Rethinking Intellectual History Dominick

LaCapra, 1983 Dominick LaCapra calls for a new view of intellectual history one that will revitalize the importance of reading and interpreting significant texts In ten essays he reformulates the problem of the relation between the great texts of the Western tradition and their contexts Seeking to refine context into a concept useful to historical research LaCapra urges intellectual historians to learn from lessons and developments in contemporary literary criticism and philosophy fields that have undertaken a radical reassessment of the reading of texts The Figural Jew Sarah Hammerschlag, 2010-05-15 The rootless Jew wandering disconnected from history homeland and nature was often the target of early twentieth century nationalist rhetoric aimed against modern culture But following World War II a number of prominent French philosophers recast this maligned figure in positive terms and in so doing transformed postwar conceptions of politics and identity Sarah Hammerschlag explores this figure of the Jew from its prewar usage to its resuscitation by Jean Paul Sartre Emmanuel Levinas Maurice Blanchot and Jacques Derrida Sartre and Levinas idealized the Jew's rootlessness in order to rethink the foundations of political identity Blanchot and Derrida in turn used the figure of the Jew to call into question the very nature of group identification By chronicling this evolution in thinking Hammerschlag ultimately reveals how the figural Jew can function as a critical mechanism that exposes the political dangers of mythic allegiance whether couched in universalizing or particularizing terms Both an intellectual history and a philosophical argument The Figural Jew will set the agenda for all further consideration of Jewish identity modern Jewish thought and continental philosophy Poetry Proscribed James Petterson, 2008 This work opens a different line of inquiry into the stakes of poetry through indepth investigations of the mishearing inherent to poetry's relation to philosophy history politics and the law Raison et pouvoir Marc
