Rainbow Spirit In Creation:

The Rainbow Spirit in Creation Jasmine Corowa, 2000 Identifying God the Creator with the Rainbow Spirit Aboriginal Christians see in Christ the incarnation of the Rainbow Spirit in human form In The Rainbow Spirit in Creation the Rainbow Spirit Elders share the story of the creation of the land with colorful illustrations that show the Rainbow Snake as part of the seven days of creation offering a new interpretation of the Aboriginal culture and a view of the Creator Spirit as within the earth not apart from it The Invention of God in Indigenous Societies James Cox, 2014-09-19 Indigenous societies around the world have been historically disparaged by European explorers colonial officials and Christian missionaries Nowhere was this more evident than in early descriptions of indigenous religions as savage primitive superstitious and fetishistic Liberal intellectuals both indigenous and colonial reacted to this by claiming that before indigenous peoples ever encountered Europeans they all believed in a Supreme Being The Invention of God in Indigenous Societies argues that by alleging that God can be located at the core of pre Christian cultures this claim effectively invents a tradition which only makes sense theologically if God has never left himself without a witness Examining a range of indigenous religions from North America Africa and Australasia the Shona of Zimbabwe the Rainbow Spirit Theology in Australia the Yupiit of Alaska and the M ori of New Zealand the book argues that the interests of indigenous societies are best served by carefully describing their religious beliefs and practices using historical and phenomenological methods just as would be done in the study of any world religion

Australian Wetland Cultures John Charles Ryan, Li Chen, 2019-10-31 Among the most productive ecosystems on earth wetlands are also some of the most vulnerable Australian Wetland Cultures argues for the cultural value of wetlands Through a focus on swamps and their conservation the volume makes a unique contribution to the growing interdisciplinary field of the environmental humanities The authors investigate the crucial role of swamps in Australian society through the idea of wetland cultures The broad historical and cultural range of the book spans pre settlement indigenous Australian cultures nineteenth century European colonization and contemporary Australian engagements with wetland habitats The contributors situate the Australian emphasis in international cultural and ecological contexts Case studies from Perth Western Australia provide practical examples of the conservation of wetlands as sites of interlinked natural and cultural heritage The volume will appeal to readers with interests in anthropology Australian studies cultural studies ecological science environmental studies and heritage protection Environmental Humanities and Theologies Rod Giblett, 2018-06-13 Many ways of thinking about and living with the environment have their roots in the Bible and the Christian cultural tradition Environmental Humanities and Theologies shows that some of these ways are problematic It also provides alternative ways that value both materiality and spirituality Beginning with an environmentally friendly reading of the biblical story of creation Environmental Humanities and Theologies goes on to discuss in succeeding chapters the environmental theology of wetlands dragons and watery monsters including crocodiles and alligators in the Bible and literature It then gives a critical reading of the environmental theology of the biblical book of Psalms Theological concepts are found in the works of English writers of detective and devotional stories and novels American nature writers and European Jewish writers as succeeding chapters show Environmental Humanities and Theologies concludes with an appreciation for Australian Aboriginal spirituality in the swamp serpent It argues for the sacrality of marsh monsters and swamp serpents as figures of reverence and respect for living bio and psycho symbiotic livelihoods in bioregions of the living earth in the Symbiocene This is the hoped for age superseding the Anthropocene Environmental Humanities and Theologies is aimed at those who have little or no knowledge of how theology underlies much thinking and writing about the environment and who are looking for ways of thinking about being and living with the earth that respect and value both spirituality and materiality It is a new text nurturing sacrality for the Symbiocene
