Radical Aesthetic:

The Radical Aesthetic Isobel Armstrong, 2000-10-19 This ground breaking new work offers a spirited and severe critique of the turn to an anti aesthetic in theoretical writing and asserts that it has now become an intellectual necessity to rethink the aesthetic and remake aesthetic discourse

Aesthetic Subjects Pamela R. Matthews, David McWhirter, 2003 Recent calls for a return to aesthetics occur precisely at a moment when it is increasingly evident that nothing concerning aesthetics is self evident anymore Determined to recover the value of aesthetic experience for artistic cultural and social analysis the contributors to this volume prominent scholars in literature philosophy art history architecture history and anthropology begin from a shared recognition that ideological readings of the aesthetic have provided invaluable insights in particular that analyses of aesthetics within historical and social contexts tell us a great deal about the experience of aesthetic encounters From multiple and complementary perspectives the contributors address topics as varied as Nabokov and Dickens Caravaggio and Shelley Winters gender and sexuality advertising and AIDS Taken together their essays constitute a sustained and multifarious effort to resituate aesthetic pleasure in the mixed impure conditions characteristic of every social practice and experience however privileged or marginalized and to ask what happens to the aesthetic if we consider it apart from or at least in tension with its historically dominant discursive formulations As such this volume establishes a renewed sense of aesthetic discourse and its usefulness as a tool for understanding culture

Aesthetics of Music Stephen Downes, 2014-06-27 Aesthetics of Music Musicological Approaches is an anthology of fourteen essays each addressing a single key concept or pair of terms in the aesthetics of music collectively serving as an authoritative work on musical aesthetics that remains as close to the music as possible Each essay includes musical examples from works in the 18th 19th and into the 20th century Topics have been selected from amongst widely recognised central issues in musical aesthetics as well as those that have been somewhat neglected to create a collection that covers a distinctive range of ideas All essays cover historical origins sources and developments of the chosen idea survey important musicological approaches and offer new critical angles or musical case studies in interpretation

Beyond the Aesthetic and the Anti-Aesthetic James Elkins, Harper Montgomery, 2013-08-20 Each of the five volumes in the Stone Art Theory Institutes series and the seminars on which they are based brings together a range of scholars who are not always directly familiar with one another's work The outcome of each of these convergences is an extensive and unpredictable conversation on knotty and provocative issues about art This fourth volume in the series Beyond the Aesthetic and the Anti Aesthetic focuses on questions revolving around the concepts of the aesthetic the anti aesthetic and the political The book is about the fact that now almost thirty years after Hal Foster defined the anti aesthetic there is still no viable alternative to the dichotomy between aesthetics and anti or nonaesthetic art The impasse is made more difficult by the proliferation of identity politics and it is made less negotiable by the hegemony of anti aesthetics in academic discourse on art The central question of this book is whether artists and

academicians are free of this choice in practice in pedagogy and in theory The contributors are St phanie Benzaquen J M Bernstein Karen Busk Jepsen Luis Camnitzer Diarmuid Costello Joana Cunha Leal Angela Dimitrakaki Alexander Dumbadze T Brandon Evans Geng Youzhuang Boris Groys Be ta Hock Gordon Hughes Michael Kelly Grant Kester Meredith Kooi Cary Levine Sunil Manghani William Mazzarella Justin McKeown Andrew McNamara Eve Meltzer Nadja Millner Larsen Maria Filomena Molder Carrie Noland Gary Peters Aaron Richmond Lauren Ross Toni Ross Eva Sch rmann Gregory Sholette Noah Simblist Jon Simons Robert Storr Martin Sundberg Timotheus Vermeulen and Rebecca Zorach

Television, Tabloids, and Tears Jane Shattuc, 1995 I am Biberkopf Rainer Werner Fassbinder declared aligning himself with the protagonist of his widely seen television adaptation of Berlin Alexanderplatz The statement provoked an unprecedented national debate about what constituted an acceptable German artist and who has the power to determine art More than any recent German director Fassbinder embodied this debate and Jane Shattuc shows us how much this can tell us not just about the man and his work but also about the state of culture in Germany It is fascinating in itself that Fassbinder a highly controversial public f consider argument Comintern Aesthetics Amelia Glaser, Steven S. Lee, 2020-02-24 Founded by Vladimir Lenin in 1919 to instigate a world revolution the Comintern sought to advance not only the proletarian struggle but also a wide variety of radical causes including fighting against imperialism and racism in settings as varied as Ireland India the United States and China Notoriously and from the organization's outset these causes grew ever more subservient to Soviet state interest and Stalinist centralization Comintern Aesthetics shows how the cultural and political networks emerging from the Comintern have persisted even after the Comintern's demise in 1943 Tracing these networks through a multiplicity of artistic forms geared towards advancing a common liberated humanity this volume captures both the failure and the enduring allure of a Soviet centred world revolution The sixteen chapters in this edited volume examine cultural and revolutionary circuits that once connected Moscow to China Southeast Asia India the Near East Eastern Europe Germany Spain and the Americas The Soviet Union of the interwar years provided a template for the convergence of party politics and cultural history but the volume traces how this template was adapted and reworked around the world By emphasizing the shared Soviet routes of these far flung circuits Comintern Aesthetics recaptures a long lost moment in which cultures could not only transform perception but also highlight alternatives to capitalism namely an anti colonial world imaginary foregrounding race class and gender equality A Handbook of Romanticism Studies Joel Faflak, Julia M. Wright, 2016-01-19 The Handbook to Romanticism Studies is an accessible and indispensable resource providing students and scholars with a rich array of historical and up to date critical and theoretical contexts for the study of Romanticism Focuses on British Romanticism while also addressing continental and transatlantic Romanticism and earlier periods Utilizes keywords such as imagination sublime poetics philosophy race historiography and visual culture as points of access to the study of Romanticism and the theoretical concerns and the culture of the period Explores topics central to Romanticism studies and the critical trends of the last thirty years The Visual Culture of East German Picturebooks 1945–1990 Jörg Meibauer, 2025-06-02 This is the first study to explore picturebooks of the Soviet Occupation Zone and the German Democratic Republic analyzing them in the context of contemporary history social and cultural developments and through a precise analysis of selected images and their context By focusing on areas such as architecture and housing consumer culture traffic and transportation including the iconic role of the Trabant and the design of childhood as seen in pioneer uniforms and institutions the study identifies the unique blend of information about reality and socialist ideology typical of children's visual culture during this period This specific combination was aimed at shaping children to become socialist personalities The study thus demonstrates that pictorial representation and its textual integration are crucial for understanding childhood in the immediate post war period and the German Democratic Republic
