critically examines the historical and current realities of the media in this country      Encyclopedia of Christianity in the United States George Thomas Kurian, Mark A. Lamport, 2016-11-10 From the Founding Fathers through the present Christianity has exercised powerful influence in the United States from its role in shaping politics and social institutions to its hand in inspiring art and culture The Encyclopedia of Christianity in the United States outlines the myriad roles Christianity has played and continues to play This masterful five volume reference work includes biographies of major figures in the Christian church in the United States influential religious documents and Supreme Court decisions and information on theology and theologians denominations faith based organizations immigration art from decorative arts and film to music and literature evangelism and crusades the significant role of women racial issues civil religion and more The first volume opens with introductory essays that provide snapshots of Christianity in the U S from pre colonial times to the present as well as a statistical profile and a timeline of key dates and events Entries are organized from A to Z The final volume closes with essays exploring impressions of Christianity in the United States from other faiths and other parts of the world as well as a select yet comprehensive bibliography Appendices help readers locate entries by thematic section and author and a comprehensive index further aids navigation      Arab World Cinemas Marle Hammond, 2024-03-05 From the exaggerated emotions of 1930s Egyptian melodrama to the cryptic allegories of late 20th century Palestinian cinema Arab World Cinemas guides you through 28 Arabic language feature films released between 1933 and 2021 including Muhammad Khan's Dreams of Hind and Camilia 1989 Moufida Tlatli's Silences of the Palace 1994 and Elia Suleiman's Divine Intervention 2002 Written specially for students the book is split into 3 parts Egypt North Africa and the eastern Arab world Each part begins with an introductory essay that highlights the aesthetic and socio historical trends and currents in the cinematic traditions particular to that region Marle Hammond then dedicates individual chapters to a group of films from the highlighted region interpreting their form and content through the lenses of cinematic technique and concepts drawn from various disciplines in the arts humanities and social sciences      Women's Activism and New Media in the Arab World Ahmed Al-Rawi, 2020-06-01 Following the Arab Spring events in 2011 a number of important women's social movements as well as female figures and online communities emerged to create positive change and demand equality with men In Women's Activism and New Media in the Arab World Ahmed Al Rawi discusses and maps out new feminist movements organizations and trends assessing the influence of new media technologies on them and the impact of both on the values and culture of the Middle East Due to the participation of many women in the events of the Arab Spring he argues a new image of Middle Eastern women has emerged in the West As a result of social media women have generally become more effective in expressing their views and better connected with each other yet at the same time some women have been inhibited since many conservative circles use these new technologies to maintain their power Overall however Al Rawi argues that social media and new mobile technologies are assisting in creating changes that are predominately positive Often assisted by these new technologies the real change

makers are women who have clear agencies and high hopes and aspirations to create a better future for themselves

Abdul Aziz Said: A Pioneer in Peace, Intercultural Dialogue, and Cooperative Global Politics Nathan C. Funk, Meena Sharify-Funk, 2022-12-02 Known to many as American University's peace legend Abdul Aziz Said 1930-2021 led an academic career spanning nearly sixty years. Always a forward-looking thinker, Said consistently sought to be among the first to grapple with the leading edge issues of his day from decolonization and turbulent social change in developing countries to the influence of multinational corporations, the normative priority of human rights, cultural aspects of conflict resolution, and the promotion of Islamic-Western understanding. Taken together, his extensive writings, innovative pedagogy, and practical pursuits offer a model for engaged scholarship characterized by dynamic use of the platform provided by a university career to advance international peace, intercultural dialogue, and social justice, as well as a spiritual ethic emphasizing unity and connectedness among people from diverse cultural, religious, and racial backgrounds. Abdul Aziz Said has been an innovator in international relations and peace studies. Born in Syria, he completed his higher education in the United States and went on to teach multiple generations of international affairs students. He was a leading scholar focusing on global peace as well as Islam and peace. His writings address salient global issues from the 1950s to the first decades of the twenty-first century.

Peter Wallensteen: A Pioneer in Making Peace Researchable Peter Wallensteen, 2021-05-28 This book provides a broad overview of what peace research is all about by an author who has been involved in the field for more than half a century. Among other things, it gives a unique review of how peace research emerged in Sweden as the author was a key actor in the most crucial events during this formative period. The book also portrays how the discipline has grown from an initial focus on alternatives to war to the comprehensive study of the many dimensions of a lasting and positive peace. The author's own work covers causes of war, sanctions, conflict resolution, conflict data, mediation, and quality peace. They demonstrate the range of topics that have to be understood for a peace with quality. This is exemplified by some of the author's writings specifically selected for this volume, plus a few ones original to it. Some accounts of the author's involvements in actual peace processes in the 1990s are also included. This publication offers a substantial contribution to understanding the evolution of peace research as a field and is an important reading for scholars, policy makers, journalists, students, and any aspiring peace researcher, as well as for the public at large. Peter Wallensteen is a global pioneer of peace research due to his involvement in the creation of the Department of Peace and Conflict Research at Uppsala University, a major center in the field. He served as Head of Department from 1972 to 1999. Peter Wallensteen set up and directed the well-known Uppsala Conflict Data Program (UCDP), the global resource for the study of armed conflicts and peace negotiations. 1978-2015 Peter Wallensteen was the first holder of the Dag Hammarskjöld Chair in Peace and Conflict Research at Uppsala University. 1985-2012 He was also the first holder of the position as the Richard G. Starmann Sr. Research Professor of Peace Studies at the Kroc Institute for International Peace Studies, University of Notre Dame, USA. 2006-2018 Negotiating

Dissidence Stefanie Van de Peer, 2017-03-08 The first book to trace the female pioneers of Arab documentary filmmaking. In spite of harsh censorship, conservative morals, and a lack of investment, women documentarists in the Arab world have found ways to subtly negotiate dissidence in their films, something that is becoming more apparent since the Arab Revolutions. In this book, Stefanie Van de Peer traces the very beginnings of Arab women making documentaries in the Middle East and North Africa (MENA) from the 1970s and 1980s in Egypt and Lebanon to the 1990s and 2000s in Morocco and Syria. Supporting a historical overview of the documentary form in the Arab world with a series of in-depth case studies, Van de Peer looks at the work of pioneering figures like Ateyyat El Abnoudy, the mother of Egyptian documentary; Tunisia's Selma Baccar; and the Palestinian filmmaker Mai Masri. Addressing the context of the films' production, distribution, and exhibition, the book also asks why these women held on to the ideals of a type of filmmaking that was unlikely to be accepted by the censor and looks at precisely how the women documentarists managed to frame expressions of dissent with the tools available to the documentary maker. Case studies include Egypt's Ateyyat El Abnoudy, Lebanon's Jocelyne Saab, Algeria's Assia Djebar, Tunisia's Selma Baccar, Palestine's Mai Masri, Morocco's Izza Gacnini, Syria's Hala Alabdallah Yakoub. Paul Rogers: A Pioneer in Critical Security Analysis and Public Engagement Paul Rogers, 2018-07-30 This book brings together a collection of writings over the past half century from Professor Paul Rogers. As a leading peace researcher, he has gained an international reputation for the critical, independent, and rigorous analysis of international security and the underlying causes of global conflict. His work on the responses to 9/11 and the continuing failure of the war on terror, in particular, has shown prescience that has attracted widespread attention. Moreover, he has coupled his academic analysis with a determination to communicate widely beyond the university environment. With many thousands of radio and television interviews, hundreds of public lectures, and a world-wide following for his web publishing, this extramural engagement consistently seeks to raise the level of public debate on international security issues. Provides a radically different perspective on global security based on 50 years of analysis. Uniquely integrates economic, environmental, and security analysis into a single overview. Cogently demonstrates the urgent need to rethink our entire approach to global security. Secular Nationalism and Citizenship in Muslim Countries Kail C. Ellis, 2018-01-12 This edited volume examines the importance and significance of the Christian population in the Middle East and North Africa from the rise of Islam to present day. Specifically, the authors focus on the contributions of Christians to Arab politics, economy, and law. Using the current plight of Christians in the Muslim world (Iraq, Syria, Lebanon, Palestine, and Egypt), the contributors analyze the origins of the crises and propose recommendations and strategies to foster religious freedom, human rights, and an inclusive political system that ensures equality of citizenship for all communities to participate fully in their societies. Catalog of Copyright Entries, Third Series Library of Congress, Copyright Office, 1976 Galia Golan: An Academic Pioneer on the Soviet Union, Peace and Conflict Studies, and a Peace and Feminist Activist Galia Golan, 2018-10-26 This is an autobiography of an unusual and versatile woman focusing on her academic development and achievements as well as her international activism In addition to a discussion of the origins and path of the author s academic work and activism for peace and for women s rights that deals with the author s work in US intelligence and immigration to Israel in the 1960s the volume includes ground breaking articles from the different often controversial areas of her academic specializations Czechoslovak communism Soviet foreign policy peace studies the Arab Israeli conflict women s rights The volume also includes photos of the author at work and in action The book offers an inside look at a lifetime of courageous activities and ground breaking intellectual pursuits of a woman who was a leader in her academic field and in the struggle for peace and for women s rights The included texts themselves shed light on important topics both past and present including the Israeli Arab Conflict and also the issue of women and peace
