Schall, 2022-04-15 Margaret Klem and John Meierhofer were Bavarian immigrants who arrived in New Jersey in the 1850s got married and started a small farm in West Orange When John returned from the Civil War he was a changed man neglecting his work and beating his wife Margaret was left to manage the farm and endure the suspicion of neighbors who gossiped about her alleged affairs Then one day in 1879 John turned up dead with a bullet in the back of his head Margaret and her farmhand Dutch immigrant Frank Lammens were accused of the crime and both went to the gallows making Margaret the last woman to be executed by the state of New Jersey Was Margaret the calculating murderess and adulteress portrayed by the press Or was she a battered wife pushed to the edge Or was she as she claimed to the end innocent Murder on the Mountain considers all sides of this fascinating and mysterious true crime story In turn it examines why this murder trial became front page news as it resonated with public discussions about capital punishment mental health anti immigrant sentiment domestic violence and women s independence This is a gripping and thought provoking study of a murder that shocked the nation The Florida Historical Quarterly,1990 Handbook of Research on Catholic Higher Education Kendall Hunt,Ellis A.
