Plague, Pestilence, and the Pursuit of Power Steve Ransom, 2002      now and then 2 Bob Maddison, 2012-09-05 Lost civilizations Origins of mankind Why does mankind seem to need religion Why is there so much confusion and mental indigestion manifest among not only rank and file mankind but also actively demonstrated by the academics After all does it really matter who built the pyramids of Egypt Or when they were built Does it matter that there are so many confusing and conflicting claims by the proponents of the many religions So who or what is god Is it Jehovah Allah Krishna or Enlil Or perchance it is a fiction And what does it matter or avail if we understand the true origins of man or not If we cannot correctly understand who and what mankind is how can we ever know and understand what angels demons gods God or aliens are Is it that we are the aliens and this was not our earth      The Rise of Western Power Jonathan Daly, 2021-01-14 In this second edition of The Rise of Western Power Jonathan Daly retains the broad sweep of his introduction to the history of Western civilization as well as introducing new material into every chapter enhancing the book's global coverage and engaging with the latest historical debates The West's history is one of extraordinary success no other region empire culture or civilization has left so powerful a mark upon the world Daly charts the West's achievements representative government the free enterprise system modern science and the rule of law as well as its misdeeds two World Wars the Holocaust imperialistic domination and the Atlantic slave trade Taking us through a series of revolutions he explores the contributions of other cultures and civilizations to the West's emergence weaving in historical geographical and cultural factors The new edition also contains more material on themes such as the environment and gender and additional coverage of India China and the Islamic world Daly's engaging narrative is accompanied by timelines maps and further reading suggestions along with a companion website featuring study questions over 100 primary sources and 60 historical maps to enable further study

Toxic Bite Bill Kellner-Read, 2002      The Death of British Agriculture Richard North, 2001 British agriculture has been brought to its knees by the onslaught of successive crises      Postliberal Politics Adrian Pabst, 2021-06-16 Hyper capitalism and extreme identity politics are driving us to distraction Both destroy the basis of a common life shared across ages and classes The COVID 19 crisis could accelerate these tendencies further or it could herald something more hopeful a post liberal moment Adrian Pabst argues that now is the time for an alternative postliberalism that is centred around trust dignity and human relationships Instead of reverting to the destabilising inhumanity of just in time free market globalisation we could build a politics upon the sense of localism and community spirit the valuing of family place and belonging which was a real theme of lockdown We are not obliged to put up with the restoration of a broken status quo that erodes trust undermines institutions and trashes our precious natural environment We could build a pluralist democracy decentralise the state and promote embedded mutualist markets This bold book shows that only a politics which fuses economic justice with social solidarity and ecological balance can overcome our deep divisions and save us from authoritarian backlash      THE OLD
