Pivotal States:

The Pivotal States Robert Chase, Emily Hill, Paul M. Kennedy, 1999 The foreign policy framework proposed here assumes that of the world's 140 developing states there is a group of pivotal states whose futures are poised at critical turning points and whose fates will strongly affect regional and even global security These nine states Indonesia India Pakistan Turkey Egypt South Africa Brazil Algeria and Mexico are the ones upon which the United States should focus its scarce foreign policy resources Events of the past year in Indonesia India and Pakistan have already affirmed the wisdom of this policy In a series of cogent original case studies area experts explore the pivotal states strategy for each of the nine states Swing States Power Amelia Khatri, AI, 2025-02-15 Swing States Power examines the pivotal role these states play in U S presidential elections and their impact on national policy This book explores the evolution of swing states highlighting how demographic shifts and economic changes influence their political alignment One intriguing aspect is how the intense focus on these states can overshadow the needs of others creating both opportunities and challenges for American democracy The book analyzes voting patterns within swing states uncovering key demographic groups influencing voter behavior It also dissects campaign strategies such as resource allocation and messaging tactics employed by candidates Through historical election data public opinion polls and interviews the book guides readers through a logical progression defining swing states analyzing specific examples like Ohio and Florida and considering the implications for electoral fairness Quantitative Evaluation of Systems Kaustubh Joshi, Markus Siegle, Mariëlle Stoelinga, Pedro R. D'Argenio, 2013-07-23 This book constitutes the thoroughly refereed proceedings of the 10th International Conference on Quantitative Evaluation of Systems QEST 2013 held in Buenos Aires Argentina August 27 30 2013 The 21 revised full papers presented together with 9 tool demonstrations were carefully reviewed and selected from 52 submissions The papers are organized in topics such as probabilistic automata and Markov automata population models model checking and systems systems control and games timed automata and simulation Environmental Change and Security Project Report , 1997 Nomination and Election of President and Vice-President ... United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on the Judiciary, 1955 Facing Global Environmental Change Hans Günter Brauch, Navnita Chadha Behera, Patricia Kameri-Mbote, John Grin, Úrsula Oswald Spring, Béchir Chourou, Czesław Mesjasz, Heinz Krummenacher, 2009-06-04 The year 2007 could perhaps accurately be described as the year when climate change finally received the attention that this challenge deserves globally Much of the information and knowledge that was created in this field during the year was the result of the findings of the Fourth Assessment Report AR4 of the Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change IPCC which were disseminated on a large scale and reported extensively by the media This was the result not only of a heightened interest on the part of the public on various aspects of climate change but also because the IPCC itself proactively attempted to spread the findings of its AR4 to the public at large The interest generated on the scientific realities of climate change was further enhanced by the award of the

Nobel Peace Prize to the IPCC and former Vice President of the US Al Gore By taking this decision in favour of a leader who has done a great deal to create awareness on climate change and a body that assesses all scientific aspects of climate change and disseminates the result of its findings the Norwegian Nobel Committee has clearly drawn the link between climate change and peace in the world Congressional Record United States. Congress, 1979 The Congressional Record is the official record of the proceedings and debates of the United States Congress It is published daily when Congress is in session The Congressional Record began publication in 1873 Debates for sessions prior to 1873 are recorded in The Debates and Proceedings in the Congress of the United States 1789-1824 the Register of Debates in Congress 1824-1837 and the Congressional Globe 1833-1873 Constructing Allied Cooperation Marina E. Henke, 2019-10-15 How do states overcome problems of collective action in the face of human atrocities terrorism and the threat of weapons of mass destruction How does international burden sharing in this context look like between the rich and the poor the big and the small These are the questions Marina E Henke addresses in her new book Constructing Allied Cooperation Through qualitative and quantitative analysis of 80 multilateral military coalitions Henke demonstrates that coalitions do not emerge naturally Rather pivotal states deliberately build them They develop operational plans and bargain suitable third parties into the coalition purposefully using their bilateral and multilateral diplomatic connections what Henke terms diplomatic embeddedness as a resource As Constructing Allied Cooperation shows these ties constitute an invaluable state capability to engage others in collective action they are tools to construct cooperation Pulling apart the strategy behind multilateral military coalition building Henke looks at the ramifications and side effects as well As she notes via these ties pivotal states have access to private information on the deployment preferences of potential coalition participants Moreover they facilitate issue linkages and side payments and allow states to overcome problems of credible commitments Finally pivotal states can use common institutional contacts IO officials as cooperation brokers and they can convert common institutional venues into fora for negotiating coalitions The theory and evidence presented by Henke force us to revisit the conventional wisdom on how cooperation in multilateral military operations comes about The author generates new insights with respect to who is most likely to join a given multilateral intervention what factors influence the strength and capacity of individual coalitions and what diplomacy and diplomatic ties are good for Moreover as the Trump administration promotes an America First policy and withdraws from international agreements and the United Kingdom completes Brexit Constructing Allied Cooperation is an important reminder that international security cannot be delinked from more mundane forms of cooperation multilateral military coalitions thrive or fail depending on the breadth and depth of existing social and diplomatic networks The Cyprus Referendum Chrysostomos Pericleous, 2009-06-17 The Cyprus referendum of 2004 was a definitive moment in the recent history of Cyprus The island's future hung in the balance specifically the fate of the controversial Annan Plan which proposed the creation of a single United Cyprus Republic with two constituent states Accepted by the Turkish side but rejected by Greek Cypriots the Plan was not implemented In this balanced account of a highly charged period Chrysostomos Pericleous offers an exhaustive treatment of the events that culminated in the referendum and through his comparative study explains the positions ultimately taken by Greek and Turkish Cypriots The Cyprus Referendum presents the definitive account of the course of action taken by President Tassos Papadopoulos and his ruling coalition which ultimately led to the resounding No vote on the Annan Plan by the Greek Cypriots at the referendum Pericleous places the events on the island within a wider global context focusing especially on the re orientation of US foreign policy in the Greece Turkey Cyprus triangle Drawing together all the evidence the author explores the consequences for the island and whether the rejection of the referendum will lead to a period of decline for Cyprus unless a dramatic change occurs in Greek Cypriot politics An important contribution to the study of Cypriot politics The Cyprus Referendum provides readers with a deeper insight into the broader political framework within which the UN peace initiative in Cyprus has developed It is a meticulous study of a critical moment in Cypriot history and the depth of its research makes the book invaluable for anyone interested in the island past present and future

Hale,2013 This revised and updated version of William Hale s Turkish Foreign Policy 1774 2000 offers a comprehensive and analytical survey of Turkish foreign policy since the last quarter of the eighteenth century when the Turks relations with the rest of the world entered their most critical phase In recent years Turkey s international role has changed and expanded dramatically and the new edition revisits the chapters and topics covered in light of these changes Drawing on newly available information and ideas the author carefully alters the earlier historical narrative while preserving the clarity and accessibility of the original Combining the long historical perspective with a detailed survey and analysis of the most recent developments this book fills a clear gap in the literature on Turkey s modern history For readers with a broader interest in international history it also offers a crucial example of how a medium sized power has acted in the international environment

International Relations Theory and Regional Transformation T. V. Paul, 2012-02-23 Regional transformation has emerged as a major topic of research during the past few decades much of it seeking to understand how a region changes into a zone of conflict or cooperation and how and why some regions remain in perpetual conflict Although the leading theoretical paradigms of international relations have something to say about regional order a comprehensive treatment of this subject is missing from the literature This book suggests that cross paradigmatic engagement on regional orders can be valuable if it can generate theoretically innovative testable propositions and policy relevant ideas The book brings together scholars from the dominant IR perspectives aiming to explain the regional order issue through multidimensional and multi causal pathways and seeking meeting points between them Using insights from IR theory the contributors offer policy relevant ideas which may benefit conflict ridden regions of the world

Prohibition in the United States David Leigh Colvin, 1926 Reports and Documents United States. Congress, Graduating from the Electoral College Tomas J. McIntee, 2023-01-06 It s time to graduate from the Electoral College In this book Tomas J McIntee builds the case against the Electoral College from the perspective of an expert in the mathematics of voting systems applying a quantitative lens to a systematic and thorough analysis of every presidential election from 1788 to 2020 The motives behind the creation of the Electoral College are examined along with the motives of those defending the Electoral College and attempts past and present to abolish the system In all cases the Electoral College falls short of its promised virtues lurching from near catastrophe to near catastrophe repeatedly over the course of American history The author presents concise and incisive arguments against the popular myths that the Electoral College was created to protect the interests of small states rural voters and slave owners and that it has also failed to protect those interests in practice Instead of being a deliberative and wise body that presents a barrier against a demagogue gaining power it is chaotic sensitive to the impacts of everything from fraud to accidental errors in counting ballots to bad weather Rather than forcing candidates to appeal to the country as a whole the Electoral College system favors regionally divisive candidates over unifying candidates with broad national appeal
