Africa Reunite or Perish Mhango, Nkwazi Nkuzi, 2015-12-01 Africa Reunite or Perish is a daring and timely book that explores the essence and nefariousness of neocolonialism in a purportedly independent Africa The book shows how Africa spends billions of dollars in pseudo threats among African countries due to colonially entrenched fear and war mongering The book is emphatic on deconstruction and decolonisation as a categorical imperative for the reunification of Africa beyond the narrow confines of current nation states Mhango takes a diagnostic cum prognostic approach in discussing Africa's predicaments and in identifying and proposing solutions to problems confronting Africans The book ascertains Africa's untapped potentials by proving how Africa can live without the infamy of excruciating dependency and beggarliness It makes a compelling case for African unity beyond the tokenism of officialdom It prescribes a truly pan African driven reunification of Africa as the only means of reclaiming the glory she used to enjoy before she was savagely partitioned

Lost to the Sea, Britain's Vanished Coastal Communities Stephen Wade,2017-07-30 Once there was a Roman settlement on what is now Filey Brig In Holderness a prosperous town called Ravenser saw kings and princes on its soil and its progress threatened the good people of Grimsby But the Romans and the Ravenser folk are long gone as are their streets and buildings sunk beneath the hungry waves of what was once the German Ocean Lost to the Sea The Yorkshire Coast cliffs once seeming so strong have steadily crumbled into the water In the midst of this people have tried to live and prosper through work and play always aware that their great enemy the relentless sea is facing them As the East Coast has lost land the mud flats around parts of Spurn at the mouth of the Humber have grown Stephen Wades book tells the history of that vast land of Holderness as well which the poet Philip Larkin called the end of land The Vanishing Ice Iain

Hoffmann,2017-01-31 Richard C Hoffman s monumental study of rural life in medieval eastern Europe focuses on one region the Duchy of Wroclaw from the twelfth to sixteenth centuries The duchy is in many ways a microcosm of medieval European society and thus Hoffman s analysis addresses issues central to a broader understanding of a vanished society His analysis of the records of the Duchy of Wroclaw challenges the western stereotypes of east central Europe that have been imposed on its medieval past by modern nationalisms Honorable Mention Wallace K Ferguson Prize of the Canadian Historical Association

Suffolk in the Middle Ages Norman Scarfe,2007 Norman Scarfe explores place names the Sutton Hoo ship burial the coming of Christianity and the abbey at Bury St Edmunds concluding with an evocative study of five Suffolk places Southwold Dunwich Yoxford and Wingfield and Fressingfield The modern landscape of Suffolk is still essentially a medieval one though much of it is even earlier the five hundred medieval churches and ten thousand listed houses of historic or architectural interest and the Hundred lanes going back at least to the tenth century are often found to be set in a landscape created before the Roman conquest Suffolk in the Middle Ages opens with a discussion of the earliest written records the place names as a guide to settlement patterns including the setting of Sutton Hoo Among the grave goods found in that celebrated ship and discussed here was the whetstone sceptre asked to carry it from its showcase in the British Museum to the laboratory the author acknowledges a closer feeling of involvement even than helping to re open the ship in its mound in 1966 His explanation of the presence of the whetstone sceptre printed here has never been challenged The identification of a carved Anglo Saxon cross at Iken in 1977 prompted the essay here on St Botolph and the coming of East Anglian Christianity This leads to a consideration of the Danish invasion of East Anglia and a reexamination of the posthumous victory of King Edmund and Christianity as portrayed in an imaginary Breckland warren on the front of this book Scarfe s carefully reasoned argument that the Metropolitan Museum s famous walrusivory cross was made for the monks choir at Bury has never been refuted Life in Bury abbey is vividly reconstructed it was the most richly documented flowering of the work of East Anglia s apostles Felix and Fursa which also led to the phenomenal establishment in Suffolk by 1086 of four hundred of the five hundred medieval churches In four East Suffolk essays Southwold Dunwich Yoxford and Wingfield are exposed to Norman Scarfe s interpretative skills He reveals a past few could have guessed at often quite as curious as the Two Strange Tales unravelled in his concluding pages Canadian Books in Print. Author and Title Index, 1975 The Place Names of Middlesex John Eric Bruce Gover, 1922 The Origin and History of Irish Names of Places Patrick Weston Joyce, 1901 California Place Names Erwin G. Gudde, 1998 This anniversary edition concentrates on the origins of the names currently used for the cities towns settlements mountains and streams of California with engrossing accounts of the history of their usage The dictionary includes a glossary and a bibliography
