Place To Come Back To:

We Come with this Place Debra Dank, 2023-11-02 Douglas Stewart Prize for Non Fiction Indigenous Writers Prize UTS Glenda Adams Award for New Writing Longlisted for the 2023 Stella Prize Prime Minister's Summer Reading List 2022 Grattan Institute We Come with This Place is a remarkable book as rich varied and surprising as the vast landscape in which it is set Debra Dank has created an extraordinary mosaic of vivid episodes that move about in time and place to tell an unforgettable story of country and people There is great pain in these pages and anger at injustice but also great love in marriage and in family and for the land Dank faces head on the ingrained racism born of brutal practice and harsh legislation that lies always under the skin of Australia the racism that calls a little Aboriginal girl names and beats and rapes and disenfranchises the generations before hers She describes sudden terrible violence between races and sometimes at home But overwhelmingly this is a book about strong beloved parents and grandparents guiding and teaching their children and grandchildren what country means about joyful gatherings and the pleasures of eating food provided by the place that nourishes them both spiritually and physically We Come with This Place is deeply personal a profound tribute to family and the Gudanji Country in Australia to which Debra Dank belongs but it is much more than that Here is Australia as it has been for countless generations land and people in effortless balance and Australia as it became but also Australia as it could and should be

Anna's Place Carol Eckhardt, 2016-10-11 Anna Royer and her daughter Elizabeth are haunted by the raw Wyoming landscape they left behind years before Their memories of the immensity of sky the breadth of distance the demons of weather and spirits of the Old Ones conspire to draw them back to see what remains of their life there What they find confronts them with confusion and death and changes their lives forever

Another Time, Another Place Gordon E. Jenkins, 2003-05-07 Two young people one white and one deemed black products of their environment separated by the rigid inhumane caste system of the Jim Crow South meet by chance bond and begin a forbidden relationship which nurtures and grows even when they attempt to terminate it knowing the potential consequences if they are discovered As they secretly flaunt the laws and traditions of the day they aggressively pursue their individual ambitions to escape the equally binding economic shackles As their commitment to each other becomes stronger they become bolder and challenge the status quo in ways that cannot be ignored by the power structure Their actions coupled with fate trigger unforeseen events with tragic consequences

A Place Called Home Eleanor Jones, 2015-02-01 You can take the woman out of the country When Ellie Nelson traded life in rural England for the big city she left painful memories behind Coming home to Little Dale means getting back in touch with nature and the animals that inspire her And a local wildlife vet could even help the fledgling painter realize her dreams Except he's the one who broke her heart Andy Montgomery has to tread with caution He can't put the creatures he's sworn to protect at risk And Ellie isn't ready to trust him again He doesn't blame her he still hasn't told her his biggest secret Once he does will Ellie leave their close knit community forever
