HANIEL LONG

This book is published by Writers' Editions, a cooperative group living in the Southwest. It is the first instance of a group of writers cooperating in a publishing venture of their own. They are united in the general idea that regional publication is desirable and necessary. Their address is Box 750, Santa Fe, New Mexico.

Pittsburgh Memoranda

Stanley Burnshaw

Pittsburgh Memoranda:

Pittsburgh Memoranda Haniel Long, 1939 The World's Richest Neighborhood Quentin R. Skrabec, 2010 The residents of Pittsburgh's East End controlled as much as 40% of America's assets at the turn of the last century. Mail was delivered seven times a day to keep America's greatest capitalists in touch with their factories, banks, and markets. The neighborhood had its own private station of the Pennsylvania Railroad with a daily non-stop express to New York's financial district. Many of the world's most powerful men, princes, artists, politicians, scientists, and American Presidents such as William McKinley, Teddy Roosevelt, William Taft, Calvin Coolidge, and Herbert Hoover came to visit the hard-working and high-flying captains of industry. Two major corporations, Standard Oil and ALCOA Aluminum, were formed in East End homes. It was the first neighborhood to adopt the telephone with direct lines from the homes to the biggest banks in Pittsburgh, which at the time was America's fifth largest city. The story of this neighborhood is a story of America at its greatest point of wealth and includes rags to riches stories, political corruption scandals, and greed. The history of this unique piece of American geography makes for enjoyable reading that will satisfy a large cross-section of readers.

Notes for a New Mythology and Pittsburgh Memoranda. With a New Introduction by Benjamin A. Botkin Haniel Long, 1971 Smoke and Mirrors E. Melanie Dupuis, 2004-07 A history of the politics of air pollution Catalog of Copyright Entries, 1928 False Memory Tony Lopez, 1996 Poetry FALSE MEMORY is a major political poem written through the events of the 1990s representing the damaged world that we know in all its violence and inequality. Focusing on public language rather than private experience, FALSE MEMORY is a hilarious collage of all the specialized jargons and advertised slogans that situate us in the postmodern world.

A Stanley Burnshaw Reader Stanley Burnshaw, 2010-08-01 A Stanley Burnshaw Reader brings together selections from the major works of poetry and prose that have distinguished Burnshaw as one of the most important voices in twentieth-century letters. Included are essays from Burnshaw's two pioneering critical works. The Seamless Web praised by the New York Times Book Review as a defense of poetry that removes it from the realm of man's spiritual luxuries and places it preeminently among his instruments of survival, and The Poem Itself, a book that deals with forty-five poets of the last century in an entirely novel way, which as Lionel Trilling observed, allows the English-speaking reader an unprecedented intimacy with poems in the original tongues. Along with a generous excerpt from Robert Frost's Himself, this volume offers a representative selection of Burnshaw's poetry and his translations of other poets' work. A Stanley Burnshaw Reader affords those unfamiliar with Burnshaw an ideal introduction to his work. At the same time, readers who know his writings will discover new insights into his long and distinguished career.

Kenneth Burke and the Drama of Human Relations William H. Rueckert, 1983-05-18 Preliminary Inventories National Archives (U.S.), 1952 Ed Dorn Live Edward Dorn, 2007 Collects the commentary of the later years and last days of one of America's most powerful and unique poets.

Fierce Solitude: a Life of J.g. Fletcher (c), Wallace Stevens James Longenbach, 1991-10-31 Wallace Stevens

the poet and Wallace Stevens the insurance executive for more than one critical generation it has seemed as if these two men were unacquainted that Stevens was a poet who existed only in the rarefied world of language However the idea that Stevens lived a double life the author maintains is misleading This compelling book uncovers what Stevens liked to think of as his ordinary life a life in which the demands of politics economics poetry and everyday distractions coexisted sometimes peacefully and sometimes not Examining the full scope of Stevens s career from the student poet of the nineteenth century to the award winning poet of the Cold War years Longenbach reveals that Stevens was not only aware of events taking place around him but often inspired by those events The major achievements of Stevens s career are shown to coalesce around the major historical events of his lifetime the Great Depression and two World Wars but Longenbach also dwells on Stevens s two extended periods of poetic silence exploring the crucial aspects of Steven s life that were not exclusively poetic Longenbach demonstrates that through Stevens s work in surety law he was far more intimately acquainted with legal and economic concerns than most poets and he consequently thought deeply about the strengths and equally important the limitations of poetry as a social product and force

Places in the Making Jim Cocola, 2016-05-01 Places in the Making maps a range of twentieth and twenty first century American poets who have used language to evoke the world at various scales Distinct from related traditions including landscape poetry nature poetry and pastoral poetry which tend toward more idealized and transcendent lyric registers this study traces a poetics centered upon more particular and situated engagements with actual places and spaces Close generic predecessors of this mode such as topographical poetry and loco descriptive poetry folded themselves into the various regionalist traditions of the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries but place making in modern and contemporary American poetics has extended beyond its immediate environs unfolding at the juncture of the proximate and the remote and establishing transnational planetary and cosmic formations in the process Turning to geography as an interdisciplinary point of departure Places in the Making distinguishes itself by taking a comparative and multiethnic approach considering the relationship between identity and emplacement among a more representative demographic cross section of Americans and extending its inquiry beyond national borders Positing place as a pivotal axis of identification and heralding emplacement as a crucial model for cultural intellectual and political activity in a period marked and imperiled by a tendency toward dislocation the critical vocabulary of this project centers upon the work of place making It attends to a poetics that extends beyond epic and lyric modes while relying simultaneously on auditory and visual effects and proceeding in the interests of environmental advocacy and social justice often in contrast to the more orthodox concerns of literary modernism global capitalism and print culture Focusing on poets of international reputation such as Elizabeth Bishop Pablo Neruda Charles Olson and William Carlos Williams Places in the Making also considers work by more recent figures including Kamau Brathwaite Joy Harjo Myung Mi Kim and Craig

Santos Perez In its larger comparative multiethnic and transnational emphases this book addresses questions of particular moment in American literary and cultural studies and aspires to serve as a catalyst for further interdisciplinary work connecting geography and the humanities

The Letters of Robert Frost Robert Frost, 2021-04-30 The Letters of Robert Frost Volume 3 collects 601 letters covering 1929-1936 The letters chronicle Frost's negotiation of life as a public figure and as the head of a family enduring tragedy Fully annotated and accompanied by biographical material the letters reveal the mind of an artist at the height of his powers

Equipment for Living Kenneth Burke, 2010-03-10 Equipment for Living The Literary Reviews of Kenneth Burke is the largest collection of Burke's book reviews most of them reprinted here for the first time In these reviews as he engages famous works of poetry fiction criticism and social science from the early 20th century Burke demonstrates the prominent methods and interests of his influential career

Contested Records Michael Leong, 2020-05-13 Why have so many contemporary poets turned to source material from newspapers to governmental records as inspiration for their poetry How can citational poems offer a means of social engagement Contested Records analyzes how some of the most well known twenty-first century North American poets work with fraught documents Whether it's the legal paperwork detailing the murder of 132 African captives state transcriptions of the last words of death row inmates or testimony from miners and rescue workers about a fatal mine disaster author Michael Leong reveals that much of the power of contemporary poetry rests in its potential to select adapt evaluate and extend public documentation Examining the use of documents in the works of Kenneth Goldsmith Vanessa Place Amiri Baraka Claudia Rankine M. NourbeSe Philip and others Leong reveals how official records can evoke a wide range of emotions from hatred to veneration from indifference to empathy from desire to disgust He looks at techniques such as collage plagiarism re-reporting and textual outsourcing and evaluates some of the most loved and reviled contemporary North American poems Ultimately Leong finds that if bureaucracy and documentation have the power to police and traumatize through the exercise of state power then so too can document-based poetry function as an unofficial counterhegemonic and popular practice that authenticates marginalized experiences at the fringes of our cultural memory

Kenneth Burke in the 1930s Ann George, Jack Selzer, 2007 An invitation to mingle with Burke in the 30s and witness the development of his major works of the era

Wallace Stevens Charles Doyle, 2013-11-05 This set comprises of 40 volumes covering nineteenth and twentieth century European and American authors These volumes will be available as a complete set mini-boxed sets by theme or as individual volumes This second set complements the first 68 volume set of Critical Heritage published by Routledge in October 1995
