SHORTER POEMS ROBERT BROWNING, 1909

Robert Browning:

Selected Poems John Woolford, Daniel Karlin, Joseph Phelan, 2013-11-19 Robert Browning 1812-1889 was one of the defining figures of the Victorian age. Famous in his lifetime for his elopement and marriage to Elizabeth Barratt, his critical reputation grew steadily in the years following her early death. Browning's mastery of dramatic verse was evident throughout his career from such chillingly unforgettable monologues as My Last Duchess and Porphyria to the mature work included in his collection Dramatis Personae. This selection, chosen by leading scholars, reveals the innovation, complexity, and profound psychological insight that have ensured Browning's enduring reputation and his continuing appeal to readers today. Browning's Selected Poems results from a completely fresh appraisal of the canon text and context of the writer's work. The poems are presented in the order of their composition and in the text in which they were first published, giving a unique insight into the development of Browning's art. An introduction and chronology offer useful background material, whilst annotations and headnotes provide details of composition, publication sources, and contemporary reception. This authoritative yet accessible selection should become the first point of reference for scholar, student, and general reader alike. The Dial, 1911

Media, Religion and Culture Jeffrey H. Mahan, 2014-06-05 Religion has always been shaped by the media of its time, and today we live in a media culture that informs much of what we think and how we behave. Religious believers, communities, and institutions use media as tools to communicate but also as locations where they construct and express identity, practice religion, and build community. This lively book offers a comprehensive introduction to the contemporary field of religion, media, and culture. It explores the religious content of media texts and the reception of those texts by religious consumers who appropriate and reuse them in their own religious work. How new forms of media provide fresh locations within which new religious voices emerge, people reimagine the task of religion, and develop and perform religious identity. Jeffrey H. Mahan includes case study examples from both established and new religions, and each chapter is followed by insightful reflections from leading scholars in the field. Illustrated throughout, the book also contains a glossary of key terms, discussion questions, and suggestions for further reading.
