Eugene O'Neill wrote his plays for a theatre in which the playwright would take a central position He presented himself as a controlling personality both in the texts in the form of ample stage directions and in performances based on these texts His plays address several audiences reader spectator and production team and scripts were often different from the published versions This study examines O'Neill's multiple roles as a writer for many audiences After a description of O'Neill's working conditions and the multiple audiences of the plays this study examines the various formal aspects of the plays titles settings in time and place names and addresses language and connections and allusions to other works An examination of the plays follows with particular emphasis on Bound East for Cardiff Long Day's Journey Into Night and A Touch of the Poet Essays and Studies on English Language and Literature Uppsala universitet.
