Pity The Innocent:

Pity the innocent Ethel Mannin, 1975 Politics, Innocence, and the Limits of Goodness Peter Johnson, 2019-11-21 First published in 1988 Moral innocence is of enduring interest because it seems to embody our ideals in their purest form The place of moral innocence in politics is the central theme of Peter Johnson's subtle and original book Are there moral dispositions which are not only incompatible with politics but actually endanger it If it is sometimes necessary to act badly in order to achieve desirable objectives what moral standpoints would exclude such a course of action Peter Johnson demonstrates convincingly why philosophical accounts of morality past and present are unable to explain moral innocence its full impact on politics can only be grasped by putting aside traditional theories Literature provides the key to a deeper understanding of the relationship between politics and morality Melville's Billy Budd Shakespeare's Henry VI and Graham Greene's The Quiet American reveal moral innocence at work in political circumstances of great intensity Through these and other literary figures we see at last the specific character of moral innocence and why it is connected with political disaster This closely reasoned yet deeply passionate book illuminates a problem of great contemporary interest and nowhere more so than in American public life Original in theme and content it confronts central issues of concern to the modern mind not simply to academics both teachers and taught but to all those interested in how they might be governed Sacred Game Cesareo Bandera, 2010-11-01 Interpreting Susan Sontag's Essays Mark K. Fulk, 2021-04-13 Interpreting Susan Sontag's Essays Radical Contemplative offers its readers a scholarly examination of her essays within the context of philosophy and aesthetic theory This study sets up a dialogue between her works and their philosophical counterparts in France and Germany including the works of Hannah Arendt Jacques Derrida Roland Barthes and Walter Benjamin Artists and concepts discussed in relation to Sontag's essays include the works of Andy Warhol Pop Art French New Wave Cinema the music of John Cage and the cinematic art of Robert Bresson Leni Riefenstahl Ingmar Bergman and Jean Luc Godard Her aesthetic formalism is compared with Harold Bloom and this is the first volume to examine her late works and their position within the American events of 9 11 01 and the War on Terrorism Rookwood William Harrison Ainsworth, 1836 Revised by W H Ainsworth Politics, Identity and Emotion Paul Hoggett, 2015-11-17 In this wide ranging book Paul Hoggett argues that human feelings and identities are constitutive of both personal and political life Engaging with major debates in political theory sociology and psychoanalysis he brings fresh insights to a range of issues dynamics of political protest intractable conflicts fundamentalism and populism the new political charismatics the nature of forgiveness and the relationship between anxiety and governance The book is conceptually innovative and accessible carefully introducing different theories of collective emotion and group identity and making extensive use of case studies from the U S England and across the globe
