Place Makers:

Place Makers Ronald Lee Fleming, Renata Von Tscharner, 1987      Children as Place-Makers Simon Unwin, 2019-03-28

Each of these Analysing Architecture Notebooks is devoted to a particular theme in understanding the rich and varied workings of architecture. They can be thought of as addenda to the foundation volume Analysing Architecture which first appeared in 1997 and has subsequently been enlarged in three further editions. Examining these extra themes as a series of Notebooks rather than as additional chapters in future editions allows greater space for more detailed exploration of a wider variety of examples whilst avoiding the risk of the original book becoming unwieldy. As children we make places spontaneously on the beach in woodland around our homes. Those places are evidence of a natural language of architecture we all share. Beginning with the child as seed and agent of the places it makes, initial sections of Children as Place makers illustrate the key verbs that drive that natural language of architecture. Later sections look at the core importance of the circle of place, how as children we are drawn to inhabit boxes and the narrative possibilities that arise when place is linked with imagination. The principal messages of this Notebook are that it is by place making we make sense of the space of the world in which we live and that the first step in becoming a professional architect is to reawaken the innate architect inside each of us.

The Routledge Handbook of Placemaking Cara Courage, Tom Borrup, Maria Rosario Jackson, Kylie Legge, Anita Mckeown, Louise Platt, Jason Schupbach, 2020-12-30. This Handbook is the first to explore the emergent field of placemaking in terms of the recent research, teaching and learning and practice agenda for the next few years. Offering valuable theoretical and practical insights from the leading scholars and practitioners in the field, it provides cutting edge interdisciplinary research on the placemaking sector. Placemaking has seen a paradigmatic shift in urban design, planning and policy to engage the community voice. This Handbook examines the development of placemaking, its emerging theories and its future directions. The book is structured in seven distinct sections curated by experts in the areas concerned. Section One provides a glimpse at the history and key theories of placemaking and its interpretations by different community sectors. Section Two studies the transformative potential of placemaking practice through case studies on different places, methodologies and theoretical frameworks. It also reveals placemaking's potential to nurture a holistic community engagement, social justice and human-centric urban environments. Section Three looks at the politics of placemaking to consider who is included and who is excluded from its practice and if the concept of placemaking needs to be reconstructed. Section Four deals with the scales and scopes of art-based placemaking, moving from the city to the neighborhood and further to the individual practice. It juxtaposes the voice of the practitioner and professional alongside that of the researcher and academic. Section Five tackles the socio-economic and environmental placemaking issues deemed pertinent to emerge more sustainable placemaking practices. Section Six emphasizes placemaking's intersection with urban design and planning sectors and includes case studies of generative planning practice. The final seventh section draws on the expertise of placemakers researchers and evaluators to present the key questions today new methods and approaches to evaluation of placemaking in related fields and notions for the future of evaluation practices Each section opens with an introduction to help the reader navigate the text This organization of the book considers the sectors that operate alongside the core placemaking practice This seminal Handbook offers a timely contribution and international perspectives for the growing field of placemaking It will be of interest to academics and students of placemaking urban design urban planning and policy architecture geography cultural studies and the arts Strategic Customer Management Adrian Payne, Pennie Frow, 2013-03-28 The first textbook to integrate relationship marketing and CRM Case studies from around the world connect theory with global practice A House to Call Home Christie Purifoy, 2026-02-03 This collection of lyrical essays offers readers philosophical and practical insights into creating a deeper sense of belonging in the place they call home What makes a house a home It s a question with countless answers wholly unique to each of us Yet a common thread runs through the stories we tell about the places that bring us meaning and peace No matter how we define it home must evoke a strong sense of comfort Join acclaimed writer Christie Purifoy as she reflects on what makes a home truly special Through practical tips on decor inspiration thrifting and personal homemaking traditions Christie shows you how to craft a space that feels wholly yours With insights drawn from her own experiences you ll discover how to build sacred spaces that promote rest welcome and healing With creativity and care you can cultivate comfort in the house where you live Café Society A. Carriere, David Schalliol, 2021-04-18 In the wake of the Great Recession American cities from Philadelphia to San Diego saw an upsurge in hyperlocal placemaking small scale interventions aimed at encouraging greater equity and community engagement in growth and renewal But the projects that were the most successful at achieving these lofty ambitions weren't usually established by politicians urban planners or real estate developers they were initiated by community activists artists and neighbors In order to figure out why The City Creative mounts a comprehensive study of placemaking in urban America tracing its intellectual history and contrasting it with the efforts of people making positive change in their communities today Spanning the 1950s to the post recession 2010s The City Creative highlights the roles of such prominent individuals and organizations as Jane Jacobs Christopher Alexander Richard Sennett Project for Public Spaces and the National Endowment for the Arts in the development of urban placemaking both in the abstract and on the ground But that's only half the story Bringing the narrative to the present Michael H Carriere and David Schalliol also detail placemaking interventions at more than 200 sites in more than 40 cities combining archival research interviews participant observation and Schalliol's powerful documentary photography Carriere and Schalliol find that while these formal and informal placemaking interventions can bridge local community development and regional economic plans more often than not they push the boundaries of mainstream placemaking Rather than simply stressing sociability or market driven economic development these initiatives offer an alternative model of community led progress with the potential to redistribute valuable resources while producing tangible and intangible benefits for their communities The City Creative provides a kaleidoscopic overview of how these initiatives grow and sometimes collapse illustrating the centrality of placemaking in the evolution of the American city and how it can be reoriented to meet demands for a more equitable future Holy Bingo, the Lingo of Eden, Jumpin' Jehosophat and the Land of Nod Les Harding,2015-01-09 Christianity abounds with fascinating little known trivia Gas station attendants for example enjoy their own patron saint So do stamp collectors truss makers and sailors in the Bolivian navy Jesus and Judas were common names in the biblical period and Jesus of Nazareth had a brother named Judas The forbidden fruit was more likely an apricot than an apple and Delilah hired a barber to cut Sampson s hair This dictionary of miscellany combs the annals of Christian esoterica offering the most intriguing facts that are often forgotten overlooked or ignored Departing from the standard subject matter this work serves as an unruly companion to the typical Bible dictionary Nearly 1500 entries range from Aaron s beard a popular name for Saint John s wort to zounds an antiquated Christian swear word Information is cross referenced and includes numerous quotations The Place Economy - Volume 1 Andrew Hoyne,2023-04-01 The first instalment of The Place Economy reveals the real world social and economic benefits of effective placemaking exploring the benefits for developers and investors as well as broader societal outcomes In this book you will discover in depth case studies and expert voices from Australia and 10 other countries including Korea Singapore the United States England Denmark Holland New Zealand China and Belgium Together across 408 pages our contributors from fields such as planning architecture materials green space amenities and cultural connections present a picture of the prosperity we can all enjoy as industries as businesses and most importantly as people if we get to work now Pop-Up Civics in 21st Century America Ryan Salzman,2020-12-30 How people associate and engage in politics in the 21st century is notably different from similar behaviors in the 20th century Ryan Salzman examines the political potential of placemaking an increasingly popular set of behaviors that were unfamiliar to the American public until the last two decades Placemaking exemplifies a shift that is occurring in the way Americans participate in their political system and it appears that that participation is increasingly effective in the context of American democracy Informed by interviews surveys and material review Salzman compares the process of placemaking to traditional political and associational behaviors providing evidence that placemaking has tremendous political potential Placemaking is an innovative set of behaviors largely understood to influence economic and community development From painting crosswalks to community gardens Americans are engaging in their communities with real political and civic consequences This text expands our understanding of placemaking updating the way we think about
